BIBLE THOUGHT
—FOR TODAY—
Bible Thoughts memorized, will prove a precious heritage in after years.

GIVE GOD THE BEST:—Honor the Lord with thy substance, and with the first fruits of all thine increase.— Proverbs 3:9.

SHOULD REACH AN UNDERSTAND-ING.

We believe we are staying within the bounds of reason when we declare that the majority of the people of Concord and Cabarrus County are anxious to see a hard-surfaced road constructed from Concord to Albemarle. The question of what Stanley is going to do with her Highway money, whether she will build the road to Concord or to Charlotte, is a question of vital importance to Concord and Cabarrus people, and for that reason we feel the conference to be held in Albemarle on the 28th will be one of the utmost importance to this city and county. And for that reason a representative group of men should attend the meeting.

Several Concord men this week visited Albemarle and talked with business men there relative to the road. They reported that they were received with every courtesy in Albemarle, by both supporters and opponents of their plan. Nowhere was there organized antagonism, the Concord men report, and while they are not certain that they will be able to swing their project, they are at the same time anxious to get their side before the Stanley men, and for that reason asked for another hearing. This was granted, and under the direction of the Lions Club, another meeting will be held on the night of June 28th.

Representatives of every organization in Concord should be present at the meeting. If Concord can show to the Albemarle men the justice of their claim for the road direct to Concord, we believe the Albemarle men will ask Commissioner Wilkinson to run the road here. The question is one for debate and since the Albemarle men have been kind enough to leave the matter open it believes Concord to send a representative delegation to the meeting with facts and figures.

We think we can understand the situation as viewed by many Albemarle and Stanly county people. They already have a good road to Concord, Salisbury, Troy and many other nearby cities, but at present they are not connected directly with Charlotte. Therefore, they want to take this opportunity as presented to them and get this Charlotte road built with State money.

Concord is contending that this would be in violation of the spirit and meaning of the State law. Also, that with a paved road from Concord to Albemarle and another from Concord to Charlotte, the few miles that would be saved in the lower road, would make no difference.
Also, that the road direct to Concord is the more logical one, and will serve the greater number of people.

All these questions are debatable, we repeat, and at the meeting in Albemarle everyone will be given an opportunity to express his views, and the meeting probably will result in something definite.

RECORD FOR SAFE TRAVEL.

Figures compiled by the safety department of the Southern Railway System show that a high degree of safety for passengers was accomplished during the year 1922 when the Southern handled a total of 17,068,605 passengers without a single fatality to any passenger as the result of an accident to a train or negligence on the part of the railway.
A total of 177,084 passenger trains were operated during the year and the average distance traveled by each passenger was 62.17 miles. Had one passenger ridden the entire distance that these passengers were carried, he would have traveled more than 44,000 times the distance around the earth.
Four passengers were killed as the result of their own acts in violation of the safety rules established for their protection. Of these, two fell from moving trains, one attempted to board a moving train and fell under it, and one jumped through the window of the coach in which he was riding.

These figures indicate that, while the Southern has attained a remarkable degree of efficiency in protecting the passengers who ride on its trains, no refinement of protective features can insure the safety of persons who carelesly or deliberately violate the common laws of safety and the rules which have been established for their protection.
This record of the Southern is one of the best ever made by any railroad in the United States. The Southern for several years has taken advantage of every improvement that tends for safety, and its system today is as safe as any in the United States.

Charlotte and Myers Park City Fathers to be indicted.
Charlotte, June 13.—Bills of indictment against commissioners of Charlotte and commissioners of Myers Park for allowing the Sugar Creek septic tank to remain inadequate for proper sewerage disposal will be drawn by Solicitor John C. Carpenter upon order of Judge B. F.
Long, presiding at criminal court here.

The instructions from Judge Long followed the reading of the report of the Mecklenburg county grand jury. The report pictured a bad condition of affairs at the eastern septic tank which is allowing much of the sewerage to escape into Little Sugar Creek untreated.
It also pictured sewerage from Myers Park as going into Little Sugar Creek untreated.

