IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

OLD HICKORY MEN PLAN FOR REUNION

Executive Committee to Meet Soon and Select City For Convention to Be Held in Summer.

Former service men of this county who served in the 90th Division will be interested in the following article which appeared last week in "The News, of Greenville, S. C.:

Major G. Hayward Mahon, Jr., president of the Old Hickory association, announced yesterday that a meeting of the executive committee of the association will be held about March 1st to determine the exact time and place for the reunion of the Old Hickory or Thirtieth Division veterans. The meeting of the committee will be held in this city, unless further announcements are made.

Several cities in this and adjoining states have extended an invitation to the committee but as yet selection of a time and place for the reunion is being held open by the executive committee. Cabarrus is making a strong bid for the convention which will probably convene near the latter part of August.

Members of the executive committee which will determine the time and place of the convention are K. P. McCull, Greenville; W. W. Lewis, of York; Cary F. Spence, of Knoxville; H. E. Berry, of Nashville; H. B. Metts, of Wilmington, and Albert T. Cox, of Raleigh. H. B. McManaway, of Greenville, is secretary of the committee.

Sunday School Institute at Center Grove Church

A Sunday School Institute, the first one to be held this year, was held at Center Grove M. E. Church, South, in No. 9 township Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. R. M. Cook, president of the Sunday School organization of this township, and had arranged a splendid program for the occasion. The devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. M. A. Osborne, pastor, after which the superintendent of the adult class work of the county told of the work of this department, its value and usefulness to the pastor and church, and urged that every Sunday School in the township organize the adult department for work.

Mrs. R. M. Cook, superintendent of the young people's work in the Sunday School, presented in a most edifying manner the work of this department. First telling her audience that in order to do effective and successful work in the Sunday School the teachers in sympathy with this class of pupils must be selected, and made it clear to the audience that among the most important thing to be demanded of a teacher was that he should be a thoroughly consecrated person to the service of the church, and above everything else to do good work must be a Christian. Mrs. Cook also stated that one of the things that she desired to see in effect in every church in the county was a Teacher Training class, and offered her services in any way to bring about the organization of these classes.

Mr. D. B. Castor, of No. 4 township, told of the work of the Teacher Training class in Center Grove Lutheran Church, how the Sunday School had been benefited by the members of the class. Mrs. Castor also gave some information in regard to Sunday School work.

The Administrative Department was represented by Rev. M. A. Osborne, who outlined the work of the superintendent, and stated among many other good things that the job of the superintendent was equal to that of the pastor of the church, and that in order to fill this position it was necessary that the best men available both as to ability and Christian experience be chosen. Mr. Osborne made a splendid plea for cooperation with the superintendent, as in this way only could a successful Sunday School be made effective.

A large audience was present, and Sunday School work in this township was given new impetus.

Salisbury District Sunday School Conference

The Salisbury District Sunday School Conference for Methodist pastors and Sunday School superintendents will meet at the Methodist Church in Kannapolis Wednesday, March 5th, in an all-day session. The morning session will begin at 10:30 o'clock at which time Mr. C. A. Resp, of Albemarle, district superintendent, will call the meeting in order. Those leading in the discussions of the day will be Mr. M. W. Brannhan, of Nashville, Tenn., head of the Sunday School administration department in Southern Methodism; Dr. T. F. Marr, presiding elder of the Salisbury Sunday School work, and Miss Virginia Jenkins, conference elementary superintendent.

The meeting will be held especially for the executive of Sunday School work though others will be welcome. The deliberations of the day will center around the program of work for Methodist Sunday Schools. Dinner will be served to the conference by the ladies of the church.

Wednesday night at 7:30 Dr. Brannhan will give an illustrated lecture on Sunday school work and all are invited to hear him. The Kannapolis meeting is one of a series of nine held throughout the bounds of the Western North Carolina Conference. These meetings are being directed by Mr. O. V. Woodley, conference superintendent of Sunday school work, Lexington, N. C.

Bible Story Winners at First Presbyterian Church

An appreciative audience greeted the young story tellers last night and through the entire performance so great was the interest that a pin could almost have been heard in the audience. Miss Mary Parks related the birth of Christ in a most beautiful and charming way and captivated her hearers with her manner and pleasing story-telling way. She won first prize.

Miss Mary Cannon won second place with the story of the Resurrection. The third ribbon went to Miss Annie Alexander, who spoke on Joseph. Each of the contestants showed a remarkable degree of accuracy and knowledge of the subjects and too much praise cannot be given. Others taking part in the contest and their subjects were: Moses, by Margaret Harriet Fisher; Mary Queen of Ethiopia, by Francis Pickett; and Solomon by Alice Walker.

REPUBLICANS OF COUNTY HOLD PRIMARY SATURDAY

Electoral Delegates to Attend County Convention to Be Held in This City on Saturday.

Cabarrus Republicans held their county primary Saturday to elect delegates to the county convention to be held Saturday at the court house.

At each voting place in the county members of the party gathered Saturday and chose those persons who are to be officially recognized as delegates at the county meeting.

Much interest centers in the coming convention. The most important function to come before the convention will be the election of a county chairman, and in view of the heated race here over the postoffice, which it is alleged, has created two factions within the party, a hard fight is expected to take place over the chairmanship.

H. S. Williams is chairman at present but it is not known whether or not he will be presented as a candidate Saturday. No other names have been proposed but it is reported that there will be several candidates.

The county convention will also choose delegates to the State, senatorial and congressional conventions which are to be held within the next several months.

Orangoutangs and Wildfires Meet at the Y. M. C. A.

The Orangoutang Club of Hartzell School, and the Wildfires, of No. 2 school, had full swing in the gym at the Y. M. C. A. again Saturday afternoon. These two groups of boys each have an hour in the gym every Saturday, during which time they are given physical exercise by the physical director, and also mass games, such as relay races and tug-of-war. These boys are also trained to tumble, play basketball and volley ball.

These clubs also meet once each week at their respective schools, where a Christian Citizenship Training program is being carried out. In the near future a calendar of the year's work will be compiled and the boys will have certain tests to go through each week. This program trains the boys on all four sides of life—social, physical, devotional and intellectual.

Another club is also being organized at the Brown Mill school.

Township Sunday School Institute

One feature of the approaching Concord Township Sunday School Institute at the First Presbyterian Church here on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, March 5, 6 and 7, will be the presentation of a beautiful felt pennant 18x36 inches to the Sunday School having present the largest percentage of representatives over sixteen years of age, based on the total enrollment of the Sunday school. It is expected by the officers of the association that there will be much friendly competition for the pennant among the Sunday schools of the township.

The county and township officers are requesting the co-operation of all pastors, superintendents and other Sunday school leaders in the effort to make the convention a success.

The Cabarrus Sunday School Association, under whose auspices the institute is being held, is an inter-denominational organization, all Sunday school workers of all denominations in the township being invited to participate in the work. It is one of the seventy-six counties in the state that is organized into a County Sunday School Association, and is one of the integral units of the North Carolina Sunday School Association.
