

MUST WAIT WILL OF CONGRESS AS TO REVISION OF LAWS

Great Britain's Flat Rejection of Proposal to Twelve Mile Zone for Whisky Searches Leaves No Alternative.

SHIPS ENTER UNDER PENALTY OF SEIZURE

Formal Comment on Lord Curzon's Announcement Made in Parliament Thursday is Not Available.

Washington, June 29.—Great Britain's flat rejection of the American proposal for a prohibition twelve-mile limit has left administration officials no alternative, it was said authoritatively today but to await the will of Congress as to revision of the law, and meanwhile to refuse admittance to ship liquor stores under penalty of seizure.

Formal Comment on Secretary Curzon's Announcement in Parliament Yesterday

Formal comment on Secretary Curzon's announcement in parliament yesterday was not available, the Washington government having received no official report on the subject, and no reply through diplomatic channels to its treaty proposal.

THE EPISCOPAL CHURCH NEEDS "SHAKING UP"

So Said Bishop Chas. H. Brant to Two Hundred Prospective Clergymen Today. Philadelphia, June 29.—The Rt. Rev. Chas. H. Brant, Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Western New York, told 200 prospective clergymen today that the Episcopal Church needed "shaking up" and that the Ten Commandments should be "rooted" out of the prayer book because they were too generally accepted as expressing a complete moral code, "whereas they are in reality incomplete."

THE COTTON MARKET

Trading Was Comparatively Quiet Today and Prices Generally Steady. New York, June 29.—Trading on the cotton market was comparatively quiet today and prices made a generally steady showing.

Severe Wind Storm in Western North Carolina

Asheville, June 27.—Trees were uprooted, signs blown down, window panes broken and other minor damage resulted from a severe windstorm that struck this section about 3 o'clock this afternoon. Reports from surrounding points are to the effect that while no serious damage was done, other than tearing down of electric wires and uprooting of trees, the windstorm was the hardest in several years.

Photographic transmission of telegrams to be tried in France. By this method copies of a message of the sender's own handwriting will be delivered to the addressee.

NEW DREDGE MAY SAVE MILLIONS OF DOLLARS

New Government Hydraulic Dredge to Be Put on the Ohio River.

Cincinnati, O., June 29.—When the new government owned hydraulic dredge, now under construction at Charleston, W. Va., glides down the skirts into the Ohio river, some five months hence, a large government project will have started on its way.

TO DECIDE ON ROUTE

To Be Followed by the Capital to Capital Highway Through North Carolina.

Raleigh, N. C., June 28.—With two factions fighting for recognition, the State Highway Commission tomorrow is scheduled to decide on the route to be followed by the Capital to Capital highway through North Carolina.

MILK COWS DIE FROM EATING NITRATE OF SODA

Clover, S. C., June 28.—Grady Adams, a prosperous farmer of the Bethany section and who for about a year has also turned his attention to dairying, had the misfortune of losing four of his fine milk cows Sunday night.

Fainted at Steering Wheel of Automobile

Newton, June 28.—John Gilley, of Hickory who spent Sunday with Mrs. Gilley at her father's, G. A. Warlick's, started to Hickory Monday morning in a car by himself. He was not very well and just this side of Conover he fainted.

Union Lumber Co. at Marshville Burned

Marshville, June 28.—A $50,000 fire that had raged in Marshville for three hours was checked today about 3 o'clock when the fire engine and men from Monroe arrived and turned the hose upon an angry blaze that had cut its way through stack after stack of lumber as it was driven on by a furious west wind.

S. A. L. to Issue Bonds

Washington, June 29.—The Seaboard Air Line Railway got permission from the Interstate Commerce Commission today to issue $5,146,000 in bonds and to deposit them with the Treasury as collateral for a government loan already made.

Mrs. Brothers' Condition Satisfactory

Livington, Mont., June 29.—The condition of Mrs. Calena Nevell Brothers, of Rocky Mount, N. C., daughter of the general superintendent of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway, who was injured in Yellowstone Park by a falling tree, was reported at the hospital yesterday as satisfactory. The physicians in charge said no bones were broken and probably there were no serious internal injuries.

