Assembly during a 45-minute session this morning passed and sent to the Senate five local bills and passed eight bond issue bills on their recond reading.

The House adjourned at 11 o'clock until 6:30 o'clock Monday night.

Twenty-seven more bills today were added to the 49 introduced in the House yesterday. The most important measure introduced was one by Representative John W. King, of Greensboro, regulating bus and track lines operating on the improved highways of the state.

Immediately after the House adjourned the finance committee met and ordered favorable report on the bill repealing the highway bond sinking fund amendment, and the measure carrying the substitute testing to carry out one of the matters for which Governor Morrison called the extra session.

WII Investigate Prison Conditions.

Raleigh, N. C., Ang. 9.—Investigation of conditions at the North Carolina State of conditions at the North Carolina State penitentiary here will be undertaken some-time during the extra session of the Legislature as a result of charges by two released prisoners published here, it was indicated today by Representative Matthews, of Mecklenburg, chairman of the House Committee on penal institutions.

The charges published here today were that the food served prisoners was very bad, that sick prisoners were bradly treated and chained to their beds, and other charges of ill treatment.

Greenland Now.

(By the Associated Press.)

Reykjavík, Iceland, Aug. 9.—U. S. cruiser Raleigh sailed from here this morning to search for a landing place for the American round the world fliers on the east coast of Greenland. It was this coast that was reported ice-blocked, thus affording no safe haven for the planes. Early reports from the Gertrud Rask, Danish supply ship for the fliers, which is ice bound off Angmagsalik, indicate that the situation has not changed, but the hope is expressed here that a severe snow storm known to be raging over the Greenland coast may break up the ice field and release the supply ship.

World Meet of Boy Scouts.

World Meet of Boy Scouts, Copenhagen, Aug. 9.—Manhood and patriotism will furnish the keynote of the International Jamboree of the Boy Scouts which is to be held-here during the ensuing two weeks. With delegations of picked scouts in attendance from more than thirty countries, the international gathering promises to eclipse in many respects the first affair of the kind, which took place in London four years ago. Both the United States and Canada have sent representative delyears ago. Both the United States and Canada have sent representative delegations to the present meeting, which is to be held under the patronage of the King of Denmark. General Sir Robert Maden-Powell, the founder of the Boy Scout movement, will be among the distinguished participants.

Mayflower Memorial Unveiled.
Provincetown, Mass., -Aug. 9.—With interesting exercises conducted in the presence of many distinguished guests, a memorial was unveiled here today to four of the little band of 102 Pilgrims that sailed from England aboard the Mayflower in 1620 and who died before the historic landing at Plymouth. The memorial was erected by the Massachusetts Society of Mayflower Descendants. Governor Channing H. Cox, of Massachusetts, was one of the chief speakers at the exercises. The memorial was unveiled by Miss Susan Hammond, of Nahant, a descendant of James Chilton, the only signer of the famous Mayflower Compact who died on Cape Cod. Mayflower Memorial Unveiled.

Here in the hills where he lived his life until a few years ago, when he was sent as he expressed it, to be "a wandered on the face of the earth," he found a welcome that touched him so deeply that he stood unafraid with tears coursing down his cheeks, while he sought for words that might express his emotion.

"In the presence of this welcome, in the sight of these friendly faces," the Democratic Presidential candidate said, "my heart goes out from me, and I must wait to speak until it comes back to me again."

Arriving in West Virginia in the early morning on his trip from New York, Mr. Davis was determined that until the notification ceremonies Monday night, he would forget politics and spend his time enjoying himself among the people who know him best.

While his own town of Clarksburg had prepared the official welcome, his first reception had been arranged by the people of Graftoh, a 15-minute stop for his train, an hour and a quarter before it was due in the little city in the hills where he was born.

After the ceremonies at Clarksburg, Mr. Davis planned to rest until late afternoon, when he will go to Fairmont, 30 miles distant, to attend a second "home coming."
