STRAY BULLET HITS DUNN MAN IN NOSE

George Hodges Has Close Call When Circus Man's Rifle Goes Through the Target.

Dun, Sept. 15.—George T. Hodges, of Dunn, had a very close call when a stray bullet fired by a showman connected with Christy Brothers circus penetrated his nose and inflicted a painful wound. Hodges was operating a cold drink and lunch stand near the show tent. The showman was practicing with a .22-caliber rifle, firing at a target and passed on striking Hodges' nose. After entering the flesh, the bullet was shattered into three pieces, all of which lodged about the unfortunate man's nose.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

Relief at Kerr Street Baptist Church. The revival at Kerr Street Baptist Church started off in fine shape with a large congregation. The singing was enjoyed by all as it carried one back to childhood. The singing was spiritual and uplifting. Mr. Clark knows how to sing and how to get other to sing. With Miss Minnie Allman at the organ it seems that God is in the very atmosphere. The sermon was interesting from beginning to end. The preacher spoke of the downward steps of Peter. He said in part, Peter did not fall suddenly, but went down step by step. People do not climb at bounds and leaps but climb step by step until they have reached the top. God could have made the world in one day just as easy as taking six but that was not best so God did the best. All great institutions have been built little by little, present upon present, line upon line, here a little and there a little. The first step Peter made downward was when he began to quarrel with the brethren about who should be the greatest. When a Christian begins to find fault in the church he or she is then making their first downward step. The second step was made when Peter began to boast about his strength. He told the Lord that he would go to prison and to death with him. The third step was made when he went to sleep. How many Christians have we today who are just as much asleep as Peter was. Then the fourth step was made when Peter followed his Lord to Jerusalem afar off. He was following but was too far away. We have many today who are following at a great distance. The fifth was when Peter sat down in the devil's crowd and by the devil's fire. When Christians begin to associate with the devil's crowd and go to the devil's places of amusement they are then in a good way to deny their Lord. The last step was when he began to curse and swear and denied his Lord.

Service tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Come and worship with us.

Gospel Services. At the LaRover Gospel tent at Brown and Norcott Mills, between twelve and fifteen hundred people heard the evangelist tell the story of his life.

This revival will last two weeks from Sunday night. There will be cottage prayer meetings every morning at 9:30. Afternoon service at the tent at 4 o'clock daily. Also at 7:30 o'clock every evening for two weeks.

Subject for tonight: "The Great Day of Armageddon." All are welcome. Good music and singing.

MONEY LOST 22 YEARS RETURNED TO OWNER

Fayetteville Man Gets $140 He Lost in Fayetteville in 1901—Negro Found It.

Fayetteville, Sept. 15.—One hundred and forty dollars which D. W. Barfield lost on the streets of Fayetteville 22 years ago came back to him yesterday in a letter from Water Valley, Miss. The money was turned over to L. W. MacKey in the Mississippi town several days ago by a dying negro, who declared that he had found it in Fayetteville and asked Mrs. MacKey to restore it to its owner if possible.

It was in 1901 that Mr. Barfield came to this city on business. He arrived here late in the day and found all banks closed, and was therefore unable to deposit the $140 which he carried in his pocket. The next morning he discovered that the money was gone. Diligent efforts failed to recover it and he gave the money up as lost until a few days ago when he received a letter from Mr. MacKey asking him if he had lost such a sum. The negro had lived in Grenada county, Miss., and that told MacKey that he thought the loser his name was Barfield. Inquiry failed to locate the owner there, until, meeting with J. E. Barfield, recently, MacKey was advised to write to the Fayetteville man. Mr. Barfield lost no time in replying to the letter with the result that he received a check for the amount of the money from Mr. MacKey yesterday, with the statement that it would have been his long ago if the writer had been able to locate him.

Governor Walton Defies His Would-Be-Floggers

Muskogee, Okla., Sept. 16.—E. K. Bixby, editor of The Muskogee Daily Phoenix, tonight made public the following telegram which he received from Governor J. C. Walton, of Oklahoma: "Editor Phoenix, Muskogee, Okla. 'I understand your yellow paper of issue of September 15th made the statement that if I went to Okmulgee I would be whipped. You are hereby advised I leave tonight for Okmulgee and will be in that city several hours Monday unaccompanied or unassisted by any troops.' I am sending editor of Okmulgee Democrat copy of this also advising him of my proposed visit there and asking him to give same publication. Please publish this in prominent place on front page of your contemptible periodical."

Joseph W. Kesler Dies at Home in Salisbury

Salisbury, Sept. 15.—Joseph W. Kesler, wealthy retired farmer and business man of this city, died here today at the age of 75 years of hardening of the arteries. Mr. Kesler has been ill since June.