FINDS HIMSELF UNDER TWO NEGRO EMPLOYES

M. N. Hales, of Goldsboro, Writes Sen.
Overman.—In the Service 34 Years.
Washington, June 13.—Senator Overman today received a letter from M. N.
Hales, of Goldsboro, in which the writer sets forth the fact that after 34 years in the postal service he finds himself in the railway mail service, and on his return to Beaufort and Goldsboro he is serving as a helper to three negro clerks.

He says things got in this shape for him when the post office department closed the transfer office at Goldsboro, and that the several pleas of the chamber of commerce for its re-establishment have been in vain. After several years service as transfer clerk he was given the run referred to, and if he must continue in this service he desires the position of clerk in charge, rather than a subordinate position under the negro clerks.

Senator Overman was in his office when the letter came from Hales, and immediately addressed a letter to the postmaster general on the subject.

Great Prosperity Visioned by Banker.
Chicago, June 13.—The greatest period of prosperity this country has ever known is coming but whether it will set in this year or in 1924 or 1925, it is unwise to predict. Harry A. Wheeler, vice president of the Union Trust Company, of Chicago, told the 26th annual convention of the National Hardwood Lumber Association here today. "While it is impossible to fix the date of arrival of this vast prosperity," said Mr. Wheeler, "there is a word of wisdom every business man should take heart. Pay no heed to croakers, the calamity howlers, the pessimists. Conduct your business with the though firmly in mind that this prosperity is inevitably coming. Be prepared for it."

His Eminence Cardinal Dougherty of Philadelphia today celebrates the twentieth anniversary of his consecration as a bishop.
The four political parties in Ontario today will complete their nominations of candidates for the legislature, to be voted on at the coming election.

Have Kidneys
Examined By
Your Doctor
Take Salts to Wash Kidneys if Back Pains You or Bladder Bothers

Flush your kidneys by drinking a quart of water each day, also take salts occasionally, says a noted authority, who tells us that too much rich food forms acids which almost paralyze the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken; then you may suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sour, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.
To help neutralize these irritating acids, to help cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste, get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days, and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for years to help flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys; also to neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer irritate, thus often relieving bladder weakness.
Jad Salts is inexpensive; can not injure and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.

Mothers of Famous Men
The Mother of Jonathan Swift.
Abigail Erick Swift certainly had her troubles—and some women seem to have more than their share of them. She came of a good old English family, took her heart and fortune in her hands and married Jonathan Swift, much against the entreaties of her people, because her marriage meant that she would leave England and go to Ireland, where Jonathan would share in the prosperity of his brother, Godwin, Attorney-General in Tipperary.
It was a long, long way to Tipperary in those days, much longer than now, and going to Ireland meant leaving one's home and family and acquaintances, without much possibility of communication with them, for there were no telegraphs nor were there frequent boats, nor regular mails. Abigail Erick loved the young steward and married him and went to Ireland. Less than two years after that happy love-match Abigail Erick was a widow.
Seven months after that happy love-match had ended she bore a son, whom she named in loving memory, after the dead husband. Those months of lonely grief, of bitter anguish, of wild lament, may have influenced the child—for all the world knows how Jonathan Swift grew up to become the famous Dean Swift, to write the marvelous story of "Gulliver's Travels" and much other fine literature, and then to die in madness.
His strange, brilliant nature appeared even in his earliest infancy, and made everyone love him. He was only a year old when his mother missed him. "Where is the baby?" she cried. But there was no baby! The nurse, attracted by the child's bright ways, had kidnapped him, and had carried him off to England! The mother was frantic. After a long time she found where he was; but he was so sickly, so thin, so much in need of quiet, that she left him for three years in England, where the nurse took good care of him and taught him to read the Bible.
Then the mother suffered still more, for she had only about $100 a year, and finally had to give up the child altogether to his rich uncle, the Attorney-General.
So it was that she longed for him, and he for her, and mother-love could never do its work for Jonathan Swift.

id Livingstone.
