LOCAL MENTION

The Woman's Missionary Society of St. Stephen's Lutheran Church will give a noodle supper at Mr. C. L. Eardhard's, Saturday, May 3rd, beginning at six o'clock.

The Concord chapter Daughters of the Confederacy will meet tomorrow—Friday—afternoon at 3:30 o'clock with Mrs. R. S. Young, at her home on North Union Street.

Health Pemberton, who recently underwent an operation in a Charlotte hospital, returned to his home here today. His condition continues to show improvement.

A deed filed with the register of deeds yesterday records the sale of a lot on Clark street, this city, from Mrs. W. R. Lefter to P. A. Hargett, the purchase price being $1300.

Nine new cases of measles, five new cases of smallpox and one new case of chicken pox have been reported to the county health department, according to a department report.

Jay Harris, son of Mrs. Pearl Harris, is confined to his home on East Cobbin Street with an attack of measles. His condition today is reported as favorable.

Mrs. Floyd Lipe, who underwent an operation several weeks ago at the Concord Hospital, has returned to her home on Church Street. Her condition is greatly improved.

Fair weather is offered today for the May Day exercises to be held at the Y. M. C. A. this evening at 8 o'clock. The exercises will be conducted so they can be seen by a large crowd and hundreds of persons are expected to attend.

Babe Ruth seems off to a good start on his home-run campaign this year. On the 28th Babe drove out two circuit drives, equalling his record for April 29, 1921, the year he broke all records by driving out 59 home runs in one season.

The May meeting of the board of aldermen will be held at the city hall tonight at 8 o'clock. Several matters originally presented to the aldermen at former meetings are expected to be definitely acted upon tonight, they having been continued. It is reported that several other matters also will be presented at the meeting.

John J. Cox, who is doing the grading work on the new high school grounds, has about completed the work. The heavy rain of yesterday will delay the completion of the job but Mr. Cox expects to have the job finished during the immediate future. The grounds when completed will be among the prettiest school grounds in North Carolina.

No session of Cabarrus County Superior Court was held today. The cases originally docketed for trial today were all continued and as it is very inconvenient to move up the civil cases court was adjourned for the day. Regular sessions will be held again tomorrow when the regular calendar will be followed.

Only about a dozen persons were in attendance at Cabarrus County Superior Court yesterday. This was quite a contrast to the crowd that attended the sessions of court last week when criminal cases were tried. It is a fact in Cabarrus county that people do not care about civil court and it is the exception rather than the rule for many persons to attend the civil trials.

The Brown-Harry Construction Co., has been awarded the contract to erect the new school building at Kannapolis. Work will start at once. The building will be erected on the present athletic field and will contain 16 class rooms, library, auditorium, offices and several other rooms. It is planned to have the building ready for occupancy in the Fall if possible.

Concord was not visited by a tornado yesterday by the city had a severe wind storm that caused some fear. As a result of the wind streets and yards this morning were filled with leaves, bunches of twigs and branches from trees. The wind here reached the proportions of a gale at one time during the afternoon, but no serious damage was reported.

Quite a number of persons of this county sent or carried in their county taxes yesterday. Sheriff Caldwell announced some time ago that property on which taxes had not been paid by May 1st would be advertised for sale and this announcement brought in much cash during the last several days. City Tax Collector Fields also had a busy day yesterday, many persons paying their taxes at that time.

It is reported that several Confederate veterans from Cabarrus county plan to attend the reunion to be held next month in Memphis. County commissioners, it is said, have agreed to pay the travelling expenses of all veterans who plan to attend the reunion following a custom established several years ago. It is definitely known now that several veterans of the county will attend the reunion.

R. P. Craven, prominent Iredell county farmer, was in Concord today. While here Mr. Craven called at the office of Register of Deeds Elliott and thanked Mr. Elliott for the prompt manner in which he has attended to several business matters presented to him by Mr. Craven. "I find that bills sent here are promptly paid and papers sent for file are promptly filed and returned," Mr. Craven told Mr. Elliott. "It is a pleasure to do business with men who attend to their business in such a manner as you and other Cabarrus county officers are doing it now."

State Bar Association.
 (By the Associated Press.)
 Pinehurst, N. C., May 1.—Members of the legal profession from throughout the state are gathered here today for the twenty-sixth annual convention of the North Carolina Bar Association which will hold its formal opening at 8:15 tonight. The convention will last through Saturday.

Much interest is being manifested in the forthcoming speech of R. E. L. Sauer, of Dallas Texas, who is president of the American Bar Association. According to the official program, which was arranged by Henry London, of Raleigh, secretary of the State Bar Association, Mr. Sauer's subject will be "The Law and the State."
 Immediately after the convention is called to order, U. L. Spence, of Moore County, will deliver the address of welcome which will be replied to in the response by D. L. Bland, of Goldsboro. "The Evolution of the Democracy" will be the subject on which N. D. Parker, Jr., president of the North Carolina Bar Association, will address the first session.
 Justice W. P. Stacy of the North Carolina Supreme Court, and Judge Oliver Allen, of Goldsboro, will be the principal speakers at the Friday morning session. There will be no session Friday afternoon.
 The president of the American Bar Association will deliver his address Friday evening.
 The members will hold a business session and elect officers Saturday morning.

The Bible must be read every day in every classroom in Kentucky "in the presence of the pupils." A teacher's license may be revoked for failure to comply with the law, which passed the house by a vote of seventy seven to eleven, and senate, thirty-one to one. The governor signed the bill making it the law.