Fight to a Draw

Fayetteville, June 29.—Battling Budd, Atlanta, and Cole Miller, Hamlet, N. C., welterweights, fought 10 rounds to a draw at Fort Bragg last night.

KANNAPOLIS WILL HOLD CELEBRATION JULY 6TH

Attractive Features Have Been Arranged For the Day—Hundreds of Visitors Expected.

A big celebration will be held in Kannapolis on Friday, July 6th. The sixth of July will be observed there as a holiday instead of the Fourth because the mills will close Thursday night for the week and if the celebration was held on Wednesday, the Fourth, it will interfere with the mill week.

HULL SAYS HARDING TOOK WILSON CREDIT

Declares the Laffer's Administration Paid Off $2,500,000,000 of the War Debt.

Washington, June 27.—That President Harding at Salt Lake City yesterday modestly assumed credit for $2,500,000,000 paid off on the national debt was the assertion made this afternoon by Cordell Hull, Chairman of the National Democratic Committee.

RECORDS HERE SHOW

Records here show that recently K. D. Parks purchased eight lots in that part of Concord known as Brookwood. He paid $24 for the eight lots. There is no record of an orphanage in the lots, however, and no permit for such an institution has been issued in this State.

AIRPLANE CRASHES INTO THE MUD FLATS

San Diego, Cal., June 29.—The airplane carrying Capt. Lowell H. Smith and Lieut. J. B. Ritcher, army aviators, in their attempt to remain in the air for four days and four nights, crashed into the mud flats between Coronado and North Island at 4:40 a. m. today.

MINERS DEMAND 20 PER CENT WAGE INCREASE

Scranton, Pa., June 29.—A demand for 20 per cent increase in wage scales, with an increase of $1 a day for all men paid by the day, was presented to the anthracite miners' convention here today for adoption and submission to the mine owners next week.

Buzzard Guard of Still Is Captured

Nashville, Tenn., June 28.—Federal prohibition officers conducting a hunt for a moonshine still in a woodland near Nashville returned today telling of a turkey buzzard they found standing guard over the still.

French Extend Occupation

Coblenz, June 29.—The French today extended their occupation in the Mayence bridgehead to Langen, on the Darmstadt-Frankfurt railway line, eight miles south of Frankfurt, and Eschborn, on the Frankfurt-Kronberg line, seven and one-half miles northwest of Frankfurt.

DECLARES FAKERS IN NORTH CAROLINA ARE DOING BIG BUSINESS

Miss Mary Shotwell, of Child Welfare Board of State, Issues Warning to People of North Carolina.

Miss Mary G. Shotwell, Chief of the Child Welfare Department of the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare, is spending several days in Concord investigating recent actions of two men who gave Concord as their home and who have been soliciting funds in this State for the "Brookwood Orphans Home."

CASE OF CONCORD MAN AN EXAMPLE

Men Are Alleged to Have Been Soliciting Funds for an Orphanage That Does Not Even Exist.

Miss Mary G. Shotwell, Chief of the Child Welfare Department of the State Board of Charities and Public Welfare, is spending several days in Concord investigating recent actions of two men who gave Concord as their home and who have been soliciting funds in this State for the "Brookwood Orphans Home."

AGREEMENT REACHED BY ROBESON AUTHORITIES TO REDUCE SALARIES

Lumberton, June 28.—As the result of a joint meeting of the Robeson county board of education and a committee appointed by the county commissioners, held in the office of Superintendent J. R. Poole Tuesday, the board of county commissioners will be presented with the recommendation at their next regular monthly meeting, July 2, that the salaries of the county teachers as scheduled by the state department of education be cut 10 per cent, which reduction will amount to approximately $2,000 in the school districts where there is a special tax the board of trustees have the right to appeal to the county board of education for the privilege of supplementing the additional salary out of the special fund to correspond with the schedule fixed by the State department upon special qualifications and extra work of the teacher.

MASKED MEN RAIDED SEVERAL STEEL PLANTS

Sydney, N. S. June 29.—Bands of masked men today made several raids on steel plants here where a strike is in progress. The raids followed several clashes with the police last night and the stoning of a magistrate who attempted to read the act at Whynes Pier.

