Election Brings Climax.

Oklahoma City, Oct. 2 (By the Associated Press).—An election unequalled in the record of America today brought to a climax the bitter factional struggle which began when Governor J. C. Walton opened his warfare on the Ku Klux Klan. Rumblings of intimation and violence were heard as thousands of special deputies took their stations at precinct booths to prevent the threatened encronchment on the citizens, rights of suffuse by men bearing state police commissions under Governor Walton.

Early indications were that in 72 counties at least, the Governor's strategic jockeying in the eleventh hour efforts to block the election would have no effect. But five of the 72 counties comprising Oklahoma have signified that they would obey the Governor's command to present the election by force of args, it necessary, on the grounds that it will be illegal.