Mr. Kesler was one of the wisest known citizens of Rowan county. He was the son of Wilson Kesler and had lived in this community for 25 years.

The deceased is survived by the following sons and daughters: Mrs. J. H. Campbell, of Morgan township; Mrs. C. Kesler, John W. Kesler, Mrs. C. H. Cress, Mrs. B. W. Kesler, Mrs. R. E. Ramsey, Joseph B. Kesler, and Mrs. James Belk, of Appalachee, Virginia.

Arrangement for funeral services are awaiting the arrival of all the members of the family.

THE AFTERMATH

(By JOHN R. ELKINS)

My recent visit with my brother, William from Texas, to old home, Concord and vicinity, is still fresh in my mind and will linger on memory's tablet until the final summons. My visit was a protracted one but was necessarily so in order to reach numerous relatives, sister, nephews, nieces, cousins and a multitude of friends of former years. My brother and I had been separated for more than fifty years, and together we had a royal good time on the old stamping grounds. Many that we knew in boyhood days have long since handed in "their checks" or in modern parlance have "gone West," but in their departure many of them left a rich legacy in noble sons and daughters with whom it was a "feast of love and a flow of soul" to commune.

Bonaparte the night before his final defeat at Waterloo next day, said: "On with the dance, let joy be unconfined," so, leaving off the dance, my heart and soul were thrilled with tender emotions and joy was unconfined for three months as I communed with friend.

Our itinerary was not hedged about with the territory of Cabarrus, including Concord and Kannapolis, but we forged across the line into Albemarle, Charlotte and Pipeville. At every point visited that broad generous spirit characteristic of the Scotch-Irish and Dutch met us, and we found it to be good to be there.

Concord's Oldest Citizens

I am glad to note that while the harvest of death in the city for a few years past has been great, there are still quite a number lingering on the shores of time. Rev. Dr. L. A. Bickle, ripe scholar, was for a time president of N. C. College at Mt. Pleasant, and for years pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, is in his eighty-ninth year. The doctor is still quite active and his mind alert.

Jas. W. Hill is still living at eighty-three, but is quite feeble. Mrs. Sullie Ferguson at eighty-six is well preserved and her mind quite active. "Aunt" Becky Halthcock is eighty-six, but not vigorous. Mr. Joe White is eighty-six and able to make his rounds.

There may be other octogenarians but I have not a list and from memory I can't recall. However, it may be said that the soil, climate and water of Cabarrus county is conducive to longevity. Only recently it will be remembered that Col. James N. Brown and Mr. Dan Stilller, both of whom were nearing the century mark, passed away.

Land and Crops

I have always known there was much productive soil in Cabarrus county, but my recent visit through portions of the best cotton and corn belt, was an eye opener. The cotton and corn was prolific and wheat was fine. The old-time farm implements have been relegated to the junk heap, and new and greatly improved tools and machinery have been substituted. Old worn out lands in many instances have been reclaimed and fertilizers used more liberally. The improved methods of cultivating the soil have worked wonders in the farming interests, and the yield in crops has greatly increased. I would think fifty per cent. over that of forty years ago.

The Days of My Youth

Brother Sherrill, although standing in the shadow of the seventy-fifth milestone of my life, I cannot forget the days of my youth. Strike up, with piano accompaniment "When You And I Were Young, Maggie" or "Way Down Upon the Swanee River, or yet "Annie Laurie," and my heart thrills with joy, and I almost feel young again. Who does not love music? "Music bath charms for even the savage breast." Then again, those Sunday School songs, "In the Sweet Bye and Bye," "Over There," "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown," then further back, the "songs of our daddies, Daferna, Boylston, Rock of Ages, Nearer My God To Thee, etc. These old-time songs have a mellowing influence on our lives, make us better men and better women. Why not discard these new razzle-dazzle songs many of which are void of devotion, and lead only to the dance hall and the opera. The old-time religion and songs were good enough for Paul and Silas, and they are good enough for me. Without indulging in pessimistic views I am forced to think that the church (all denominations) have in a measure departed from "the faith once delivered to the saints." The social feature as to organizations is worked overtime and spirituality lies dormant under the pressure. It there ever was a time when a wave of pure, undefiled religion was needed in the world, that time is now.

Flow up the cotton stalks this fall as soon as possible after the crop is picked. This will send the boll weevil in to winter quarters early and hungry. has been reckoned at 1,200,000 tons.

A railroad to the summit of the sacred Japanese mountain, Fujiyama, is being planned.