AGREEMENT REACHED BY ROBESON AUTHORITIES TO REDUCE SALARIES

Lumberton, June 28.—As the result of a joint meeting of the Robeson county board of education and a committee appointed by the county commissioners, held in the office of Superintendent J. R. Poole Tuesday, the board of county commissioners will be presented with the recommendation at their next regular monthly meeting, July 2, that the salaries of the county teachers as scheduled by the state department of education be cut 10 per cent, which reduction will amount to approximately $2,000 in the school districts where there is a special tax the board of trustees have the right to appeal to the county board of education for the privilege of supplementing the additional salary out of the special fund to correspond with the schedule fixed by the State department upon special qualifications and extra work of the teacher.

AGREEMENT REACHED BY ROBESON AUTHORITIES TO REDUCE SALARIES

Lumberton, June 28.—As the result of a joint meeting of the Robeson county board of education and a committee appointed by the county commissioners, held in the office of Superintendent J. R. Poole Tuesday, the board of county commissioners will be presented with the recommendation at their next regular monthly meeting, July 2, that the salaries of the county teachers as scheduled by the state department of education be cut 10 per cent, which reduction will amount to approximately $2,000 in the school districts where there is a special tax the board of trustees have the right to appeal to the county board of education for the privilege of supplementing the additional salary out of the special fund to correspond with the schedule fixed by the State department upon special qualifications and extra work of the teacher.

AGREEMENT REACHED BY ROBESON AUTHORITIES TO REDUCE SALARIES

Lumberton, June 28.—As the result of a joint meeting of the Robeson county board of education and a committee appointed by the county commissioners, held in the office of Superintendent J. R. Poole Tuesday, the board of county commissioners will be presented with the recommendation at their next regular monthly meeting, July 2, that the salaries of the county teachers as scheduled by the state department of education be cut 10 per cent, which reduction will amount to approximately $2,000 in the school districts where there is a special tax the board of trustees have the right to appeal to the county board of education for the privilege of supplementing the additional salary out of the special fund to correspond with the schedule fixed by the State department upon special qualifications and extra work of the teacher.

AGREEMENT REACHED BY ROBESON AUTHORITIES TO REDUCE SALARIES

Lumberton, June 28.—As the result of a joint meeting of the Robeson county board of education and a committee appointed by the county commissioners, held in the office of Superintendent J. R. Poole Tuesday, the board of county commissioners will be presented with the recommendation at their next regular monthly meeting, July 2, that the salaries of the county teachers as scheduled by the state department of education be cut 10 per cent, which reduction will amount to approximately $2,000 in the school districts where there is a special tax the board of trustees have the right to appeal to the county board of education for the privilege of supplementing the additional salary out of the special fund to correspond with the schedule fixed by the State department upon special qualifications and extra work of the teacher.

CONDITION OF BANKS IN NORTH CAROLINA GOOD

Survey Made After Failure of Two National Banks.

Raleigh, N. C., June 29.—(By the Associated Press).—The condition of state banks in North Carolina is much better than usual, the State Banking Department announced today, following a survey conducted after the failure of two national banking institutions.

SERIOUS SHORTAGE OF TEACHERS ANNOUNCED

According to Jule B. Warren, Secretary of Educational Association.

Raleigh, N. C., June 28.—A serious shortage of teachers exists in North Carolina, according to Jule B. Warren, secretary of the North Carolina Education Association and Miss Edith F. Gilbert, its placement secretary.

AGREEMENT REACHED BY ROBESON AUTHORITIES TO REDUCE SALARIES

Lumberton, June 28.—As the result of a joint meeting of the Robeson county board of education and a committee appointed by the county commissioners, held in the office of Superintendent J. R. Poole Tuesday, the board of county commissioners will be presented with the recommendation at their next regular monthly meeting, July 2, that the salaries of the county teachers as scheduled by the state department of education be cut 10 per cent, which reduction will amount to approximately $2,000 in the school districts where there is a special tax the board of trustees have the right to appeal to the county board of education for the privilege of supplementing the additional salary out of the special fund to correspond with the schedule fixed by the State department upon special qualifications and extra work of the teacher.

