J. F. CANNON BUYS VALUABLE REAL ESTATE

Concord Man and Associates Purchase Ex-Sheriff J. S. Smith Farm Near Albemarle. Albemarle people in Concord during the past few days have told of rumors in Albemarle that a new cotton mill is to be erected in that city by J. F. Cannon, of Concord. Mr. Cannon when told of the rumors stated that he had purchased some valuable real estate in Albemarle but he had nothing to say in regard to the erection of a cotton mill on the property. The following story from Albemarle describes the real estate purchased by Mr. Cannon and his associates:

There has been quite a buzz of excitement on the streets of Albemarle for the past two or three days and all kinds of rumors are afloat relating to a mammoth cotton mill enterprise in prospect here. The only facts the writer has been able to get so far are that Joseph F. Cannon, of Concord, and associates have bought the Ex-Sheriff J. S. Smith farm lying just northeast of the town limits and surveys have just finished running out the lines, making plats, etc. The price has not been made public but is supposed to be a large figure.

This tract is the most desirable manufacturing location to be found anywhere in this section. It contains something like 90 acres and lies in the triangle between the Wiccasset old mill village and the new town village of this company. It is crossed by both railroads, the Southern and the Winston-Salem Southbound. Little Long creek touches the property on the west side for several hundred yards and will afford ample water for fire protection, sewerage and other requirements.

Mr. Cannon is a great favorite in Albemarle, having been connected with the Wiccasset Mills Company for the past twenty years or more and most of the time as manager. He is considered the equal of any cotton manufacturer north or south.

Mr. Allison Loved by All

Mooreville Enterprise. John P. Allison, one of the foremost citizens of Concord and Cabarrus county, died at the Charlotte Sanatorium Tuesday. His passing was not unexpected. Since our earliest recollection "John Allison" was authority on the farming industry of Cabarrus county, was one of the leading merchants of the city, a man who walked circumspectly before men and God. He was loved by all the people of Cabarrus and everywhere he was known. Not only was he a wide awake business man and a farmer, but a student of history and one of the best informed men on all public matters of any man in Cabarrus county.

Three Items From the Mooreville Enterprise

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. B. Goodman expect to spend the week-end with Mr. Goodman's brother, Esq. Billie Goodman, near Mt. Pleasant. Miss Vernie Goodman, secretary to Superintendent Charley Boger at the Jackson Training School, returned Tuesday afternoon after spending a day and night with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. B. Goodman.

J. D. MAEDER, Pastor.

A County Market. It has been felt for some time a market for the county is a necessity in Concord. Now this need will be supplied when the women of the county will open a market November 22nd just back of the City Hall, where busy housewives may find attractive foods suitable to their needs and purses. Police Department Complimented. In a number of communications received by the secretary of the Chamber of Commerce and chief of police, the Concord police have been highly spoken of as the tact with which they enforced the traffic laws. Nothing will benefit a city more than the treatment given a stranger within our gates.

Concert by Students of Orphanage

The cornet and drum corps from the Georgia Industrial School, located at Macon, gave a concert in Central Graded school last night. Only a small audience heard the concert. The members of the corps are expert musicians and they rendered a very pleasing program. One of the smallest members of the corps rendered a cornet solo that was received with generous applause and all numbers were unusually well rendered.

The corps gave a concert on Union Street this morning and several hundred persons gathered to hear the youngsters.

Concord Movie Here

The long looked for movie made recently by the Chamber of Commerce and Y. M. C. A. has been received. At a private showing to a group of business men yesterday it was pronounced very fine. One of the race scenes at the fair being out of the ordinary, as the horses can be followed around the track. The scenes at the school, the fair parade, the leading business houses of Concord, the kindergarten, and the scenes at the Y and churches are vivid and full of action. This great picture will be shown four days at the Pastime Theatre, November 24, 25, 26 and 27 and then sent over the county and state.

Far Away Turkey

In a letter received yesterday from a group of Turkish boys in the Y. M. C. A. at Constantinople, they stated that they received a copy of the Concord "Y" and had read it with much interest and asked that future copies be sent them. So much interested were they that they sent a lot of Turkish stamps to be given to the boys and girls of the stamp club.
