Underground Supports of Coal Localized Effects of the Big Explosion.

Chicago, Nov. 26.—Two men were killed today and 12 were burned, two of them seriously, in an explosion in the Orient mine of the Chicago, Wilmington and Franklin Coal company, near Benton, Ill., according to advices to the coal company's officials here tonight.

The mine, one of the largest in the world, employs more than 1,000 workmen and 920 were reported to have been in the mine at the time of the explosion which was believed due to gases.

Mine officials attributed the small casualty list to an elaborate system of "barrier pillars" by which the mine was worked.

The damage was said to have been small and advices from the mine said operations could be resumed almost immediately.

George B. Harrington, president of the operating company, attributed the comparatively small loss of life to the operating methods.

Northern New York in Grip of Blizzard.

Albany, N. Y., Nov. 26.—Northeastern New York state is experiencing mid-winter weather. A Sunday blizzard left a blanket of snow over the upper Hudson and eastern Mohawk valleys.

Albany, Troy and Schenectady had six to eight inches of snow. Electric car service was crippled and wire communication delayed. In the eastern Adirondacks sleighing replaced motoring and snowdrifts hampered steam traffic.

THE COUNTY OF CAMDEN

One of the Most Interesting of the Col. Olds Series.

Raleigh, Nov. 26.—The history of the county of Camden is one of the most interesting of the series being prepared by Col. Fred A. Olds for the North Carolina Historical Commission on all of the 100 counties of the State. It is learned from Col. Olds' sketch of the county that due to an error of spelling in the bill creating it, Camden county's real name is Campden.

Col. Olds' history of the county follows in part:

"The county of Camden was created May 12th, 1777, by the General Assembly, which named it for Charles Pratt, Earl of Camden. x x x The act sets out that 'by reason of the width of Pasquotank river and the difficulty of passing the same, especially in boisterous weather, it is extremely difficult for the inhabitants who live on the northeast side of the river to do public business in Pasquotank county, so all that part of Pasquotank is established a county by the name of Camden.' Joseph Jones, Samuel Sawyer, Isaac Gregory, Dempsey Burgess and Caleb Grandy were appointed commissioners to lay off and appoint the place where the court house, prison, etc., should be built and to employ workmen to erect those buildings. A poll tax of two shillings and eight pence, for three years, was levied by the General Assembly to pay for these buildings. The court house and jail were completed in 1780. The former yet stands and is a dwelling and hotel, or inn.

The proposal that policemen should wear uniforms is opposed by Mrs. Mina C. Van Winkle, of Washington, D. C., who is president of the International Association of Policewomen.

The rapid recovery of Gus Barclay of 99 Clinton St., Kingston, N. Y., has again called attention to the remarkable curative effects of Neutrone Prescription "99."
