

Election Night in Times Square, New York City.

—by popular choice

WHETHER it's the vital business of electing a president, or the casual one of selecting a cigarette, men naturally place their endorsement where they believe it is most deserved.

Everywhere men are changing from other cigarettes to Chesterfield—convinced by taste of finer quality. Taste is the real issue—and it certainly looks like a landslide for Chesterfield.

Such popularity must be deserved

Chesterfield CIGARETTES

They Satisfy—millions!

Copyright 1924, LIGETT & MYERS TOBACCO CO.

Notre Dame's Great Genius and Four Veteran Backs

The master football mind, Coach Knute Rockne of Notre Dame and his quartet of veteran backfield stars. The picture shows Stuhldreher catching a punt and Crowley starting a forward pass. The backs are Miller (left) and Layden (right).

It Pays to Put an Ad. in The Tribune

NEW YORK ACTORS MAKE COOLIDGE LAUGH

President Joins Heartily in Merriment Induced by the Jokes of Stage Celebrities. Special Despatch to New York World. Washington, Oct. 17.—It took a group of New York actors three minutes to accomplish with Calvin Coolidge what society leaders of Washington had attempted and failed, what traditionally was impossible, at least in public, and what even in the Senate during the two years and a half as presiding officer could not make him do. They forced him to show his teeth, open his mouth and laugh.

He kept on laughing at breakfast with the theatrical stars in the White House dining room. He joined heartily in the merriment at an outdoor impromptu vaudeville Punch and Judy show. Visitors at the White House late this afternoon found him still laughing when the subject of the delegation from the "Roaring Forties" was mentioned.

President Coolidge's plan of living takes him to the theatre about once every decade, so there was a decided touch of novelty when Rhinelanders Waldo, head of the Coolidge Non-Partisan League; Al Jolson, John Drew, Raymond Hitchcock and a dozen others from New York theatre breezed into the staid precincts of the Executive Mansion.

It was 8:45 o'clock, and the fact that the President already had waited breakfast for some time, could not be calculated to make him more amenable to pleasantry. Breakfast consisted of sausage, fried eggs, oatmeal and cream, coffee and toast, and even though Jolson remarked that none of the actors was out of work, Hitchcock said he ate everything but the dillies.

Mr. Coolidge sat between Mr. Waldo and Charlotte Greenwood, the former being anxious to discuss phases of the Non-Partisan campaign work, the latter to inject life into the gathering. The President at first divided his attention equally, apparently trying to keep one side of his face serious and let the other stray off into a smile, but when the hilarity got underway all attempts at seriousness were abandoned.

Al Jolson, seated across the table next to Mrs. Coolidge, and Hitchcock were the life of the occasion with their stories, jokes, epigrams and satire on political speeches. Hitchcock conducted a discussion of economics, and when the troupe wandered to the White House lawn continued a political address monologue on "Names," grouping his own with those of Lincoln, Washington, Cleveland, Coolidge, etc., and declaring that "Al Smith is a small town name."

Dignified Jokes Demanded. Jolson master of ceremonies outdoors, called for jokes, explaining that they must be dignified and presidential. All laughed at the first, provided by Hal Ford—Mrs. Coolidge longer than the President.

"Don't tell the next one until Mrs. Coolidge is through laughing," cautioned Jolson.

The story which provoked the most mirth was offered by Jolson. It was about two frogs and a turtle. One frog, having a headache, asked the other to get him some aspirin, but the other disdained, and the turtle volunteered. A month, two months, three months passed without the turtle appearing. The first frog turned to the second, complained of his headache, denounced the turtle and declared: "I knew that turtle would never get back." Just then the turtle put his head up over a stone wall behind them and said, "Now, just for that, I won't go after the aspirin at all."

Mr. Coolidge participated in the laughter almost as heartily as the rest.

Crowd Joins in Song. The high point of the demonstration was a campaign song, "Keep Coolidge," led by Jolson. The crowd, enhanced by a number of players at local theatres, joined in the chorus. The words ran:

The race is now begun, And Coolidge is the one. The one to fill the Presidential chair With a loss of fuss He did a lot for us. So let's reciprocate and keep him there. Refrain: Keep Coolidge, keep Coolidge And have no fears.

For four more years: Keep Coolidge, keep Coolidge. For he will right our wrongs: He's never asleep: Still water runs deep, So keep Coolidge, keep Coolidge.

