29 COURSES IN AGRICULTURE AT THE STATE COLLEGE

AT THE STATE COLLEGE

Plans Completed For Giving Fear Short

Courses

(By the Associated Press.)

Raleigh, N. C., Dec. 14.—Plans have been completed for four short courses, in agriculture, at State College during the week January 9 to 16, according to an announcement made here tonight by Professor Z. P. Metealf. Director of Instruction for the School of Agriculture, One course will be devoted to cotton, tobacco and small grains; one to fruit and vegetable growing; another to farm dairying and animal husbadry;
and the fourth to poultry raising. The follege autherities, according to the statement, have planned to make the courses not only short but also practical and applicable to the rural woman as well as to the man on the farm. No tuition will be charged and the main cost of the courses for those taking them will be for board and lodging.

In addition to the regular classrooms work, according to Prof. Metcalf, there also will be special evening programs, consisting of addresses by Dr. B. W.
Kipore, Dean of the School of Agriculture, lectures on Dominant Rural Social Problems by Prof. W. A. Anderson; Faraeres Group rograms and Projects by Dr. Carl C. Taylor; What the cattare, lectures on Dominant Rural Social Problems by Prof. W. A. Anderson; Farmers Group rograms and Projects by Dr. Carl C. Taylor; What the State of North Carolina is doing for Rura' Schools by T. E. Brown, director of vocational education: the program for our Health by Dr. G. M. Cooper and Farm Forestry by H. H. Curran, forester.

"It is especially desired," said tonight's announcement "that farm women shall feel free to attend these short courses as well as the men. Many women have made requests that they be allowed to attend because so many of them are interested in poultry, Dr. B. F. Knaupp is arranging the poultry course to give special instruction to the women who do come."

Cotton Summary.

Cotton Summary.

New York, Dec. 13.—Liverpool due July 2 1-2 high; others 15 to 35 higher. Market opened excited 63 to 93 up. 1 Southern spots 50 to 175 hiher, Texas markets showing greatest gains, sales 16,706 bales.

Because of unsatisfactory cotton situation, labor scarcity, and high raw material; the Baker Underwear compan. (Poughkeepsie, N. Y.,) have dedided to retire from business.

Of 16 cotton house opinions, 15 are bul'ish and one advises taking profits.

The Alexandria, Egypt market yesterday advanced 350 to 415 points.

Local cotton goods markets nominally higher, many mills withdrawing quotations, Journal of Commerce believes resistance to high cloth prices will be constant.

Average of New Bedford textile mill

Average of New Bedford textile mill shares past week reached new low record for year.

The New York Commercial believes government estimate semewhat above actual crop, but accepting the estimate at face value, says 10,000,000 bales is not enough cotton to go around.

Based on December 1 average, farm price of 31 cents per pound, this year's cotton crop is worth $1,494,613,000 making it the fourth most valuable crop ever grown, and the sixth crop making it the fourth most valuable crop ever grown, and the sixth crop that has been worth a billion dol!ars or more.

Liverpool wheat opened quite, 1-2 to 1-4 up. It was due 1-8 to 1-2 higher.

Special cable says: "Opening advance on bureau, but demand not sufficient to sustain full advances. There is a moderate spot demand. Market general by seems to think Manchester business will increase."

Post and Flagg's Cotton Letter. New York, Dec. 13.—While less sensational the market has been nervous with sharp changes in either direct on comparatively small orders. While some reactionary sentiment has been in evidence the best opinion seems to be that the crop as estimated officially will be a very tight fight for requirements at these prices and later ginnings will be closely watched to see if they confirm the figures or suggest an actually small er yield as may very well happen. The future is closely involved in the extent of the demand for goods on a parity with present or rather higher levels for raw material but competent judges express confidence in renewed activity in the goods markets after the turn of the year basing their opinion on the low condition of stocks in the hands of dealers. Exports continue liberal and already efforts are reported to cover January engagements but offerings remain light with holders firm in their ideas of price. Some of the short interests were covered yesterday and today and it is hardly probable that trade demand will follow advances closely just yet but those who buy on reactions like those recently and have the patience and ability to average to some extent, have an excellent prospect of satisfactory results. New York, Dec. 13.—While less sen sational the market has been nervou

POST AND FLAGG.

ror some time past customers of a certain fashionable shop in Bond Street, London, have been puzzled over the identity of an unusually attractive assistant who sometimes attends to their wants. Now it transpires that she is Lady Rosamond Gallwey Robertson, daughter of the Earl and Countess of Carrick. Lady Rosamond is an expert designer of dresses and so great was her desire to put her talent to practical use that she at last obtained her parents consent to accept the position she now holds.

Probably no other woman in the world knows so much about coins and coinage as Miss Mary O'Reilly, assistant director of the United States Mint. Miss O'Reilly has been employed in the office of the director of the mint for nearly 20 years and on numerous occasions has been in supreme charge.

Ninety-nine pairs of women's feet out of a hundred are horribly deformed by the wearing of high-heeled shoes, says Sir Hubert Barker, the famous manipulatie surgeon of London, who avers that he has seen in the course of his work as a bonesetter more women's feet than any other person in the world.

Music is more efficacious than medicine in the treatment of certain diseases, says a prominent English physician, who guotes old Italian records to show that music was used to save patients from the results of poisonous snake
