Feels Effect of Death.

Washington, Reb. 4 (By the Associated Press)—Woodrow Wilson has found in eternity a haven from the storms and sorrows of a troubled world.

In the prayerful quiet of a Sunday morning death folded him gently in its embrace and bore him to his Maker. He passed from life while he slept, with those he loved best close about him. His broken body had weakened little by little until the last spark of vitality went out. But his spirit was supported to the last by the indomitable courage of his fighting days. In his last wakeful moments he told loved ones he knew the end was near, and that he was ready. There probably will be no state ceremony. The funeral will be held Wednesday with a large number of friends close to him when he was President named as honorary pall bearers.

The Federal government has already offered to do whatever is fitting to express the nation's reverence for the passing of a great leader. President Coolidge yesterday called at the house of becavement, expressed his regret and his readiness to be helpful, and then issued a proclamation of 30 days of official mourning.

The place of entoumment has not been selected but it's bablle the body will be placed but it's bablle the body will be placed by the placed by the property. There it will await the ercotion of a memorial to serve as his last easting place, and to perpetuate fittingly m stone the memory of those great days of crisis when the whole world hung on his words.

Church—No State Funeral To Be Held For-Him.

Washington, Feb. 4 (By the Associated Press).—Tentative plans for the funeral of Pressident Wilson as announced to day by Dr. Grayson provide for a brief at three o'clock Wednesday afternoon. This service will be followed by another at 3:30 o'clock at Bethlehem Chapel in the cathedral at Mount St. Albans, where the body will be placed in a vanitual nit airnagements have been made as to a final resting place.

It was decided not to hold a state tuneral as proposed by some, or to have the body lie in state at the capitol. Washington, Feb. 4 (By the Associated Press).—Funeral services for former President Woodrow Wilson will be held Wednesday, and probably will be private in the sense that, there will be no great state ceremony.

A large number of friends and former associates will be designated active and honorary pall bearers. Among them will be Bernard M. Baruch, Yance McCormick, Cleveland H. Dodge, Cyrus McCormick, Some of the members of Mr. Wilson's wartime cabinet, and others who were associated with him during bis terms in the White House.

The Rev, James H. Taylor, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, which Mr. Wilson attended during his residence in Washington, probably will delive the funeral sermon.

White House officials again were in conference with the Wilson home today to render what assistance they could. During the morning Secretary Weeks called on relatives on the former Presidency. "The livestock situation is generally good except that the prices for beef cattle are unsatisfactory. The northern counties are distressed over the cattle and sheep situation, while the southern mountain counties consider conditions good. They have more than the usual amount of feeds, market conditions are good and livestock interest in increasing. Polk county reports that it is on the upward grade and well underway."

DESTRUCTIVE STORM IS SWEEPING THE COUNTRY

SWEEPING THE COUNTRY
Sterm So Far Has Centered Strength on Country From Minnesota to Texas.

(By the Associated Press.)
Chicago, Feb. 4.—The worst storm of the winter from many angles, swept the country from Minnesota to Texas today. With its center in Missouri, sleet and wind played have with communications, and colder weather set in in the northwest. Many cities and towns were isolated by sleet-burdened wires.

All telegraph wires failed between Chicago and Milwauke, and in norther Wisconsin, a large strip of territory was isolated. Telegraph wires out of Chicago had no connection with Des Moines, Oowa, and point west until late in the morning when communication with Omaha was established. The Rocky Mountain section although not affected severely, and the far west, were out of communication with the middle west.

"Hope" was the subject of the evangelist here, who declared that a man could have wealth, fame, konor and all worldly things and still be as far away from heaven 4s the man who has nothing.
These things do not count if a man mis not repented and made peace with his God, Mr. Sunday declared.

"The Christian Hope is the only thing that counts," the evangelist said. "The paths of glory lead but to the grave.
When you leave this Church some one will ask you where you are going and you will say you are going home. You are going to stop at home, but you are will ask you where you are going and you will say you are going home. You are going to stop at home, but you are on the way to the grave. You may take an auto ride, but each turning of the wheel brings you closer to the grave. You must be ready for the final day. There is only one hope that lights the chamber of death. That is the Christian hope."

Trouble comes to everyone, Mr. Sunday said, the evangelist pointing out that the hearse backs up to the door of the millionaire's mansion just as it does to the hut in the alley. "But we can find hope even in the face of this trouble if we believe in Christ. And why should we not believe in the teachings of Christ? Why should we not believe in the teachings of the preachers? When he want to know about law we consult a lawyer; when we are sick we consult a physician; when we need auto repairs we consult the garage man. We trust them because they have made a study of their business. It's the same with the preacher. When we break down on the road to hell we should send for the preacher, who is an expert in his line."

The reward of the gospel is the hope of all, Mr. Sunday continued, adding that in the United States we should be especially thankful for the goodness of God. "The United States is the corn crib of the world, the wheat bin of all nations, the wardrobe for people of all countries and the purveyor of good things for all civilization. God has been exceedingly good to us and we should be thankful and believe in His and His teachings."

Knowledge that we are right with.
