Will Be as Hot a Fight As Ever Next Time. Charlotte Observer. It must not be a very hard matter to pick up a living in Cabarrus County. The sheriff, coming into realization of the fact that the Legislature had trimmed matters so that the office would bring in not more than $3,500 a year, turned the job over to his deputy, because he could get outside and make more than that. Nevertheless, at the next election, there will be as hot a fight as ever over the sheriff's office.

At the Star today Dorothy Palton is playing the leading role in one of her latest features. "Fog Bound." "The Rip Tide," the big Arrow special feature, is the headliner again today at the Friedmont. "The Gumps," and "Ashamed of Par-ents," are the two features being offered today at the Pastime.
