

Bailey Admits Defeat as Total for M'Lean Grows

Raleigh Candidate in Formal Statement Issued This Morning Admits That He Has Been Defeated. DURHAM LEADING JAMES P. COOK Reports from Half of Precincts Show Cabarrus Man Behind—Second Primary In Several of Contests.

Raleigh, June 9.—Joshua W. Bailey, of Raleigh, in a formal statement issued here today, admitted his defeat from the Democratic nomination for Governor by Angus W. McLean, of Lumberton.

Raleigh, N. C., June 9 (By the Associated Press).—Angus W. McLean, of Lumberton, former Chairman of the War Finance Corporation, and former Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, was leading Joshua W. Bailey of Raleigh, former Collector of Internal Revenue, by more than 51,000 votes early today for the Democratic nomination for Governor of North Carolina.

In the three-cornered race for Lieutenant-Governor it appeared likely a second primary would be necessary, as no one of the three candidates and majority of the partial returns, J. Elmer Long, of Durham, was leading, with 33,135 votes.

A second primary, it also appeared, would be necessary in the commissioner of Agriculture race, though Wm. A. Graham, the incumbent, with 37,120 votes, lacked only 6,000 votes of a majority of the reported returns, these being from 587 precincts.

In the Attorney-General race, 580 precincts gave Dennis C. Brummitt 30,138 votes; Chas. Ross 29,180; and Frank H. Cook 21,830.

In the Attorney-General race, 580 precincts gave Dennis C. Brummitt 30,138 votes; Chas. Ross 29,180; and Frank H. Cook 21,830.

In the first district, reports from 87 out of the 123 precincts in the district gave Lindsey C. Warren 12,042; E. F. Aydlett 5,028; H. J. Griffin 798; and Samuel W. Mann 378.

INSURGENT'S READY FOR OPENING OF CLEVELAND MEETING

Have Platform Ready for Presentation to Republican Convention Which Opens Tomorrow.

DAUGHERTY AND FALL CONDEMNED Platform Would Make Them Undesirable for Further Offices—LaFollette to Be Heard.

Cleveland, June 9.—Republican insurgents acting through the Wisconsin delegation will ask the Republican National Convention to formally condemn the acts of Harry M. Daugherty, as Attorney General, and Albert B. Fall, as Secretary of the Interior.

This is disclosed in an official copy of the insurgent platform made public today by Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., son of the Wisconsin senator, in the name of the Wisconsin delegation.

States that will be represented, according to announcement here, are New York, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, West Virginia, Ohio, Illinois, Indiana, Alabama, Louisiana, Oklahoma, Texas, Missouri, Kansas, North Dakota, South Dakota, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Michigan, Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Jersey, Kentucky and Colorado.

Delegates are to be selected from labor unions, farmers organizations, cooperative organizations, state Farmer-Labor parties, state federations of labor, international unions, and national working class political parties, according to the local committee.

Plans outlined here are on the expectation that the convention will last four days and nominate a third party national ticket.

Some plans will have to be worked out by a committee on organization as to how to present all the sections of the movement into one national political party, this committee said.

There is only one name mentioned in regard to presidential candidates at convention headquarters here, and that is Senator Robert M. LaFollette of Wisconsin.

Just what plans will be used in working out a national party of the elements that are expected to participate in the convention, are problematical.

The "third party" movement, as promoted by the forthcoming convention here, had its inception in the Non-partisan league, first organized in North Dakota nine years ago as a political power.

WHO WILL BE PRESIDENT COOLIDGE'S RUNNING MATE?

Names of Those Most Prominently Mentioned For the Place. Cleveland, June 9.—With only one presidential probability before the convention, delegates to the big Republican gathering here are getting as much fun as they can out of gossiping about the chances of the various entries in the contest for second place.

Senator William E. Borah, of Idaho, is mentioned a great deal. He's about the best possible compromise between an "insurgent" and a "regular."

Senator George Wharton Pepper, of Pennsylvania, was quite strongly urged a few weeks ago but isn't so much talked of now.

Ex-Senator Albert J. Beveridge is pretty strong. Indiana has both votes and the right kind of location. Beveridge has a reputation as a progressive.

Senator James E. Watson, another Hoosier, is a candidate, too. One of the leading Washington fortune tellers foretold recently that he'd be vice president—if that counts for anything.