He's right where he belongs. The politics of the occasion was an assurance by Jolson that the delegation is for Coolidge.

Among those greeted by the President were Al Jolson, John Drew, Ed Wynn, Charlotte Greenwood, Frankie Lorraine, Stella Larrimore, Justine Johnson, Dolly Sisters, Brennan and Rogers, Mrs. Herval, Lowell Sherman, McKay Morris, Alexander Lettich, Buddy de Silva, Lew Schriber, Gerald Griffith, Arnold Daly, Clea Mayfield, Montagu Love, William Griffin and E. I. Bernays; Frank Crumit, Hal Forde, Leslie Chambers and Jed Prouty and Miller's Band.

TRAMPLED TO DEATH IN MOVIE THEATRE PANIC

One Killed and 20 Injured in Fire at Newcastle, Kentucky.

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 20.—One person was trampled to death and 20 others were injured, five possibly fatally, in a panic which followed discovery of fire in a moving picture theatre in Newcastle, Ky., tonight, says a special despatch to the Courier-Journal.

Many of the injured were suffering from only minor hurts, the report said, and due to the excitement difficulty was experienced in obtaining names of the more seriously injured. Every available doctor in the place was called to the scene.

Origin of the fire, which it seemed would destroy the theatre, was undetermined. Many children were in the building at the time of the panic.

Big Tabernacle Built in Salisbury.

The big tabernacle at Salisbury in which the six weeks revival services are to be held has been erected on the Presbyterian property at the corner of Fisher and Jackson streets and will be dedicated with appropriate services on Friday. The big building will seat something like 3000 people and will be used by the organization of which Rev. Dr. Milford H. Lyon, of Winona Lake, is head. Interest throughout the community is keen and this interest is extending to a wider territory than Rowan county. Many people of nearby counties have manifested an interest in the meetings.

Dr. Lyon is one of the best known evangelists of the nation. He has been in evangelistic work for twenty years or more and has held wonderfully successful meetings in 36 states, and comes to the Salisbury meeting with a large number of endorsements from many cities and leading citizens where he has held these services. The organization is a strong one, including a singer of note and a pianist of national renown. A choir of several hundred voices is being organized, the section in the big tabernacle to take care of the singers being capable of seating five hundred people.

Children's toys are now made in great number in France. Although a comparatively new industry, there are already 100 factories and some 50,000 workers engaged in the business.

The National Federation of Business and Professional Women in Switzerland has a membership of 200 and comprises vice clubs in five different cities.

HOW GREAT MEN MAKE LOVE

AS REVEALED BY THEIR LOVE LETTERS

By JOSEPH KAYE

(© by Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.)

JOHN HANCOCK AND DOLLY QUINCY

"BURN Boston and make John Hancock a beggar!"

John Hancock said that when the political leaders in Boston were discussing the best means of driving the British from Boston. To appreciate the meaning of his words, it must be explained that Hancock was probably the largest property owner in Boston. And what Hancock said was no oratorical outburst to be repented later in a calmer moment, for when, in the fall of the year 1776, congress gave Washington instructions to destroy Boston if it should be necessary to do so in order to dislodge the enemy, Hancock stated he "was anxious the thing should be done if it should benefit the public cause."

More details of this great American statesman and patriot are familiar to all. John Hancock, the lover, however, is not so well known. From Philadelphia, in 1775, he sent Dolly Quincy a long letter, reprimanding her for not writing to him. He ended it:

"I have sent you by Doctor Church, in a paper box directed to you, the following things, for your acceptance, & which I do insist you wear, if you do not, I shall think the donor is the objection:

- 2 pair white silk stockings and 4 pair white thread stockings, which I think will fit you. 1 pair black satin shoes; the other shoes will be sent when done. 1 pair black Calen Co. shoes. 1 very light hat. 1 neat airy summer cloak. 2 caps. 1 fan.

"I wish these may please you, I shall be gratified if they do, pray write me. I will attend to all your Commands. Adieu, my Dear Girl, and believe me to be with great Esteem and Affection,

"Yours without Reserve. JOHN HANCOCK."

Two years later Hancock writes Dolly:

"I assure you, my Dear Soul, I long to have you here, & I know that you will be as expeditious as you can. When I part from you again it must be a very extraordinary occasion. . . ."

