The Silver Hill and Gilmore's Chapel congregations will have a joint service at the court house Sunday, September 23. Dr. T. J. Houston will preach. Three good choirs will sing. Special seats for white people.

The new fixtures for the Gibson Drug Store have been installed and the company now is equipped with modern fixtures. The old show cases which stood in the store have been removed, and all goods are now displayed in modern wall cases, which affords more floor space.

Charlotte and Wilson were unable to play the fourth game of their series on Friday, rain making the game impossible. If the weather permit the fourth game will be played today and the fifth Monday. After that the teams will go back to Wilson if more games are necessary.

Battery D, Fifth Field Artillery, passed through Concord Friday en route from Fort Bragg to Charlotte. The battery spent Thursday night in Albemarle and reached Charlotte soon after noon on Friday. The members of the battery are in Charlotte to take part in the Carolinas Exposition.

The service at St. James Church Sunday morning will be arranged for the older people of the congregation and the community. A most hearty welcome is extended every one. The musical features will be the singing of an old time hymn by Mr. Goodman and a duet by Mrs. H. G. Gibson and Mr. Goodman.

There will be two services Sunday at Center Church, just south of town. Rev. H. T. Blackwelder will preach at 11 a. m. and the pastor at 1:30 p. m. There will be dinner on the ground. The public is invited to these services. Rev. R. F. Mack, of Concord, will assist the pastor in revival services next week, services beginning each evening at 7:30.

Caleb Archibald, negro, wanted for the alleged killing of a negro woman several days ago has not been arrested yet by county officers. Several officers made a night hunt for Archibald Friday night, visiting many of his favorite haunts, but they reported this morning they were unable to get definite information as to his whereabouts.

A number of Concord people went to Davidson College this afternoon to witness the Davidson-Elon football game. The crowd was smaller than expected because some fans who had planned to go called off the trip because of the threatening weather. This will be the first collegiate football game in the State this year.

"Everything is moving off so smoothly in the public schools of the city that we are very much encouraged," a teacher in a Concord school stated Friday. "The children, so far as we are able to learn, have a fine spirit, and they have begun their work in such a manner as to make us believe the year will be one of the best in the history of the Concord schools."

Announcement has been made that Bishop Collins Denny, of the Southern Methodist Church, will be present at the formal dedication of the new Salem Methodist Church, Stanly county, on September 30th. Bishop Denny will preach the dedication service, according to present plans. Salem Church is located near Millington, and is one of the finest country churches in the South.

The Rimer Community Club held an interesting meeting Friday night. The most important matter before the club was the selection of the day for the community fair, and it has been decided to hold this on October 11th. The Harrisburg fair will be held on October 12th, and exhibits from each probably will be entered in the County Fair, which will begin on October 16th.

Much interest has been aroused here over the announcement that Dr. Gilbert Rowe is soon to begin a series of meetings at the Forest Hill Methodist Church in this city. Dr. Rowe is recognized as one of the ablest ministers in the Southern Methodist Church, and the general public is showing much interest in his proposed visit to this city. The services will continue for ten days and Dr. Rowe will preach each evening.

The stills were located on the Yadkin river in Stanly county, it was stated.

DO, YOU WONDER?

Asks This Lady, "That I'm a Believer in Cardui?"—Had Been So Weak She Had to Go to Bed.

Oswatimie, Kans.—Mrs. E. E. Keast formerly of Illinois, residing here, says: "We moved to this state eleven years ago, and I had good health for a long while; and then some year or so ago I had a bad sick spell. . . .

"I got so weak I couldn't go. I couldn't stand on my feet at all. I had to go to bed. I suffered a great deal. I was so nervous I felt I couldn't live. I tried medicines, and everything; had the best of attention, yet I wasn't able to get up. I lay for three months, not able to do anything.

"My husband is a bill poster and has circulars distributed. One day there came to be a Ladies Birthday Almanac among his circulars. I read it, and told some of the family to get me a bottle of Cardui. . . .

"I quit all other medicines and took it (Cardui) faithfully, and two weeks from the time I began to take Cardui I was out of bed—better than for months.

"I kept it up and continued to improve until I was a well woman.

"Do you wonder that I am a believer in Cardui? I certainly am. And I am sure there is no better tonic made for women than Cardui." NC-151

Grid Season Opens With Dozen Games.
New York, Sept. 21.—The 1923 grid-iron season will get under way tomorrow in many parts of the country, but few of the better known eleven will be seen in action. A scattered dozen or more games are scheduled but most of the leading colleges are polishing up their machines in preparation for the real season's inaugural on Saturday of next week. Among the eastern games slated for tomorrow are three between up-state New York aggregations. Colgate, looming as one of the most dangerous eastern combinations of the rear, will swing into action against Alfred at Hamilton; Clarkson opposes Union at Schenectady; and Hamilton plays St. Stephens at Clinton. The Army's scheduled contest with the third army corps eleven at West Point has been cancelled.

A Toast to Bread

"From the earliest dawn of human struggle and achievement, bread has been the staff of life. Well may we clink our glasses in 'A Toast to Bread.'"

"Here's to the backbone of civilization—bread. It sates when nothing else can satisfy. When the nectar of the gods tastes flat and insipid in the merry quaff, and the menu with its surfeit of viands and victuals fail to please, good, sweet nutritious bread comes like a ministering angel to put courage and spirit in the hearts of men. Arrayed in no delicious frosting or tempting garnishments, bread wields the sceptre in its regal sway. Comparison of prince and peasant, at home in cabin and castle, it is, indeed, builder of men and of nations—our daily bread."—From an address by Charles H. Day.

They'll Look at You

Good style draws attention to the wearer, not to his clothes. The discriminating dresser takes care that his clothes portray his character. Plain lines are the accepted vogue for fall. Such style calls for expert tailoring to achieve the smart effect. You'll see it expressed in
