Belk-Bullard.
Trinity College, Durham, N. C., Oct. 10.—Announcement of the marriage on October 7, of Henry Belk, '23, and Miss Lucile Bullard, '16, will be received with a great degree of interest among Trinity Alumni everywhere. For the past three years Mr. Belk has been Director of Publicity for the College and in that capacity has served Trinity in a most capable manner. Miss Bullard, since graduation, has been Secretary to the President of the College, Dr. W. P. Few, and the College feels deeply the loss of her loyal services.

ENTERTAINMENT OF CLASS SECURE FOR CABARRUS FAIR

any individual family riding in a Ford car. Many other worthy prizes will be awarded. Major W. A. Foil is grand marshal.

Realizing what an important part is played in our every day life by amusements, the great Cabarrus Fair Association made every effort to secure the highest class of entertainment features possible and only after scouring the outdoor show world for the best was the famous Zeidman and Pollie thirty-car exposition and circus secured. Two men, affiliated with the fair association, were sent to review the attractions when they exhibited in Roanoke, Va., and have given them their heartiest endorsement for clean, moral, refined and educational attractions.

This mammoth exposition and circus travels in its own special train and will bring to Cabarrus the greatest "Joy Trail" in the history of the county. The crowning feature of this monster traveling Coney Island will be the circus and wild animal arena where wild beasts of the jungle, such as lions, tigers, pumas, bears and elephants are taught many astounding tricks. Delightful clowns and aerial artists provide one solid hour of real laughter. The management will conduct the circus at a special price of 25 cents to every one and to make this possible has placed an advance sale of tickets in circulation, giving the boy or girl selling the most tickets a Pope bicycle on display in the windows of the Ritchie Hardware Store. Entry blanks may be secured there.

The society horse show featuring "Lady Buckshot," the $50,000 equine wonder, appeals to all lovers of horse flesh, while the famous "Georgia Minstrels," with its twenty-five singers, dancers and cake walkers take you back to the days of "Old Black Joe." The monkey speedway, where tiny monkeys propel their own cars in thrilling races, delights the children as well as the grownups. The Water Pageant or "Return of Neptune," is another elaborate feature of the Zeidman and Pollie famous exposition. Fifteen girls in fancy diving, walking on the water, life saving and high diving from a ninety foot ladder are but a few of the many feats accomplished by the swimmers. Lady Alpine, weighing 632 pounds and but twenty years of age, has won many friends by her entertaining qualities.

The Wild West Rodeo, Midget family, "World's Wonder," "H. C. Newman," the Montadist, twenty attractions in one side show, and many other features too numerous to mention will be presented. Eight modern riding devices, many of which have never visited here before will be with the big show. Latest innovation in riding devices, "the Caterpillar," $18,000 marvel ride, Land of Mirth, Over the Falls, giant seaplane, whip, merry-go-round, star ride, frolic and others. "Fingerhut's" all-American concert band of twenty-four superb musicians and the Dixie jazzoliers will furnish the music for the "Joy Trail."

Organized women in New Jersey are preparing to resist any efforts that may be made in the next legislature to repeal the no-night-work-for-women law.

NEWS OF THE CHURCHES

REVIVAL CLOSING TONIGHT

Series of Services Has Been in Progress For Ten Days at Forest Hill Methodist Church.

A great congregation heard Dr. G. T. Rowe at the Forest Hill revival Tuesday night and many regard the sermon as the most powerful he has preached during the entire meeting.

Mr. Hornbuckle, the choir director, on account of an accident, was not present, but the choir and congregation seemed determined that this should not prevent the doing of their best and the old hymns were rendered with great enthusiasm. Mr. Hornbuckle expects to be present tonight for the final service.

An overflowing house is expected to hear Dr. Rowe in the closing sermon at 7:30 tonight.

Concord has had through the years some mighty exponents of the Christian faith and wonderful revivals have marked the progress of the churches by such men as Dr. W. S. Creasy, Rev. R. M. Hoyle, Rev. Joseph Wheeler, Bishop George F. Pierce, Bishop John C. Kilgo and others, but it is perhaps, not too much to say that Dr. Rowe has measured up to any of these, some of whom have been regarded as the leading preachers of their day. People of all denominations throughout the city and neighboring towns have attended the services and declare themselves greatly benefited.

Pastor Armstrong is being congratulated on all sides for being able to secure a man of Dr. Rowe's ability.

Dr. Rowe will leave tonight on train No. 35 for his home in Nashville, Tenn., and after addressing the Tennessee Conference on Saturday, will return to North Carolina the middle of next week to attend the Western North Carolina Conference which will be in annual session at Winston-Salem.

The text of the sermon was the 9th verse of the 33rd chapter of Genesis: "How then can I do this great wickedness and sin against God?" Sin is an offense against God. Men wrong their fellow men, commit crimes against the State, but they sin against God. Sin is so dreadful and deadly, because it puts a man out with the holy, all-powerful God. The Bible defines sin as transgression of the law, and the law that is transgressed is the law of God. If it were men's law, they would lift from their shoulders the burden of it, but they cannot abrogate that law, because it is imposed from above. The crime of the world shows that there is a huge dislocation of some sort in human life. Men are wrongly related to each other, because they are wrongly related to God. If all men were in harmony with God, they would not clash with one another.

Since sin is an offense against God, the only way to settle it right is to settle it with God. When one man wrongs another, he must make restitution, but the element of sin in the wrong can be forgiven only by God. "Thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin." The only absolution that really counts is when God says, "The sins be forgiven thee." Sensitiveness to human opinion is very noticeable. When people are praised they swell out, and when they are criticised they shrink in. But what one man thinks of another does not matter much, since no man really knows any other man. One man says Woodrow Wilson is the greatest man since Moses, another says he is the biggest fake that ever sat in the President's chair. Gypsy Smith says Lloyd George is the greatest statesman England has had in 500 years, another says he is the most unscrupulous politician of modern times. One man says W. J. Bryan is the greatest living layman, another says he is a wind jammer and a blatherskite. But God knows each for just what he is and it is God's estimate for that counts.

Sin must be penitently confessed to God, who alone can understand and forgive. Men must have their reserves with each other, but they can have no reserves with God. And when sin is honestly confessed and repented of, God always forgives. The heart is always cleansed, when a man prays "Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a right spirit within me."

Health Party at Gastonia.
Gastonia, Oct. 9.—An interesting delegation of visitors has been in Gastonia today, the group of distinguished sanitarians and health officials representing six foreign countries. The delegation was heard by Dr. N. Lothian, official representative of the health section of the league of nations and chairman of that division. They spent the afternoon in an exhaustive inspection of the North Carolina Othopaedic hospital. The group along with Dr. Collins, of Charlotte, were guests at the Civilian luncheon today.

A Gentleman who has solved the "Shirt Problem" makes the following statement:
"I'VE MADE A DISCOVERY!"

"I used to find the shirt drawer empty. I have worn shirts without buttons—I had to do it. I've worn shirts that were soiled—and blamed it on the good wife or the laundry for not having clean ones for me in time. Sometimes when I wanted a white shirt, colored ones for all I had."

"Then I bought myself ENOUGH SHIRTS that was my discovery."