AGREEMENT REACHED BY ROBESON AUTHORITIES TO REDUCE SALARIES

Lumberton, June 28.—As the result of a joint meeting of the Robeson county board of education and a committee appointed by the county commissioners, held in the office of Superintendent J. R. Poole Tuesday, the board of county commissioners will be presented with the recommendation at their next regular monthly meeting, July 2, that the salaries of the county teachers as scheduled by the state department of education be cut 10 per cent, which reduction will amount to approximately $2,000 in the school districts where there is a special tax the board of trustees have the right to appeal to the county board of education for the privilege of supplementing the additional salary out of the special fund to correspond with the schedule fixed by the State department upon special qualifications and extra work of the teacher.

AGREEMENT REACHED BY ROBESON AUTHORITIES TO REDUCE SALARIES

Lumberton, June 28.—As the result of a joint meeting of the Robeson county board of education and a committee appointed by the county commissioners, held in the office of Superintendent J. R. Poole Tuesday, the board of county commissioners will be presented with the recommendation at their next regular monthly meeting, July 2, that the salaries of the county teachers as scheduled by the state department of education be cut 10 per cent, which reduction will amount to approximately $2,000 in the school districts where there is a special tax the board of trustees have the right to appeal to the county board of education for the privilege of supplementing the additional salary out of the special fund to correspond with the schedule fixed by the State department upon special qualifications and extra work of the teacher.

AGREEMENT REACHED BY ROBESON AUTHORITIES TO REDUCE SALARIES

Lumberton, June 28.—As the result of a joint meeting of the Robeson county board of education and a committee appointed by the county commissioners, held in the office of Superintendent J. R. Poole Tuesday, the board of county commissioners will be presented with the recommendation at their next regular monthly meeting, July 2, that the salaries of the county teachers as scheduled by the state department of education be cut 10 per cent, which reduction will amount to approximately $2,000 in the school districts where there is a special tax the board of trustees have the right to appeal to the county board of education for the privilege of supplementing the additional salary out of the special fund to correspond with the schedule fixed by the State department upon special qualifications and extra work of the teacher.

AGREEMENT REACHED BY ROBESON AUTHORITIES TO REDUCE SALARIES

Lumberton, June 28.—As the result of a joint meeting of the Robeson county board of education and a committee appointed by the county commissioners, held in the office of Superintendent J. R. Poole Tuesday, the board of county commissioners will be presented with the recommendation at their next regular monthly meeting, July 2, that the salaries of the county teachers as scheduled by the state department of education be cut 10 per cent, which reduction will amount to approximately $2,000 in the school districts where there is a special tax the board of trustees have the right to appeal to the county board of education for the privilege of supplementing the additional salary out of the special fund to correspond with the schedule fixed by the State department upon special qualifications and extra work of the teacher.

AGREEMENT REACHED BY ROBESON AUTHORITIES TO REDUCE SALARIES

Lumberton, June 28.—As the result of a joint meeting of the Robeson county board of education and a committee appointed by the county commissioners, held in the office of Superintendent J. R. Poole Tuesday, the board of county commissioners will be presented with the recommendation at their next regular monthly meeting, July 2, that the salaries of the county teachers as scheduled by the state department of education be cut 10 per cent, which reduction will amount to approximately $2,000 in the school districts where there is a special tax the board of trustees have the right to appeal to the county board of education for the privilege of supplementing the additional salary out of the special fund to correspond with the schedule fixed by the State department upon special qualifications and extra work of the teacher.

WELFARE SUPERINTENDENTS TO BE CHOSEN IN JUNE

July 9 Is the Date for the Biennial Election.

Raleigh, N. C., June 29.—All county superintendents of public welfare in North Carolina come up for election on July 9th, according to announcement today by the Department of Public Welfare. These elections are held every two years.

EUROPEAN CONDITIONS HURT TOBACCO INDUSTRY

Situation Very Satisfactory Now, But Would Be Better if Europe Were Straightened Out.

Asheville, June 29.—The tobacco situation in the producing states is satisfactory, but could be much improved through increased exports if chaotic conditions in Europe could be settled, T. M. Carrington, president of the Tobacco Association of the United States, declared in his annual address to the 224 convention here this morning.

EUROPEAN CONDITIONS HURT TOBACCO INDUSTRY

Asheville, June 29.—The tobacco situation in the producing states is satisfactory, but could be much improved through increased exports if chaotic conditions in Europe could be settled, T. M. Carrington, president of the Tobacco Association of the United States, declared in his annual address to the 224 convention here this morning.