CONFINED TO BED

Birmingham Lady Took Cardui for Relief of Change of Life Troubles and Says It Helped Her "So Much."

Birmingham, Ala.—"I first took Cardui for that tired, worn-out feeling that comes from being dreadfully run-down," says Mrs. Catherine E. Smith, of 2106 Stout Street. "Twenty-five years ago, I was suffering from womanly weakness.

I read of Cardui in an almanac, and thought I would try it. I got a bottle and it helped me from the first. After that, during the whole of my married life, I took Cardui when I needed it. "About four years ago, change of life came on me. . . . I grew weaker and weaker, and was confined to my bed, where I lay on my back for days. I was told that only a severe operation could do me any good, and this depressed me very much, for I dreaded such an ordeal.

"I remembered how Cardui had helped me for female trouble in the past and I had read of how it had helped other women during change of life, so one night I told my husband to go to the drug store and get me a bottle. I began taking it at once. From the first dose I could feel myself getting stronger. . . . I continued to take Cardui until I was entirely through this very trying period of a woman's life." Cardui at all dealers. NC-158

A Strengthening, Invigorating Tonic for Women & Children

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic 60c.

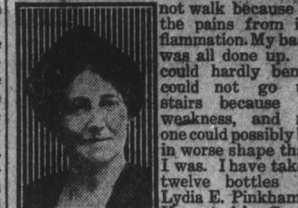

Hot Doughnuts Hot Rolls 4 to 7 O'clock CONCORD STEAM BAKERY Phone 299 or 377

COULD NOT WALK BECAUSE OF PAIN

Bad Case of Woman's Illness Remedied by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

St. Louis, Missouri.—"I had such a bad case of female trouble that I could not walk because of the pains from inflammation. My back was all done up. I could hardly bend, could not go up stairs because of weakness, and no one could possibly be in worse shape than I was. I have taken twelve bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am a strong woman now and can work down any of my neighbors. They wonder how I can do so much work. I dare say that I have recommended your medicine to a dozen and women. A little book was thrown at my door, and that is how I first learned of it."—Mrs. D. M. BEAUCHAMP, 1104 Morrison Avenue, St. Louis, Mo.

Letters like this bring out the merit of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. They tell of the relief from such pains and ailments after taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. In a recent country-wide canvass of purchasers of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, 98 out of every 100 report they were benefited by its use. For sale by druggists everywhere.

Backache Is a Warning!

Concord Folks are Learning How to Heed It.

Are you miserably with an aching back? Do you get up lame and stiff; drag through the day feeling tired, weak and depressed? Then you should help your kidneys. Backache is often the first sign of failing kidneys. Urinary troubles quickly follow. Neglected, there's danger of gravel, dropsy of fatal Bright's disease. Don't wait for serious kidney sickness! Use Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys, before it is too late. This Concord resident tells an experience: Mrs. A. G. Bost, 72 E. Depot St., says: "I suffered a great deal with kidney complaint and my kidneys acted irregularly. My back ached and when I did my housework it gave out and I had to stop and rest. Doan's Pills from Gibson's Drug Store stopped the backache and other kidney complaint." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mrs. Bost had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

SAGE TEA-TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application of two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair. Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous.

SULPHUR SOOTHES UGLY, ITCHING SKIN

The First Application Makes Skin Cool and Comfortable

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Mentho-Sulphur, declares a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation, because of its germ destroying properties, seldom fails to quickly subdue itching, even of fiery eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Rash and blotches are healed right up. Rowley's Mentho-Sulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small jar from any good druggist.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that the partnership of Rufus Burris and Jasper Trull trading as Burris & Trull, concrete contractors, has been mutually dissolved as of date of October 18th, 1924. Jasper Trull of said partnership, under said dissolution agreement, becoming liable for all debts of said partnership. Rufus Burris, of said partnership, hereby gives notice that he will not be responsible for any debts of said partnership or any made by said Jasper Trull in connection with said concrete business since said dissolution. 22-21-p. RUFUS BURRIS.

Engraved Wedding Invitations and Announcements. The Times-Tribune office represents one of the best engravers in America. Strict secrecy observed. Call and see samples. J. B. Sherrill. 13-17.

Standard Gasoline and Oil. Point Service Station. Phone 885. Corner Buffalo and McGill Streets. 12-17-c.