LOCAL MENTION

Ten pages today—two sections. Born, a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Herria, of Harris street on July 7th, 1924. An excellent sketch of Hon. John W. Davis, Democratic nominee for the Presidency, will be found on page seven today. A Children's Day service entitled "The Good Shepherd" will be rendered at New Gilead Church on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. The Cabarrus County Committee of Colonial Dames will meet with Mrs. J. F. Cannon on Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock. The condition of C. L. Bunn, who underwent an operation in Charlotte at Dr. Matthews's Hospital last Friday, has improved. The condition of Mr. D. Frank Barber, who has been quite ill at his home on South Union Street, remains unchanged today. Service preparatory to the Holy Communion will be held in the lecture room of St. James Lutheran Church this evening at 8 o'clock. Mrs. H. C. Dale, of Seven Springs, and her boys, Masters Clay Brown and Harold Lee, are spending the month of July with her parents, Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Brown, in China Grove. Fixtures for the Cabarrus Savings Bank have arrived, and are today being put in the banking rooms. When these are installed, the building will be practically completed, and ready for occupancy. A little more than seventy-one dollars besides the costs was collected in police court yesterday afternoon from four defendants. Two of the mwere charged with intoxication, while two were tried for having liquor in their possession. Workmen have about completed the renovating and remodeling of the store room to be occupied by the J. C. Penny Company, in the Morris building. The plate glass windows have been installed, and painters are now putting the finishing touches to the interior. Shelving and other fixtures for Efrid's new store are being put into place by workmen, and the building will soon be ready for occupancy. It has not yet been announced by the management of the store just when the stocks of goods will be moved to the new quarters. The pageant, "The Greatest of All," rendered at Lutheran Chapel last Sunday evening, July 8th, at 8 o'clock by the children, young people and members of the Woman's Missionary Society, was splendid. A full house was present and was deeply impressed from beginning to end. The older girls return Friday evening from Skull Kap. A long distance call from Physical Director Denny of the Y. states that it has rained day and night at the camp. Notwithstanding this handicap the girls are having a good time, and letters received stated that they did not wish to return. There will be service at Trinity Lutheran Church in No. 4 township Sunday afternoon, July 13th, at 3 o'clock, conducted by Rev. M. L. Kester. Immediately after the service the Luther League of Calvary Lutheran Church of Concord, will render a program to which the general public is cordially invited. This program will be in charge of Miss Grace Ridenhour.

DANIELS WOULD DROP TWO-THIRDS RULE Suggests Nominating Candidate Who Holds Majority for Five Ballots. New York Times. Josephus Daniels, Secretary of the Navy in the Wilson administration, said last evening in the Pennsylvania Hotel that he was convinced that neither William G. McAdoo nor Governor Alfred E. Smith could be nominated under the two-thirds rule. Mr. Daniels said he believed that the two-thirds rule, as well as the unit rule and the practice of instructing delegations for certain candidates, should be abolished. He was of the opinion, after receiving legal advice on the matter, that the convention could abolish the two-thirds rule on a recommendation from the committee on rules. This action, if upheld by the majority of the delegates in the convention, would clear the way, he said, for a choice of a Presidential nominee. "Of course, if the majority plan were accepted by the convention I would expect that some provision would be included to make certain that the Democratic Presidential nominee would not be an accident," Mr. Daniels added. "This could be accomplished through the adoption of a resolution by a majority vote stipulating that the candidate who obtained the nomination must have had the majority of the votes of delegates for a certain number of ballots after the two-thirds rule had been abolished. It is my belief that no man should receive the nomination until he has held the majority for at least five ballots. That would show that he was the candidate whom the majority of the delegates believed would lead the party to victory, and would avoid the possibility of an 'accident' being chosen by the convention."

RUSSIAN PRINCESS DIES AMID SQUALOR IN LONDON

Aristocrat Had Not Changed Clothes in 15 Years; Husband, 84, Survives. London, July 10.—Her serene highness Princess Orloff, said to be related to the Russian royal house, died here yesterday, at the age of 62, without having changed her clothes for 15 years while living in a single room with her husband, who had not left the room for that period, according to evidence given at the coroner's inquest. The man, said to be English, is 84 years old. He has been removed to a hospital. His landlady, Mrs. Edith Kent, testified she had not seen him for 12 years, the door always being barred and the food left outside. Evidence given of the condition of the room led the coroner to state that the Russian aristocrat's death followed living in circumstances too horrible to be described. The pair paid regularly $3.50 for their rent and food. There is no Princess Orloff answering the description in the Almanac de Gotha, but mail received always bore that name.

MORE AMERICANS GOING TO ENGLAND

Increase Is 50 Per Cent. Over Last Year. Hotels Estimato.—Fewer Appear En Route to Continent. London, July 10.—London hotel officials estimate that there are 20 per cent. more Americans in England now than there were last year at this time. "Not only is that a fact," says one official, "but the interesting feature is that they are remaining in London this year for a longer period than ever before and apparently spending less time in Paris and on the Continent." Managers of the luxurious shops, however, seem depressed by the fact that a large proportion of the American tourists are coming over in the one-cabin ships and are regulating their expenditures accordingly. "July is a great spending month for Americans," said one shopkeeper. "That is when the really wealthy ones come and help us pay the American debt." Tourist spent $136,000,000 in Concord last year.

BOBBED HAIR BECOMES UNPOPULAR IN LONDON

England Soon To Follow Paris in Shingled Cut Reduction. London, July 10.—Experts say London will very soon follow Paris in the reaction against the bobbed and shingled hair fashions. Most women and girls who have had their hair cut short are now anxious for it to grow again—and quickly, a West End Court hairdresser told a reporter the other day. Many are now having their bobbed or shingled hair permanently waved to lessen the "bare" effect. Fashions in hairdressing are as liable to rapid change as dress fashions. Bobbing and shingling are becoming common, and therefore unpopular. Chadwick-Hoskins Will Send Fast Team to Concord. So far this season the Chadwick-Hoskins team has furnished pretty fast baseball, and all "pill" fans will be watching Saturday to see these shining stars. Gibson realizes that they will have to put an extra punch into it if they expect to beat this Charlotte crew Saturday. Any one giving these loafers a glide over the lot yesterday afternoon would think that baseball at Gibson was picking up. And it was pretty hard picking up too, because most of it was picking up the pill from out of the weeds over the fence. Sounds like real stuff to hear "so many cries from the kids, but not a ball in!" (Gibson as been working on the grounds and expects to have the park in good shape for the Saturday game.
