Elaborate Design

THIS coat refused absolutely to be ordinary. Over its black silk surface is embroidered an elaborate design in black and white silk and the laps reveal the white satin which the whole garment is lined. It is wrapped tightly about the hips to give the narrow silhouette.

Pence-Cook Announcement. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cook announce the marriage of their daughter, Florence Novella, to Mr. Walter Marvin Pence August 28, 1924, Concord, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Pence will be at home after September 10th, Monroe road, Charlotte.

A Surprise Birthday Dinner. Mrs. Ed Overcash surprised her daughter, Ruth, by giving her a surprise birthday dinner Thursday, assisted by Mrs. John Stranford. The table was placed in the yard and beautifully decorated with flowers. Those present to enjoy the dinner with her were: Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Overcash, and Ray and Grace; Mr. and Mrs. John Stranford and children, Edna Mae and Craig, Mae and Maggie Macneer, Blevin, Thelma and Missouri, Maudlin and Ethel Robinson. Everyone enjoyed the dinner and wished Ruth many more happy birthdays. B. J. M.

Attend Reunion in Chester. Chester News-Reporter.

Mr. C. H. Culp has as his guests this week at his home on York Street Prof. P. E. Wright, professor of Latin and Greek at Lenoir-Rhyne College, Hickory, N. C., and Mr. Geo. Barnhardt and daughter, Miss Dorris, of Concord, N. C.; and the reunion takes an added interest from the fact that Messrs. Culp and Barnhardt were pupils of Professor Wright thirty-six years ago, and the three had not met since that time. Prof. Wright, Mr. Culp says, is a remarkable man in a great many ways, and on account of his unusual ability as a teacher would grace any of the large universities of the land. Mr. Barnhardt is in the postal service at Concord.

Guests in Albemarle. Albemarle Press.

Mrs. Morris and daughter, Miss Isabel Morris, of Concord, were guests Monday of Mrs. Ode Parker. Mrs. W. T. Huckabee was a luncheon guest with them.

Birthday Party. Little Miss Sarah Margaret Bangle, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Bangle, was hostess at a charming birthday party Friday afternoon at the home of her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ed. Cline, on South Union street.

Miss Bangle invited 70 guests to the party, which was given in celebration of her sixth birthday.

During the afternoon various games of interest and pleasure to children were enjoyed, and after play refreshments consisting of ice cream, cake and candy were served. The guests also were the recipients of attractive favors.

Charlotte Lady Honored at Dinner Monday.

Mrs. Abbie Misenheimer was honored at a dinner at the home of her nephew, Mr. E. M. Dry, celebrating her 80th birthday. There were about 80 relatives and friends present. All wish her many more happy birthdays.

ONE PRESENT.

Birthday Party. Miss Mary Elizabeth Solomon celebrated her eleventh birthday by entertaining quite a number of her little friends from 4 to 8 P. M., August 29th. The basket was presented with nice and useful presents. After playing games the guests were served ice cream and cake, after which all left wishing Mary Elizabeth many more happy birthdays.

Miss Cannon Entertains at Dance.

Miss Penelope Cannon entertained at a most elaborate and delightful dance Friday night at the Mechanics and Manufacturers Club in honor of her house-guests, Misses Elizabeth Henderson, of Chapel Hill, Edith Parker, of Gastonia, Margaret Holt, of Burlington, Betsy McCorkle and Josephine Klutz, of Salisbury.

The music for the occasion was furnished by a Charlotte orchestra.

At one side of the spacious ball-room floor, space was set aside for the punch bowls which were beautifully decorated with pink and red roses. Presiding at the punch bowls were Mrs. J. Leonard Brown and Mrs. E. P. Gibson.

A very beautiful figure was led by Miss Catharine Goodman and Joe Bost.

The choruses for the dances were Mrs. J. A. Cannon, Mrs. Frank Rogers and Mrs. W. W. Morris.

Miss Cannon's guests are among the most popular that have visited in the city in recent months, having been the honorees at successive dances beginning Wednesday and lasting throughout the entire week. Tonight, Miss Rosa Caldwell will entertain for her house-guest, Miss Adelaide Armfield, of Asheboro, and for Miss Cannon's house party.

Mrs. J. A. Kennett Entertains. Mrs. J. A. Kennett entertained at a most delightful bridge party at her home yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Ernest White, of Greensboro.

After the game delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. White and Miss Frances Ridehour, bride-elect, were presented with beautiful gifts.

Those playing were: Mesdames S. J. Ervin, L. A. Fisher, M. R. Founds, J. Jolitz, A. C. Cline, J. B. Womble, Ed. Moss, R. E. Ridehour, Jr., Grady Gibson, Ernest White, M. L. Marsh, T. N. Spencer, Gales Pickard, P. R. MacFadden, T. D. Maness, Jones Pharr, P. M. Lafferty, J. Shinn, Jack Wadsworth and Miss Frances Ridehour.

Those who came in for refreshments were: Mesdames Fred Shepherd, W. D. Pemberton, W. M. Linker, Ernest Hicks, F. C. Niblock, J. E. Smoot, W. W. Morris and J. C. Rowan.

A House Party at Harrisburg. On last week-end, August 14th, Miss Beulah Taylor, of Harrisburg, very hospitably entertained a number of her classmates of Mount Amoeba Seminary, '24, at a house party at her pretty home.

On Saturday night Miss Taylor invited a number of friends to join with the girls in their pleasures. Vocal music and piano solos were a feature of the evening. After so much fun and many good "chats" the hostess favored the guests with grapes, ice cream and cake.

Those who enjoyed the fun were: Fred Love, Fred Furr, Eugene Morrison, Ed Davis, Thomas Carraker, William Harris, James Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Carraker, Mrs. Tom Rome Query, Misses Lucille Overcash, Rebecca Castor, Gertrude Furr, Ethel Blackwelder, Margaret Harris, Mary Query, and Beulah Taylor.

The young men left Saturday night expressing their good time and appreciation.

Miss Castor, Miss Furr and Miss Blackwelder left Sunday evening expressing their lovely time. Miss Overcash remained until Monday evening when Miss Harris and Miss Taylor accompanied her to her home near Gilwood to spend a few days.

These girls, Misses Beulah Taylor, Margaret Harris, Ethel Blackwelder, Gertrude Furr, Lucille Overcash and Rebecca finished school at the Seminary at Mt. Pleasant last spring. Good friends, and always together. We might say this was a one-third class reunion as one-third of the girls helped to enjoy the time. However, we wish we might all have been together.

Lutheran Groups Meet Monday. The various groups of the Woman's Missionary Society of St. James Lutheran Church will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the following places: Group A at Mrs. T. Silver Cross Circle to Meet. The Silver Cross Circle will meet Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock with Miss Claudia Moore at her home on North Union street.

For many years the history of lawn tennis in the United States was practically identical with the history of tennis at the Newport Casino. It was here that the first American court was built in 1875, and when, in 1881, the United States National Lawn Tennis York city, Newport was unanimously chosen as the logical place for holding the all-comers' championship each year.
