

Oklahoma Solons Asked To Fight Ku Klux Klan

At Joint Sessions Members of General Assembly Hear Address Prepared by Gov. J. C. Walton.

SAYS DISASTER IS FACING THE STATE

Message Was Read Instead of Being Personally Delivered.—Says Government Must Kill the Klan at Once

Oklahoma City, Okla., Oct. 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Oklahoma legislature called into extraordinary session by Governor J. C. Walton, convened today. The House was called to order by D. A. Stovall, representative from Choctaw county, who was chosen majority floor leader at a caucus last night.

A committee of the joint session informed Governor Walton that the legislature was ready to hear him. The Governor did not appear personally, however, and Aldrich Blake, executive councilor, brought the message to the joint assembly and delivered it to the clerk of the Senate. The clerk then began reading the message.

Governor Walton called upon the legislature to enact anti-Ku Klux Klan law to save the state from disaster he says it faces through the existence of the secret organization.

In his address the Executive charged the Klan with responsibility for hundreds of outrages and punctuated his remarks by laying before the lawmakers transcripts of all testimony adduced by the military court of inquiry, which, under his proclamation of martial law investigated mob violence in various parts of the state. He requested the assemblymen to examine the record and then publish it.

"This all-powerful and most demoralizing 'super government' is undermining the very cornerstone and foundations of our government, and sapping the life blood of our citizenship," Governor Walton's address declared.

"It must either be killed or the government itself must finally give way to anarchy and revolution. There is no alternative or middle ground."

The Governor reviewed at length the chain of events which have kept the state in turmoil for a month, and concluded his message with a plea that the legislature immediately pass a bill which he himself has prepared, "that the people may be protected forever in their person, property and fundamental liberties."

"The conflict between the visible and invisible governments must be brought to a close with complete victory for the visible government, or Oklahoma will face indefinite turmoil and strife, the results of which are bound to be disastrous," he said.

"This invisible, insidious and terrorizing empire represents in exaggerated form, fear, falsehood and religious hatred, which is fully exemplified in its operations."

"It ought to be apparent now to all citizens that the people of this state will not cravenly submit to the intolerance, prosecution and outrageous violence of a hooded organization which operates in the dark and whose membership is a secret. Racial and religious bigotry and mob violence are unthinkable when practiced in the open—they become traitorously and wickedly so when hid behind the un-American mask."

He referred to the bill as "complete and adequate to meet every exigency and contingency. This law provides for unmasking all citizens and compels secret organizations to publish a list of their memberships as well."

DAME FATE PLAYS AN UNUSUAL PRANK Veteran Married Happily Suddenly Finds His Happiness Wrecked. Kinston, Oct. 10.—A strange story of wrecked happiness as told to Judge Oliver Allen, of the Superior Court retired list, was made public by the jurist here today.

Judge Allen declined to give the names in the case. "The matter was told me privately," he said. "I feel that I have no right to disclose the identity of those involved. In a long career as a judge I have not had a more unusual thing brought to my attention, I might say."

"I will call the men in the case Soldier No. 1 and Soldier No. 2," Judge Allen said. "No. 2 brought the facts to my attention. He said he served in the World War as a volunteer soldier. No. 1 was a regular. No. 2 married a widow with two children three years ago. She was an attractive and affectionate young woman, according to No. 2. He was devoted to her, and described her as a person of superior attainments."

"They lived happily. The family prospered. Mrs. No. 2's little ones loved their stepfather, and he took to them readily. Mrs. No. 2 had heard through what she regarded as authoritative sources that No. 1 was dead, killed in action or something of the sort. The missing years only served to confirm the belief; they brought his word of the man who had shared her joys and sorrows in earlier life.

"No. 2 went into all the details. There would have been a touch of comedy in this narration had it not been for the pathos in the story. Recently, he said, a stranger appeared at the door of his home. His wife ran out to be clasped in the other's arms. 'The stranger walked up and told him, 'You have my wife and little ones. I am not angry. But I must have them. I'm sorry for you. Mrs. No. 2 declared her preference for the man back from the grave.' The youngsters joined in her decision. The family packed off in an automobile with No. 1 and went to New Jersey, where No. 1 had established himself.

