IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

MUSIC WEEK WILL START EASTER SUNDAY THIS YEAR

Local Organization Will Work For Observation of Week in This City. Representatives of various organizations in the city met Thursday night and perfected plans for local observance of Music Week, which will be held throughout the United States this year. In most cities the week will start May 4th but in Concord it will begin on Easter Sunday and continue one week. Officers chosen to head the organization here are: Price Doyle, President; Mrs. I. I. Davis, Jr., Secretary and Treasurer; and J. L. M. Smith, business manager.

The following letter, which was mailed out to music lovers who were asked to attend the organization meeting, explains the purpose of the week: "The idea involves the participation of business men, connected with industrial plants, public school supervisors, prominent ministers interested in music, church organists and choir directors, music dealers, band and orchestral leaders, leaders in clubwork, welfare workers, municipal officials, artists, teachers and business men.

They would begin on Easter Sunday with special services and special sermons in the churches at the opening Sunday morning, and have the church bells and chimes ring out on Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock to herald Music Week, in order to touch permanently the everyday life of its citizens."

The following is taken from a letter received by the National Bureau for the advancement of music from Mayor Broening, Baltimore: "It was with much interest that I learned of the first Music Week in New York, and I shall be very glad to give you my hearty support in a similar enterprise in Baltimore.

"I am firmly convinced that it is my duty as the municipal authorities to develop the aesthetic as well as the physical side of the city, and unless an administration promotes higher ideals of intellectual enjoyment, it has labored in vain.

"The municipal authorities are beginning to realize that a city is very definitely measured these days by its attitude toward the fine arts, and many of the cities of the country are following in the wake of Baltimore, in making large appropriations to further the cause of art."

The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. C. B. Wagoner and talks were made by Price Doyle, Mrs. Wagoner, Mrs. J. B. Womble, Rev. J. C. Rowan, Rev. W. A. Jenkins, Prof. A. S. Webb, Prof. Hinton McLeod, Mrs. Ada Rogers Gorman and Rev. L. A. Thomas.

Those present at the meeting were Prof. A. S. Webb, Dr. H. C. Herring, Dr. H. A. Stirewalt, Miss Nell Herring, Mrs. Womble, Mrs. Davis, J. A. Cannon, H. W. Blanks, Price Doyle, Mrs. Wagoner, Miss Eugenia Lore, Mrs. John Young, Mrs. John K. Patterson, Mrs. C. F. Ritchie, Mrs. Gorman, Miss Margaret Bell, J. L. M. Smith, Mrs. J. A. Cannon, Miss Elizabeth Gibson, Mrs. Mary King, Miss Mary Morrison, Mrs. R. P. Gibson, Prof. McLeod, James Pharr, Mrs. A. G. Odell, Prof. Webb, Miss Mary Pemberton, Robert Ridenhour, Mrs. Victor Meaus, Mr. Jenkins and Mr. Rowan.

Final Contest in Bible Stories Series to Be Held at First Presbyterian Church. Owing to the great number of contestants and on account of the hundreds of people who will attend the final series of Bible stories, it was deemed best to have the contest in a larger place than the Y.

Secretary Blanks announces that the contest between the Juniors will take place Saturday night, March 8th, beginning at 7 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church. The intermediates will hold their contest Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Judges will be announced at a later date. It is expected that a noted quartette will sing and that those who have not had the opportunity of witnessing such a wonderful display of knowledge of the Bible will miss a wonderful evening if they fail to attend.

Silver cups have been presented to the Y for presentation to the winners by the leading jewelers of our city. The grand prize to be awarded to the team making the best average for their Sunday school will be presented by Parks-Belk Company.

Concord's New Paper to Make Its Bow to the Public Next Month. A Y paper for the people of Concord containing Y. M. C. A. news and advance notice of its activities is the purpose of Mr. Blanks, Y. secretary.

The publication will contain a number of interesting facts concerning the churches, schools and civic activities of our community.

No charge will be made for the paper and it is expected that every home will have one copy each month.

About five hundred copies will be mailed as exchanges all over the country and Concord will have another organ to tell the outside world of many of the advantages of our city.

Blue Birds Organized. The Blue Birds, an organization of thirty-two girls attending the Brown Mill school, met with Mr. Blanks, secretary of the Y, Thursday and perfected a permanent organization for carrying on a Christian citizenship program.

A prominent teacher has accepted the leadership of this club and regular meetings will be held every Saturday at the Y and as soon as the club building at the Brown Mill is completed, meetings of a business nature will be held there.

