the Presidential nomination. The report as drafted, contained the declaration * signed by all of the candidates excepting *
Mr. G. McAdoo, releasing this delegates unconditionally and also the declaration of Mr. McAdoo releasing his delegates conditionally upon abrogation of the unit and two-thirds rule, and on agreement for progressive elimination of minor candidates.

The report was the sale accomplish.

It read to the convention. It previously had been published.

Then, as part of the same report, the clerk read McAdoo's letter and counter proposal which included the abrogation of the two-thirds rule and the unit rule, progressive elimination of low candidate on succeeding ballots, and including the right of delegates to cast the votes of those who have gone home.

At the conclusion of the reading, Gavin McNab, of California, asked to know about previous rulings of the chair regarding the unit rule. Bruce Kremer, of Montana, a McAdoo man, moved the suspension of the rules so both sets of proposals could be referred to the rules committee for report. Newton D. Baker and Wm. Jennings Bryan both claimed recognition of the chair.

YOUNG MEN'S ADVANCEMENT ASSOCIATION IS FORMED

The method to be pursued in carrying on such work, the charter states, will be the creation and maintenance of libraries, wherein the best literature and educational books shall be kept; the operation of social and recreational rooms and lecture halls; and the providing for the physical development of these young men.

It is specifically designed that the or-ganization shall be non-profit making and that only one person in the personnel shall receive pay, that person being the full time secretary, who must be a man of middle age, if not elderly.

URGES GLASS AND WALSH

Richmond Paper Says Both Sides Would Accept Virginian.
Richmond, Va., July 5.—The Richmond News-Leader this afternoon urges the convention to settle upon Senator Glass, with Senator Walsh, of Montana, as his running mate.
"Glass," says the News-Leader, "romains one of the very few Democrats of national prominence whose availability has been unimpaired by all the disputes of the convention. He stands almost alone in that he is acceptable to the drys

At the same time a qualified counter proposal submitted to party leaders by McAdoo tonight when he was asked to join in the action of his 15 opponents, will be laid before the convention as a substitute. It provides that the release of the delegates shall be accompanied by abrogation of the unit rule and the two-thirds rule that favorite sons be dropped from the balloting by a process of progressive elimination and that state delegations be permitted to vote their full strength even if there are absentees. A conference of the representatives of all the candidates late tonight found the McAdoo counter proposal unacceptable, the McAdoo manager alone supporting it. Unable to make further progress toward a solution of the long convention deadlock, the conference then adjourned subject to call and authorized Chairman Hull to go before the convention when it meets tomorrow morning and submit to the Democratic national vention when it meets tomorrow morning and submit to the Democratic national

Last Point of Gravity Was Reached This Afternoon on Condition of Calvin Coolidge, Jr., Says Report.

PRACTICALLY ALL HOPE ABANDONED

Physicians Marvel That the Youth Lived Through the Night as He Was Near to Death Three Times

(Fy the Associated Press.)
Washington, July 7.—The last point of gravity haws reached this afternoon in the condition of Calvin Coolidge, Jr., son of the President, suffering from blood poisoning at Walter Reed Hospital.

He was clinging to life with wonderful tenacity, but hope was about all that was held out for his recovery. All of his physicians were remaining by his side, and were finding the stamina the boy was exhibiting marvelous.

Gas was said to be forming in the stomach, an additional evidence of the progress of infection, and making him impossible for him to take nuturition by ordinary means. The President and Mrs. Coolidge were remaining immediately at hand.
