MISUNDERSTANDING ABOUT BAILEY ADDRESS HERE

Candidate Did Not Know Until This Morning That He Was Scheduled to Speak in This City. Josiah W. Bailey, candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, did not arrive in Concord to make an address that was advertised for one o'clock this afternoon. Soon after the hour for the address one of his campaign managers stated to a representative of The Tribune and The Times that there had been a misunderstanding about the Concord engagement and that Mr. Bailey never intended to come to Concord at this time.

"It was a misunderstanding," the manager declared, "and Mr. Bailey knew nothing of the advertised address until this morning. It was impossible for him to get to Concord at this time, but he will be here later."

It was also announced that the Bailey manager in Cabarrus will be announced in the near future, and at a later date announcement of his coming to Cabarrus will be made.

Mr. Bailey's manager while in Concord was very optimistic and predicted that, judging by the crowds that had heard Mr. Bailey, he would get the nomination in June.

Death of Rev. H. M. Blair.

A message received in the city today announced the death of Rev. H. M. Blair, at his home in Greensboro this morning at 7 o'clock. Mr. Blair had been in declining health for several months and his death was not unexpected. He was 70 years of age. He is survived by his wife, who, before her marriage, was Miss Laura Ramsaur, sister of Mrs. D. R. Hoover, of this city, and one daughter by his first marriage, Mrs. Everett Harwell.

The funeral service will be held in Greensboro tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Blair was at one time pastor of Forest Hill Methodist Church, and was for many years editor of the North Carolina Christian Advocate.

Mrs. Tom C. Honeycutt, Henry Honeycutt and Misses Maggie and Loria Honeycutt spent Sunday and Monday with friends and relatives in Statesville and Elmwood.

Miss Sally Honeycutt has returned from Mt. Pleasant, where she has been visiting friends.
