New Superintendent Named for Orphanage. Goldsboro, July 7.—C. H. Warren, of Caldwell county, has been elected superintendent of the local Old Fellows Orphanage, succeeding C. O. Baird, who resigned several weeks ago after serving faithfully and efficiently for a number of years. Mr. Warren, who will be joined here soon by Mrs. Warren and their little daughter, assumed his duties today.

Work Starts Today on Davidson Stadium. Davidson, July 7.—Work on the new athletic field, the $30,000 stadium which comes as the generous gift of the Richlandson of Greensboro, will begin today. It is confidently expected that the grounds will be ready for use this fall, and with equal confidence it is felt that the intercollegiate games to be played here will attract large numbers.

"WORSE THAN PAIN" Louisiana Lady Says She Has "Never Found Anything Better Than Cardui for a Run-Down Condition."

Morgan City, La.—"It would be hard for me to tell how much benefit I have derived from the use of Cardui," said Mrs. I. G. Bowman, of 1319 Front Street, this city.

"I was so run-down in health I could hardly go. I was thin. I had no appetite. Could not rest or sleep well. I was so weak, and so very nervous, I was no pleasure to myself.

"I suffered some pain, but the worst of my trouble was from being so weak and easy to get tired and out of heart. This nervous condition was worse than pain.

"Some one told me of Cardui, and I decided to use it.

"After using a few bottles, I regained my strength. I wasn't so nervous, and began to eat and sleep, and grew stronger and was soon well.

"I have never found anything better for a run-down condition."

If you suffer as this Louisiana lady did, you, too, should find Cardui helpful for your troubles.

REMOVED BY DYNAMITE

When the Pottstown, Pa., Iron company decided to remove its old blast furnace and plant, constructed in 1800, to make room for new buildings, it thought that dismantling by sections was too slow. So 20 sticks of dynamite were used—and down to earth came the 800 tons of blast furnace.

Agents to Talk the Boll Weevil. Charlotte News. Mrs. Edith Vanderbilt, president of the North Carolina Fair Association, will be one of those assembling at Monroe Tuesday to consult with State experts about the best measures to be adopted for fighting the boll weevil.

The occasion will be a called meeting of the farm demonstration agents of the Piedmont and Central districts, who are to meet with Franklin Sherman, State entomologist, and others to plan a concerted movement to meet the weevil menace.

There will be present, it is expected, from 50 to 60 farm demonstration agents from counties in the Piedmont and central counties on the State.

Kope Elias, farm demonstration agent of Mecklenburg county, will attend the conference. E. S. Millisimus, of Statesville, district supervisor of farm demonstration work in the Piedmont district, will also attend.
