Very Suddenly.

Ennis, County Claire, Ireland, Auk. 15
(By the Associated Press).—Eamond de Valera, the republican leader, was arersted by Free State troops here today on his appearance to address a republican meeting in an election campaign.

The arrest was made under sensational circumstances. DeValera was all-dressing the meeting of electors in Market Square when Free State troops came on the scene and fired several volleys over the heads of the crowd.

A stampede occurred and several arrests were made. The troops then surcounded the platform and took the republican leader into custody.

When de Valera appeared on the scene there were many thousands of people around the platform and he was given a tumultous welcome.

Then a voice was heard shouting:

"The soldiers are coming" and immediately a large body of militia with armored cars surrounded the platform.

The crowd stampeded in all directions. Soldiers fired volley after volley over the platform and over the heads of the crowd.

New York, Aug. 15 (By the Associated Press).—Gasoline cutting war that has been underway for several days in the mid-western and southern states where retail prices were reduced in some states; 6.6 cents a gallon, spread today to the entire Atlantic seaboard.

Led by the Standard Oil Co., of New Jersey, four large oil companies announced cuts of one to two cents a gallon in the tank wagon price of gasoline.

The wholesale price after the reductions will average 19 1-2 cents a gallon and the retail price 23 cents.

The, cuts do not bring prices in the seaboard states to the pre-war level of 15 cents a gallon, as has been the case in western and Southern states, but further reductions are expected if the price of crude oil drops as has been predicted in many quarters.
