to Mr. James Stanton Northrup of New York City

the wedding to take place on Saturday October twenty-seventh

Nineteen hundred and twenty-three. The wedding of Miss Harris and Mr. Northrup will be one of the most interesting social events of the Fall in North Carolina society, and the announcement of their engagement will be read with cordial interest in social circles in this and other states.

Miss Harris is the only daughter of Mrs. Brevard Harris and is a young woman of culture and refinement. She has been prominent in the social life of North Carolina for several years and is also well known in social circles in Scranton and other Pennsylvania cities, where she has visited on numerous occasions. She is a member of a family long prominent in the life of Cabarrus county.

Mr. Northrup is popular with a wide circle of friends made in this city by his cordial and pleasing personality. He has visited here at the home of his fiancée on several occasions. He has been making his home in New York City for several years and is prominent there.

Raiford-Matthews. The following account of the recent wedding of Miss Margaret Matthews of Clinton, and Mr. Claude Excell Raiford, of Rosemary, formerly of this city, recently appeared in The Wilmington Dispatch, under a Clinton date-line:

Of interest throughout the state was the marriage Saturday evening September 15, at 7:30, of Miss Margaret Clute Matthews, the attractive and talented daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Z. E. Matthews, of Clinton, N. C., to Mr. Claude Excell Raiford, of Rosemary, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Raiford, Sr., of Concord. The wedding took place at the Baptist church, Clinton. The church was beautifully decorated with ferns and ivy and lighted with candles. The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. M. Matthews, cousin of the bride, assisted by Rev. T. H. King.

Preceding the ceremony a musical program was rendered by Mrs. H. G. Black, of Concord, organist, assisted by T. M. Lee, on the violin and H. L. Stewart, on the flute. The selections were "Trauermarche," by Schumann, "Romance," by Wagner, "Melody of Love," by Engelman, Lohengrin's wedding march for the professional and Mendelssohn's for the recessional. The wedding was played during the ceremony.

Mrs. Black was dressed in cream all over lace with a corsage of pink roses. Miss Ruby Cline, of Concord, who wore a beautiful dress of pink chiffon and corsage of pink roses, sang "At Dawning" and "Because I Love You Dear."

The bride entered with her father. Her gown was of white crepe satin made with court train and veil of silk tulle caught with orange blossoms.

The maid of honor was Miss Mildred James, of Clinton, wore a rainbow dress of taffeta and chiffon and carried an arm bouquet of pink Killarney roses.

To carry out the rainbow effect the bridesmaids entered formed a semi-circle before a bank of palms and ferns and carried silver baskets tied with tulle filled with asters of different colors. Their dresses were made of orchid, jade, turquoise and honeydew chiffon, trimmed with silver metallic lace, with girdles of pastel shades of silk flowers. They were Misses Virginia Spencer, of Lilesville, Laney Miller, of Concord, Eleanor Pearsall, of Rocky Mount, and Charlena Hart, of Rosemary. Master James Stewart, the handsome little son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stewart, of Clinton, dressed in a black velvet suit, was page, and the dainty flower girls, dressed in pink chiffon, were little Misses Carolyn Clute, of Fayetteville, and Catherine Rogers, of McCall.

The best man was J. B. Raiford, of Concord, brother of the groom. The groomsmen were Messrs. P. B. Fanford, Jr., of Concord, Abner Nash, E. H. Joyner and A. J. Boyd, of Rosemary. The ushers were Messrs. J. M. Atkins, Sedon Goode, Jr., A. G. Robinson, and Z. E. Matthews, Jr., all of Clinton. Following the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Raiford left for western North Carolina in their car, and will be at home in Rosemary, after October 1st.

Among the out of town guests who attended the wedding were: Mrs. D. M. Pearsall and Miss Eleanor Pearsall, of Rocky Mount, Miss Ruby Cline, J. B. Raiford, Miss Laney Miller, Mrs. H. G. Black and P. B. Raiford, Jr., of Concord; Mr. W. W. Old, of Norfolk, Miss Virginia Spencer, of Lilesville, Miss Charlena Hart and Messrs. A. J. Boyd, Abner Nash and E. H. Joyner, of Rosemary, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Rogers and daughter, Catherine, of McCall, S. C., Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Clute and daughters, Carolyn and Irene, and Mr. and Mrs. D. U. Sandling, of Fayetteville.

