of that conflict which some historians of that conflict which some historians regard as the turning fide of the Revolu-tionary war in favor of the Americans. Unified States Senator Royal S. Cope-land, of New York and Brigadier Gen-General A. J. Bowley, commander of Ft. Bragg, near Faretteville, were on the program for the principal addresses of the day. Artillery forces from Ft. Bragg, acomparised by a band supplementing a civilian band, had places in the parade in which appeared numerous floats in-tended to depict local events of historic importance. Other events of the day are intended to pay honor particularly to the memory of the hardy mountaineers of North Carolina, South Carolina and Ten-nessee who constituted the hastily mo-bilized force fighting its way up the steep sides of the mountain in the face of a gruelling British return fire.

In Periton Piece by the virginia Kan-road. (By the Associated Press.) Washington, Oct. 6.—The Interstate Commerce Commission today it would an-nounced it would reconsider its refusal to authorize the Virginia Railroad to build a branch in West Virginia for the purpose of serving two coal mines. The rehearing of the case will begin here Oc-tober 19th. In its decision of the Virginian's ap-plication handed down last June the Commission refused the railroad the de-sider authority on the ground that there weré enough coal mines in the United States to supply customers. It was said in addition that the Virginian dur-ing a part of 1922 had been unable to render a full car supply to existing mines along its lines.