Senator Charles L. McNairy, of Oregon, is well spoken of. As sponsor of the McNairy bill, the purpose of which is to boost prices of agricultural products, it's believed the farmers would like him.

Charles G. Dawes has been quoted to the effect that he didn't want the nomination, but he has supporters nevertheless.

Kansas and Iowa. Senator Arthur Capper, of Kansas, and ex-Senator William S. Kenyon, of Iowa, are from farm states and mildly progressive in politics.

Ex-Governor Frank O. Lowden, of Illinois, has considerable support. He has Senator Frank B. Willis, of Ohio, though he's hurt himself with the "insurgent" element by criticizing the recent congressional investigations, which were of "insurgent" inspiration mainly.

War Records. The names of Gen. John J. Pershing, who calls Wyoming his home state, and James W. Gerard, of New York, who was American ambassador in Berlin when the war broke out, are heard occasionally.

Cabarrus Gives M'Lean Big Primary Majority

CABARRUS FIRST TO MAKE REPORT Beat Rest of State in Filing With Associated Press the Complete Primary Returns

Cabarrus county led the State Saturday night in combining returns from the Democratic primary. The county was the first to make a pre-emptory report to the Associated Press and was also the first to make a complete report.

At 8 o'clock returns from nine of the 22 precincts in the county had been reported to The Tribune and these returns were immediately flashed over the State over the leased wire which was installed in The Tribune office.

When The Tribune, shortly after nine o'clock, filed complete returns from the county, another message of congratulations came from The A. P., this message declaring Cabarrus had been the first county in the State to file complete returns.

At midnight, when the leased wire service was stopped for the night, no other county in the State had reported its full vote.

The Tribune was able to send in the Cabarrus vote early in the night because of the co-operation it received from the judges at the various voting places.

Associated Press reporters sent out to morning papers yesterday gave Cabarrus full credit for the speedy manner in which her votes were counted and the results dispatched to all parts of the State.

Less Than 200 Primary—McLean Carried Every Precinct.

COOK'S VOTE IN COUNTY HANDSOME Cabarrus Candidate Received 1114 Votes—Grist, Bowie, Ross, Latham and Pell Led in County.

Showing in no uncertain manner his preference for A. W. McLean, J. P. Cook, T. C. Bowie, Stacey Wade and F. D. Grist, but showing a wide difference of opinions as to the other candidates, Cabarrus Democrats went to the polls 1200 strong Saturday and exercised their voting rights in the State primary.

The vote in the county was a little larger than had been expected and was several hundred in excess of the last primary vote.

McLean has the honor of polling the largest majority in the county, he having received 1172 votes to 123 cast for Josiah William Bailey. Cook and Wade had the next highest majority, their vote being 1114.

McLean carried every precinct in the county, Concord, Mt. Pleasant and Kannapolis giving him a very handsome majority. Cook carried every precinct in the county but one, No. 3 Township, while Wade carried every precinct except Ward One, Box 2.

Bowie also received a handsome vote in Cabarrus, 822 persons voting for him while Reynolds, his nearest rival in the county, received but 320 votes.

Charles Ross got the biggest vote cast for the candidates for attorney general, his vote being 519. Brummitt was a close second, however, having received 498 votes.

Judge Pell received a majority of 140 votes in the county in his contest with Carpenter. The majority in the county was favorable to Carpenter until the Concord and Kannapolis votes were counted. Judge Pell ran well in both cities.

Flowers received a very small vote in Cabarrus. He is a Charlotte man and is well known here, but he could not keep up with the handsome majorities polled in all but one of the precincts by Wade.

Latham is Cabarrus favorite for commissioner of agriculture according to Saturday's vote. The Beaufort county man received 594 votes in this county against 508 for Graham and 139 for Parker.

The total vote for all of the candidates is as follows: McLean—1172. Bailey—123. Long—103. Ross—822. Reynolds—329. Cook—1114. Durham—179. Ross—519. Nash—204. Brummitt—498. Latham—594. Graham—508. Parker—139. Grist—805. Nash—48. Shipman—287. Peterson—56. Flowers—140. Wade—1114. Carpenter—558. Pell—608.

Shortly after 9 o'clock The Tribune was able to give the complete vote for Cabarrus county and persons at the office of The Tribune were given the returns from the various precincts as soon as they were received.

Reports from various parts of the State also were received at The Tribune office but they were very scattered and at midnight no other county in the State had reported complete returns.
