Notice to Parents of White Hall School.
White Hall school is now in the act of closing the second week of the 1924-25 school term. The school had its formal opening October 6th. The attendance has been small because of the delay in crop harvesting, due to the wet weather. The faculty and parents agreed to open school at 8 a. m. and dismiss at 12 m. for the first two weeks in order that the children might attend school and also help in the harvesting.

Because of the crop conditions, the compulsory school law has not been rigidly enforced. However, the two weeks of fair weather has given most people an opportunity to gather in their crops, and it is the intention of the faculty to open school at 8:30 a. m. and dismiss at 3:30 p. m. beginning Monday, October 20th, and to make such reports of absences as demanded by law. Therefore it shall be the duty of the parents or guardians to send their children to school or secure a permit from the County Welfare Officer or County Superintendent and to make this fact known to the teachers.

DEATH THIS MORNING
OF MRS. MOLLIE ELLIOTT

Had Been Ill For Several Months—Funeral Services to Be Held Sunday Afternoon.

Mrs. Mollie Willeford Elliott, one of the best known and most beloved women of this city, died here this morning at 8 o'clock. She had been ill for more than a year and her condition had been serious for some time.

Mrs. Elliott was 67 years of age and was a daughter of the late Jesse and Eliza Willeford. She was married while a young woman to the late William Elliott, of Chester, S. C., and to the union four children were born. Three of the children, Mrs. W. D. Knowles and James and William Elliott, survive.

Three sisters, Miss Rose Willeford, of Concord; Mrs. W. D. Shoemaker, of Charlotte; Mrs. Rex O. Whitehead, of Asheville; two brothers, James Willeford, of Concord; and Hinton Willeford, of Winston-Salem; and two grandchildren and one great-grandchild also survive.

Mrs. Elliott was a member of the First Presbyterian Church and for many years was actively interested in the work of the Church. She was also an active member of the Cabarrus County Chapter American War Mothers, and held an office in this organization for several years.

Mrs. Elliott was one of the best known women in Concord. During the latter years of her life especially she spent much time with sick and afflicted friends. In time of sorrow she was always present to aid those whom she knew and loved. The announcement of her death while not unexpected, cast a pall of sorrow over her wide circle of friends and relatives.

Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the First Presbyterian Church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Rowan. Interment will be made in Oakwood cemetery.

Football Game Here Tomorrow Afternoon.

Football lovers of the city are promised a good treat tomorrow afternoon when the football teams of the Davidson Athletic Club and Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute meet here. The game will be played at the Gibson Mill park.

The Davidson Athletic Club has a strong team, and has games arranged with a number of other strong teams of the South. If Concord proves a good football town other games will be played here.

The Davidson team has a game arranged with the Atlanta Athletic Club and whether this game will be played in Concord depends on the attendance at the game tomorrow.

The Mt. Pleasant team this year is said to be a fast, heavy one and as most of the players were in school there last year they have had much experience together.

The lineup of the Davidson team will be as follows:
MacConnell—Right end.
Kost—Right Tackle.
Wilson, F—Right Guard.
Cathey—Center.
Deaton—Left Guard.
Potts—Left Tackle.
Johnson—Left End.
Younger—Quarterback.
Ransom—Left Halfback.
Lackey—Fullback.

SERVICES CONTINUE AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Dr. Little Will Preach Tonight on "The Touch of Faith and the Joy of Confession."

The failure of the Kannapolis quartet to show up at the meeting at the First Baptist Church Thursday night was a distinct disappointment to the audience that filled the church and overflowed into the annex. Having received no word from them to the contrary they were expected to the last minute. The choir was better than usual and Mr. Ressor, always good, sang to the delight of all and saved an awkward situation. He has been asked to repeat that great old song, "Golden Bells" tonight. People never tire of hearing that song. As announced before a few will offering was taken for the splendid helpers, and while it was not completed and will be substantially increased tonight, it already is the greatest offering of its kind taken during the present pastorate. These people have learned the fine art of giving in worship, for they give as unto the Lord.