"The family formerly resided at—well, I'll not mention localities," said Judge Allen. "No. 2's whereabouts in the years immediately following the war were not clearly given to me. But it seemed that for the past two or three years he had been looking far and near for his loved ones. He could get no information from his old home. No. 2 asked me what he could do. He did not seek to disrupt the reunited family. I told him the law could not blame him for anything, but that he must seek a legal divorce immediately. He was mainly and genuinely distressed."

SOUTHERN POWER CO. THROUGH BUILDING AT PRESENT INCOME

J. B. Duke, President of the Company, Says Company Must Be Granted Increase in Rates in This State.

DIVIDENDS NOT BEING PAID NOW

Mr. Duke Points Out That He Has Sixty Million Dollars in Company and Has Received Nothing For It.

(By the Associated Press.) Charlotte, Oct. 11.—Announcement that the Southern Power Company is "through" its development of hydro-electric projects in this state unless the State Corporation Commission allows "an increase in the wholesale rate of power" to $1.40 as against $1.25 it now allows, was made here today by J. B. Duke, president of the power company, and millionaire New York financier.

Mr. Duke added that "I have put approximately $60,000,000 of my own money into the Southern Power Company so far. I have never taken one cent out of it and never expect to."

The average annual return from the great developments in this state and South Carolina has been "not more than four per cent," said Mr. Duke, and "these small earnings have always been put back and many millions more."

In his announcement Mr. Duke who expects to leave within a few days, to inspect the great hydro-electric projects which his company is building in Canada, said, "I am ready to proceed to spend more money to build more plants to create more power for further development of the Carolinas, but I am not willing to spend it on the basis of the returns the Southern Power Company is now allowed."

He said the records of the Corporation Commission but his company did not expect to send a representative to Raleigh "or engage in a controversy with that official body or any other about a rate increase."

AMERICANS HUNTING GOLD BRAVE RIVERS OF SIBERIA (By the Associated Press.) Vladivostok, Oct. 11.—Up in northern Siberia, several miles inland from the little town of Okhotsk, a band of Americans are "panning" the river beds for gold as their fathers did in the California and other mining camps of the west 70 years ago. Last winter there were 85 of them, but about half the number came out this year and all will not return. They have not made any big discoveries, such as those which caused the rushes to the west from '40 onwards, but they have made a good living and have always before them the dream of riches which, through centuries, has kept prospectors at their calling.

There are also a large number of Chinese and Korean placer miners in the country and lately, an entirely new undertaking for them. Japanese have been taking a hand in the ever expanding work. Some of the latter have gone 300 miles inland, and the miners along the coast are awaiting eagerly the reports of their discoveries, if any.

There is also an American trading station at Okhotsk, the manager of which is Captain D. A. Holmes, formerly of the United States Army. Besides supplying the miners and natives, this station engages in the fishing industry and sells its catches to the Japanese canneries.

The Soviet officials, who are in control, do not interfere with the miners, fishermen or traders so long as they do not mix in Russian politics. Thus far no taxes have been levied on the miners, who work any and all claims despite the fact that many of them are not making a concession for mining in this district was given a British company.

GIRL ATTEMPTS SUICIDE BY LEAVING FROM A CAR Jumps From Moving Bus on Winston-Salem Road—Is Picked Up Unconscious. High Point, Oct. 10.—A young woman, 20 to 25 years of age, who gave her name and home as Miss Todd, of Baltimore, is in a Winston-Salem hospital as the result of an alleged attempt to commit suicide while a passenger in an automobile bus operating between High Point and Winston-Salem yesterday afternoon. She declined to give details about herself, according to the operator of the bus line. The young woman boarded the bus here alone and sprang from it while en route to Winston-Salem, while the car was moving at a rate of about 20 miles an hour, it was stated. She was picked up in an unconscious condition, but later examination indicated that her injuries may not prove serious.

Trinity College is Training Teachers. (By the Associated Press.) Durham, Oct. 11.—That Trinity College is doing its bit in training teachers for North Carolina public school system is evidenced by the rapid growth of the department of education of the college in the matter of teacher courses offered and number of prospective teachers enrolled. According to statistics given out by Prof. Holland Holton, head of the department, the number of pupils enrolled in his department has grown from 76 in 1920 to 430 this year. In 1921, 101 students were enrolled for the work in education, and in 1922 there were 267. This shows an increase of almost 600 per cent. The importance of this growth in the teacher instruction at Trinity can be seen from a comparison of this record with the normal department of other schools in the state. On one normal school and perhaps no liberal arts college can show as large an enrollment of pupils being trained for the teaching profession.