EUROPEAN CONDITIONS HURT TOBACCO INDUSTRY

Asheville, June 29.—The tobacco situation in the producing states is satisfactory, but could be much improved through increased exports if chaotic conditions in Europe could be settled, T. M. Carrington, president of the Tobacco Association of the United States, declared in his annual address to the 224 convention here this morning.

EUROPEAN CONDITIONS HURT TOBACCO INDUSTRY

Asheville, June 29.—The tobacco situation in the producing states is satisfactory, but could be much improved through increased exports if chaotic conditions in Europe could be settled, T. M. Carrington, president of the Tobacco Association of the United States, declared in his annual address to the 224 convention here this morning.

EUROPEAN CONDITIONS HURT TOBACCO INDUSTRY

Asheville, June 29.—The tobacco situation in the producing states is satisfactory, but could be much improved through increased exports if chaotic conditions in Europe could be settled, T. M. Carrington, president of the Tobacco Association of the United States, declared in his annual address to the 224 convention here this morning.

EUROPEAN CONDITIONS HURT TOBACCO INDUSTRY

Asheville, June 29.—The tobacco situation in the producing states is satisfactory, but could be much improved through increased exports if chaotic conditions in Europe could be settled, T. M. Carrington, president of the Tobacco Association of the United States, declared in his annual address to the 224 convention here this morning.

EUROPEAN CONDITIONS HURT TOBACCO INDUSTRY

Asheville, June 29.—The tobacco situation in the producing states is satisfactory, but could be much improved through increased exports if chaotic conditions in Europe could be settled, T. M. Carrington, president of the Tobacco Association of the United States, declared in his annual address to the 224 convention here this morning.

LAUDS EFFORTS OF STATE LIBRARY

Brought Business to Good Standing

Butte, Mont., June 29.—(By the Associated Press).—Presenting here in Butte today a report on the post-war revival of business, President Harding declared that national mobilization of business, labor and government forces to overcome depression "was no less accomplished than the great co-operation to win the war."

VICTORY COMPLETE AS WINNING WAR

Says He Does Not Think Business Revival Was Due to the Administration of Any Particular Party.

Butte, Mont., June 29.—(By the Associated Press).—Presenting here in Butte today a report on the post-war revival of business, President Harding declared that national mobilization of business, labor and government forces to overcome depression "was no less accomplished than the great co-operation to win the war."

VICTORY COMPLETE AS WINNING WAR

Butte, Mont., June 29.—(By the Associated Press).—Presenting here in Butte today a report on the post-war revival of business, President Harding declared that national mobilization of business, labor and government forces to overcome depression "was no less accomplished than the great co-operation to win the war."

VICTORY COMPLETE AS WINNING WAR

Butte, Mont., June 29.—(By the Associated Press).—Presenting here in Butte today a report on the post-war revival of business, President Harding declared that national mobilization of business, labor and government forces to overcome depression "was no less accomplished than the great co-operation to win the war."

VICTORY COMPLETE AS WINNING WAR

Butte, Mont., June 29.—(By the Associated Press).—Presenting here in Butte today a report on the post-war revival of business, President Harding declared that national mobilization of business, labor and government forces to overcome depression "was no less accomplished than the great co-operation to win the war."

VICTORY COMPLETE AS WINNING WAR

Butte, Mont., June 29.—(By the Associated Press).—Presenting here in Butte today a report on the post-war revival of business, President Harding declared that national mobilization of business, labor and government forces to overcome depression "was no less accomplished than the great co-operation to win the war."

VICTORY COMPLETE AS WINNING WAR

Butte, Mont., June 29.—(By the Associated Press).—Presenting here in Butte today a report on the post-war revival of business, President Harding declared that national mobilization of business, labor and government forces to overcome depression "was no less accomplished than the great co-operation to win the war."

VICTORY COMPLETE AS WINNING WAR

Butte, Mont., June 29.—(By the Associated Press).—Presenting here in Butte today a report on the post-war revival of business, President Harding declared that national mobilization of business, labor and government forces to overcome depression "was no less accomplished than the great co-operation to win the war."