

Permanent Organization For G. O. P. Convention

Frank W. Mondell Made Permanent Chairman and He Delivers Address to Convention Delegates. ONE COMMITTEE MAKES REPORT Credentials Committee Reads Its Report. Congratulations Sent by All to 'Uncle Joe' Cannon.

(By the Associated Press.) Convention Hall, Cleveland, June 11.—The Republican convention came to order at 11 o'clock and went through mere routine preliminaries today. While its platform committee was busily threshing out its differences and many leaders were closeted in hotels in conference over the still undetermined Vice Presidential situation.

The permanent organization with Frank W. Mondell, of Wyoming, as permanent chairman, was duly installed without a hitch. The convention rules were adopted, and the official roll of delegates perfected.

Copyright, Haggis & Swing Charles B. Warren, chairman of the Republican resolutions committee.

declared today in his address as permanent chairman of the Republican national convention.

Mr. Mondell added an appeal for Republican majorities in Congress "in and in principle," saying that every serious fault of recent legislation would have been avoided had the President had that strength in House and Senate.

The chairman assailed the Democrats for their "utter lack of fixed and definite principle or policy, save that of buckraking and obstruction."

Then for the first time in the history of a national convention, a woman took the platform as chairman of a major committee to present a report.