Dr. Little will preach tonight on the subject "The Touch of Faith and the Joy of Confession." Thursday night he preached a very able sermon from the words, "Sir, we would see Jesus," John 12:21, the theme being "Some Visions of Jesus." It matters much as to how we view Him. In all enlightened lands He is regarded as at least a good man—the historical Christ. If that is all that is seen of Him that is a vain vision and profits nothing. In fact to see Him only thus—and see Him in all the charitable institutions—it were better to never see Him at all. Such a vision is but to drive again the nails into his hands and feet and press anew the crown of thorns upon his brow. He wants to be seen as the Saviour of a lost race atoning for all the lost sons of Adam who tired of the burdens of sin seek Him on benched knee through penitential years. To such he is the Sun of righteousness with healing in His wings for all human ills. This vision of Him will sustain the pilgrim in the darkness of the night—life's midnight. This vision will never him for the conflict with the powers of sin in high places. It will comfort him when earth's visions grow dim and shadows lengthen. It will prove an anchorage when he feels the cable parting on the shores of time. It will prove the lamp that lights the way across the mystic river of death. Would to God all could see Him thus and crown Him Lord of all.

Service this morning was conducted by Rev. A. T. Cain, pastor of Kerr Street Baptist Church and greatly delighted the morning worshippers.

Tonight will close the meetings and great good has been done.

Crops Not So Bad.
Albemarle Press.

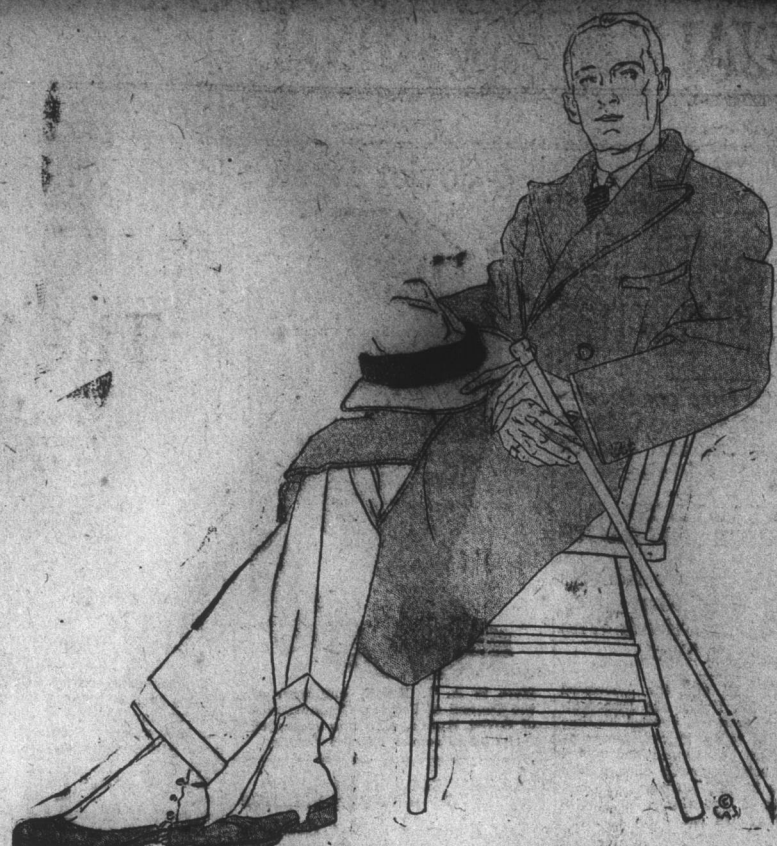

Our farmers in coming to town tell varying tales as to the crop in Stanly this year. A few weeks ago, following the heavy extended season of rains, cotton looked bad, corn looked bad, and folks were blue. But out of the wreckage, and days and days of pretty weather and sunshine, light is breaking through. Cotton is turning out better than was expected, and the crop will probably net a good million dollars for Stanly farmers.

Corn is good where the crops were planted early in the spring, but late corn suffered most. As a general result, our crops this year are at least better than was expected, and conditions are far from bad.

Shrine Band to Play at the Fair.