Bible Story Contest Popular at Harmony Methodist Church. A large congregation listened with much enthusiasm to the Bible stories and it was with much difficulty that the judges placed the awards. Arthur Harris won the blue ribbon in the Junior class and Ollie May Whitaker was second. In the older class Jessie Harris was awarded the first prize and Lillie Cochran second, with Edna Cochran third. These young people will contest in the final Bible story contest and Harmony Church hopes to be in the winning class. The judges were C. W. Murph, C. H. Morris and Jones Pharr.

FORMAL OPENING AT NEW HOME BY FURNITURE CO.

Bell & Harris Furniture Co. to Formally Open New Home on Tuesday Evening. The handsome new home of the Bell & Harris Furniture Co., corner Depot and Church streets, will be formally opened on Tuesday evening, March 4th. Announcement of the formal opening was made Thursday and the management of the company is making elaborate plans for the event.

In the announcement it was stated that suitcases will be provided for children and adults, and an orchestra will be present to furnish music for all.

The reception in the store will begin at 7 o'clock and the doors will remain open until 10 o'clock. There are many persons who have not yet had an opportunity to inspect the home of the company and the formal opening will provide them with this opportunity.

KANNAPOLIS MAN KILLS WOMAN NEAR GASTONIA

In Rage Over His Wife, He Shoots Mrs. Bud Lay, His Mother-in-Law. Gastonia, Feb. 28.—The Osceola Mill community, a suburb of Gastonia, was the scene of a most atrocious killing tonight about 8 o'clock when Carl Mitchell, a young white man shot and killed his mother-in-law, Mrs. Bud Lay. Mitchell was married to a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lay about two years ago. They separated some months ago, and Mitchell had been working in Kannapolis while his wife remained here with her parents. He was forbidden to come to the Lay home and had caused some trouble heretofore.

Going to the Lay home tonight he killed Mrs. Lay and his wife out some yards from the house, and while trying to persuade his wife to come back to him became enraged and fired four or five shots, from the effects of which Mrs. Lay died within a few minutes. It is supposed that he was aiming the shots at his wife, but in the darkness killed his mother-in-law.

Mitchell went across a short distance to the main road stopped a car and asked the occupants to bring him to the city hall, where he surrendered to the police. Word came in a few minutes that Mrs. Lay was dead.

Other Clubs in Industrial Sections.

Two other clubs were organized Thursday in the industrial section when a group of boys and girls were organized into clubs at the Brown school. The boys club was given the name of Eagles; the girls will be called the Bluebirds. Harry Lee Johnston had charge of the boys while M. Blanks organized the girls and got them started. Prof. Joyner will be

Salvage Company Takes Old Southern Engines.

Spencer, Feb. 28.—The Consolidated Salvage Company, of Ohio, has bought 30 obsolete locomotives of the Southern railway, located at Spencer, and a force of men has been sent here to dismantle and ship the parts to the foundry for other uses. The engines served their day on the road and made many thousands of miles with millions of tons of freight in Spencer for several months. It will require three months or more to dismantle the old wartime horses and it is stated that worthless parts will be buried as far as possible. The removal of the old engines will make a big improvement in the Spencer yards, giving room for handling other work on the tracks.

At the Theater.

Stan Laurel plays the leading role in "The Weak-End Party," at the Star. Mark Bennett is being offered also in a comedy.

At the Piedmont today Franklin Farum plays the leading role in the western feature, "The Lariat Thrower." The Pastime today is offering the serial, "The Steel Trail" and the western drama, "Lonesome Luck."

Picture Sponsored by Colonial Dames.

"The Cradle of the Washington," which comes to the Star Theatre Monday is being sponsored by the Colonial Dames. The scenes are laid at Sulgrave Manor and in the last part of the picture the Prince of Wales takes part.

Preparedness.

"Can you fight?" "No." "Come on then, you scoundrel!" The Southern Intercallegiate Conference basketball championships will be held in Atlanta February 29-March 4.

Trust Your Best Gowns to Us

Many High Priced Gowns have been ruined by inexperienced cleaners to save 50 cents on a cleaning bill.

That means go and buy another High Priced Gown, which is indeed poor economy.

Don't entrust the cleaning of your party Dresses and Dinner Gowns to any but the most skilled and experienced people in town.

Also convince yourself that you are dealing with a concern financially able and morally inclined to "make good" any damage your garments receive due to our carelessness or inexperience.

The fact that our list of customers includes many of the most fashionable and discriminating women in the city's social circle, leads us to believe we are qualified to please the most exacting patron.

We hope it will be our pleasure to serve you in this capacity.