Mr. and Mrs. Matthews entertained at their home on DeVane street the evening before the wedding at a reception complimentary to the bride and groom.

Among the many social functions given in honor of Miss Margaret Matthews of Clinton, who was married Saturday evening to C. E. Raiford of Rosemary, was a lovely luncheon given by Mrs. James A. Stewart, Saturday at her home on College street. Mrs. Stewart's guests for this delightful occasion were: Miss Matthews, Mrs. Z. E. Matthews, Mrs. H. G. Black, Misses Laney Miller and Ruby Cline, of Concord, Virginia Spencer, of Lilesville, Eleanor Pearsall and Mrs. D. M. Pearsall, of Rocky Mount, Misses Charlena Hart of Rosemary, Thelma Johnson and Mildred James of Clinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Linker Entertain. Mr. and Mrs. William Linker delightfully entertained the Young Peoples' Missionary Society of Forest Hill Methodist Church Friday evening at their home on Simpson street. About twenty-two guests were present and several interesting games and contests were enjoyed, after which all were invited to the dining room, where delicious refreshments were served.

P-T Association to Meet. The first meeting of the year of the Primary Parent-Teachers Association will be held Tuesday at 3:00 p. m. in the primary building. All mothers of children in the school are asked to be present and meet the teachers.

Danville Won't Meet-Charlotte or Wilson. Danville, Sept. 21.—The Danville team in the Piedmont league circuit disbanded today after winning the pennant yesterday from Greensboro. Manager Herb Murphy said today that no post-season series would be played with the winner of the Virginia-South Atlantic league as had been reported. Murphy held that with the Piedmont pennant series over there would not have been the interest in a series with Wilson or Charlotte.

Several of the men left today for their homes in distant states for a brief respite before engaging in their winter occupations. While the local team members did not profit financially by any division of the gate receipts, the local fans subscribed $1,500 to be divided among the Danville players. Many of the players on the winning team will not be in Danville uniforms next year as they have been sold.

School Attendance. Our schools have had an unusually fine opening and we think we have most of the children in school that are required to attend.

The State law requires the attendance of all children between the ages of seven and fourteen. We shall be glad to have the names and addresses of any parents who do not appear to be complying with the law and the matter will be investigated. We have an attendance officer who proposes to enforce the law.

Respectfully,
A. S. WEBB, Supt.

Republican Possibilities. Charlotte Observer.

Editor Kestler, of The Concord Observer, has brought up the certifying discussion as to the best man the Republicans can put forward for Governor. Who are the Republican possibilities? The Concord editor has apparently combed the woods, and the first man he brings it is W. G. Bramham, of Durham, but doubts if he would "accept the trust." Same way with what might be regarded as the best possibility—Judge W. P. Bynum, of Greensboro. Then there is "one great North Carolinian" who would delight the voters of the State, in the person of John Motley Morehead, of Charlotte. Editor Kestler admits that there is small chance of prevailing on him, but he assures, if Mr. Morehead should be inclined to consent, "he would almost be elected." Then The Observer brings out what might be called the emergency candidates—Hon. Ike Meekins, Marion Butler and Col. Harry Skinner. The latter, however, has long since told politics to go to Gilliam Grison or Cy Thompson exhausts the Concord paper's list of possible eligibles. At best it would seem a pretty poor prospect. The one man who might be relied upon to take the honor is Colonel Meekins, and he would run for mere love of the thing.

Another Small Boy Killed by an Auto
Car Driven by Concord Man Crashes Into Landis Lad, Fatally Injured Him.

Salisbury, Sept. 20.—Thomas Frank Goodman, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Goodman, of Landis, this county, was almost instantly killed shortly before 8 o'clock last night when struck by a car driven by a young white man named Sam Hill, of Concord, who was coming to Salisbury.

The boy with his parents and several other people was on his way to church and the party was walking along the highway through Landis when the car struck him. It is said lights from an approaching car blinded the driver and prevented him seeing the Goodman boy, who died shortly after the accident.

Coroner H. S. Newman went down today and made a partial investigation and will hold a further investigation tonight or tomorrow morning.
