Power of Strong Convictions.

All the strength and force of man comes from his faith in things unseen. He who believes is strong; he who doubts is weak. Strong convictions precede great actions. . . Clear, deep, living convictions rule the world.

—James Freeman Clarke.

Ten Years of His Life Wasted.

A Frenchman spent ten years of his life inventing a noiseless clock. After he had succeeded, he found that no-body would buy a noiseless clock. People do not hear the steady tick-tick of the old clock on the mantle world.