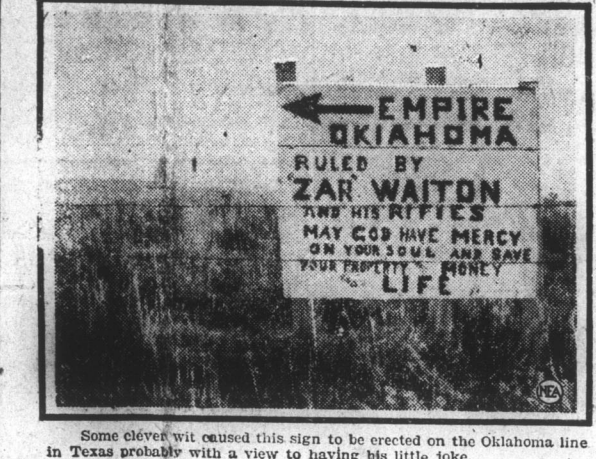

Assisting Prof. Holton in this department this year is Prof. A. M. Proctor, '10, who in instructing in educational psychology. Prof. Holland and Proctor have worked out various new courses for the students in their department which promise to give finished instruction to the numerous pupils who are now being trained for the school teaching profession.

CITY OF GOLDEN GATE PUTTING ON ITS HOLIDAY ATTIRE. San Francisco, Calif., Oct. 11.—The City of the Golden Gate is putting on its gayest holiday attire in honor of the approaching national convention of the American Legion. Although the date for the opening of the gathering is several days distant, outward and visible signs of the coming invasion are visible on every hand. Convention headquarters have been open since the first of the week and officers and various committees are hard at work completing the final details of the program, which will be the most elaborate ever prepared for a gathering of war veterans in this country.

The city is being decorated to an extent never before known in her history. From one end of the town to the other, on every hand, may be seen a bewildering array of bunting, flags and streamers, until the eye is satiated with the varied display. Men who have attended other gatherings of the kind are authority for the statement that the general decorations will fully come up to those ever seen in any other city and that the electric display will far exceed anything of the kind ever attempted before. Not only are the public buildings and business houses in the downtown section decorated, but in all parts of the city, even to the suburbs, may be seen beautiful evidence of the patriotism of the citizens.

The great battle fleet of the United States Navy, including a dozen battleships and nearly two score of destroyers and other vessels, will ride at anchor in San Francisco Bay during the period of the convention. Brilliant social programs, dazzling parades, elaborate fleet reviews, night illuminations of a spectacular order and several additional features will be staged in conjunction with the visit of the fleet.

A notable feature of the convention will be the dedication of the California Palace of the Legion of Honor in memory of the 3,000 California boys who made the supreme sacrifice on the battlefields of France. This imposing structure is being erected at a cost of $1,000,000 on the crest of Lincoln Park, overlooking the Golden Gate.

How to care for from 250,000 to 500,000 orphans of the World War will be one of the important problems which the convention will be called upon to consider. Tentative plans for this project have already been drawn up by committees of the American Legion. While definite statistics are not available it is estimated that the greatest number who must receive assistance of some kind from municipalities, counties, States, the Federal Government or the Legion will be five hundred thousand children.

The convention will receive from the committee a recommendation for the building of national homes for dependent children of Legion members and service men not members of the Legion who died before May 1, 1919. In addition to the national homes it is proposed to inaugurate a supplementary system whereby dependent children can be placed with foster parents. The welfare of the children will be guarded by local Legion posts after they have been placed in private homes. Tentative plans will be expected to take necessary action looking to the acceptance of gifts of suitable buildings, money and sites to carry out the project.

Allsbrook of Tarboro, in a statement tonight to The Raleigh News and Observer, announced his withdrawal from the congressional race in the second district to select a successor to the late Claude Kitchin, leaving Judge John H. Kerr, of Warrenton, as the undisputed winner in the nomination on the democratic ticket.

Judge Kerr led Mr. Allsbrook in Saturday's democratic primary by about 2,000 votes. Had Mr. Allsbrook not withdrawn a second primary would have been necessary, as Judge Kerr lacked a majority of the total vote cast.
