Simple—But—

Here is a Paris creation, the work of one of the most fashionable and expensive designers—yet it could be copied quite successfully by any skillful seamstress. Just a straight sleeveless frock with a few ruffles knowingly placed.

THE T. P. A.'S

Annual Meeting of Post 8, Held at the St. Cloud Hotel Friday Night.
Mr. C. F. Ritchie was re-elected president of Post 8, T. P. A. Mr. G. B. Lewis vice-president, and J. L. M. Smith, secretary and treasurer, at the annual meeting held at the St. Cloud Hotel Friday night. G. L. Patterson, F. C. Niblock, A. F. Hartsell, M. L. Marsh, and E. Sauvain were elected to the board of directors. Jos. F. Cannon chairman railroad committee; Julius Fisher, press chairman; J. O. Moore, hotel chairman; J. B. Womble, legislative chairman; Jay L. Cannon, employment chairman, M. F. Ritchie, good roads chairman, Rev. J. C. Rowan, chaplain. The membership chairman was not appointed.

The meeting was opened with C. F. Ritchie, president, presiding. Invocation was by A. F. Hartsell. Mr. Ritchie then introduced D. C. Crutchfield, state secretary, who addressed the members. Mr. Crutchfield complimented the local post on its efforts and gave some interesting information on the working of the various posts in the Carolinas. In the past thirty days Mr. Crutchfield said that his office had handled over two million dollars worth of accident insurance. Mr. Crutchfield then introduced the next speaker, J. J. Norman, and urged the delegates to attend the State meeting in Raleigh April 24, 25, 26th. Mr. Norman explained the various objects of the T. P. A. and its benefits. The T. P. A. was organized in Denver, Colo., in 1890, and has grown to the largest traveling men's organization in existence today with a membership of over a hundred thousand. Mr. Norman has been active in the work of T. P. A. for 20 years and is the largest membership writer in the Carolinas. Mr. Norman has attended all National Conventions for the past 19 years. Mr. Norman then brought out some of the important things that the organization has been instrumental in getting past the legislature, excessive baggage, Pullman surtax reduced, steel cars, fire escape, hotel inspection, signs at the cross roads.
Mr. Norman gave some facts concerning accidents. In 1922 there were 637,000 claims, and from this 1492 were from auto, 871 were from the home of traveling men, 829 occurred at the business office, 522 on the streets, 493 sports, 100 while on trains. Mr. Norman has helped organize 16 post in the state and counts with pride on his local post as being one of these. Mr. Norman concluded by giving this toast:

The Traveling Man.
Just as a log of drift wood,
Tossed on the watery main,
Another log encounters,
Touch, meet, and part again.
Tis thus with Drummers ever,
On life's unresting sea,
They meet, and greet, and sever,
Drifting eternally.
Then why not treat us kindly,
Ye men of wealth and love,
For soon we'll meet to sever,
To meet again no more?
For we 'n God's own kingdom
His songs of praise will hum,
And thank our Heavenly Father,
No merchants there, to drum.

A. F. Hartsell and M. L. Marsh were elected delegates to attend the annual meeting in Raleigh. Mr. Ritchie and Mr. Smith go by virtue of their offices. The members gave a rising vote of thanks to Mr. Norman for his work here Friday.
The members also gave a rising vote of thanks to S. A. Weddington, for his work for the past year as secretary.

ADAIR RESPONSIBLE FOR MRS. CANDLER'S ARREST

Atlanta Business Man Testifies He Did It Through Friendship For Mr. Candler. Atlanta, Ga., April 11.—Forest Adair, prominent Atlanta business man, caused the arrest of Mrs. Asa G. Candler, wife of the millionaire soft drink manufacturer, here last February when she was found in an apartment with two men, because of his friendship for Candler, Adair testified today at the onster trial of Chief of Police James L. Beavers.

Adair, whose testimony was given in the form of a deposition, said he acted on his own initiative in the matter and denied that Candler was in any way responsible for his wife's arrest.

Testifying for the defense, Adair detailed how, solely out of regard for his friend, he employed man to shadow Mrs. Candler because he "suspected her of meeting W. J. Stoddard," one of the men with whom she was taken into custody; how he asked Chief of Police Beavers to "handle the case" personally and how he arranged with the chief to raid the place when his (Adair's) agents located Mrs. Candler and Stoddard together. He, alone, was responsible, he said.

The witness emphatically denied that he was seeking evidence for a divorce and asserted that he never mentioned the subject when he conferred with Chief Beavers on the case.

One of the accusations against the police head is that he violated a department regulation prohibiting police to aid in gathering divorce evidence.

After a lengthy afternoon session the police commission which filed the charges and is conducting the trial recessed the hearing until early this evening, asserting it would complete the trial tonight "if it took all night."
