Death of C. A. Seahorn. C. A. Seahorn, Cabarrus county farmer, died yesterday afternoon at 4:20 o'clock at his home in No. 2 township. He had been ill for some time and death was not unexpected. Mr. Seahorn was 55 years of age having been born August 4, 1868. He was married on September 5, 1888, to Miss Maggie Fisher, and to the union twelve children were born. Surviving are the wife, nine children, one brother, John Seahorn, and one sister, Mrs. Essie Flowe, of Mecklenburg county. Mr. Seahorn was a member of the West Concord Baptist Church and was active in its work. Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at Cold Water Baptist Church conducted by Rev. R. G. Short. Interment was made in the cemetery of the church.

LOCAL CHURCH BUYS LOT FOR PROPOSED NEW HOME

First Presbyterian Church purchases M. L. Cannon Property on North Union Street. A deed filed yesterday with the register of deeds of Cabarrus county records the sale of the M. L. Cannon home place on North Union Street to the First Presbyterian Church, the purchase price being $17,000. Several weeks ago it became known that Mr. Cannon had offered the property to the church at a figure greatly below those asked of individuals who were interested in the purchase of the lot, and Sunday week ago, it was reported, the church decided to purchase the property. The deed was consummated yesterday, Trustees D. B. Morrison, E. C. Barnhardt and G. H. Richmond acting for the church.

It is understood the members of the church do not plan to begin work on a new home in the immediate future. They purchased the lot, however, so they could begin the new house of worship when they wished to.

The Cannon lot is one of the most desirable and most beautiful in Concord. It extends from Union Street through to Church Street and has a frontage on Union Street of more than 100 feet and is several feet wider on Church Street than on Union Street.

It is understood that the present house on the lot will be torn down when the congregation gets ready to start work on its new church.

NO BURGLARIES WERE REPORTED LAST NIGHT

Following Burglarizing of Five Homes Tuesday Night Thief Was Not Active Last Night. Police officers reported this morning that no burglaries were reported to them last night and it seems that the person who entered five homes Tuesday night has either left the city or has ceased operations for several days.

The thief who entered the homes of Frank Carroll and Z. A. Moore Tuesday night also entered three other homes, it is known. These homes are those of J. R. Cook, East Depot Street; I. J. Ferris, Georgia Avenue; and A. N. Lentz, Franklin Avenue.

A pocketbook taken from the Cook home was found on the ground near the Carroll home yesterday and this leads officers to believe the thief went to the Cook home first, then to the Ferris home, then to the Lentz home, next to the Carroll home and then to the Moore home.

A small amount of cash was taken by the thief at the Cook home, while he secured about $60 at the Ferris home. The money in each instance was taken from rooms in which persons were sleeping as was the case at the Lentz home, where about $6 was stolen.

Police officers reported this morning that they still have no clue as to who committed the robberies.

Kerr Street Baptist Revival. Mr. Whitley preached a soul-stirring sermon Wednesday night and five more were added to the church. The singing was good and the Spirit of God was present. A large congregation was there to greet the preacher. People are coming to church who never go to church or who have not been in a long time. Mr. Whitley spoke last evening from Luke 16:24. And he cried and said, father Abraham, have mercy on me, using for a subject, "He Prayed, but He Prayed Too Late." He said in part:

I want to make two or three statements about this part of God's Holy Word. This is not a parable. Jesus said there was a certain rich man and a certain beggar or poor man. Jesus was relating something that happened. Now there are only two classes of people with God, and they are the redeemed and the unredeemed, or the saved and the unsaved. There are no poor folks and rich folks with God. All men must come down on the same level, the richest man must lay his head as low as the poorest man. This man was not lost because he was rich. It is no sin to be rich. Abraham was a rich man. But God will hold us responsible for the way in which we use our wealth. God pity a man today that doesn't use his money to bless the world. This man was not saved because he was poor. God will and does pity us when we have misfortune, but God doesn't save because of misfortune. We are saved through the blood of Jesus Christ, by the unmerited love of God. Listen, suppose you and I, like this man, close our doors. God's Word says that no man liveth to himself and no man dieth to himself. This man was blessed with houses, land, money, stock and bonds, and much of this world's goods. I believe every man should save and buy him a home if possible to do so, but that is not your way in hell. God, Well, Lazarus died. I don't suppose there was any funeral, no coffin, no mourners, no tears, no friends. Well, some time the rich man also died, and the stores may have closed, they had a fine casket, a long funeral procession, the town was in mourning. Crepe was on the store doors, and perhaps the preacher preached him into heaven. But, oh friends, listen, the life he had lived told a different story. First this man had the devil in him. That is the reason he turned Lazarus down at his gate. That is what sent him to hell. The devil in men is what makes them swear; that's what makes them get drunk; that's what makes them gamble. Second, this man prayed, but he prayed too late, and I want to say right here that every person will some time or other pray. If they don't on earth they will in hell. This man prayed for the fellowship of Lazarus. He wanted Lazarus to go and preach to his brethren and warn them that they not come there where he was, for he was in torment. But Abraham said that they had preachers to preach to them, and if they would not hear them that they would not hear Lazarus. Now, listen, if you don't hear and heed this message you would not hear one that came from heaven.

Three came and were saved at the close of the service. There will be service today at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. You are welcome.
