PAGEANT PRESENTED AT ST. JAMES CHURCH

Children of Light Brigade Presented "The Feast of Lights" at Evening Service.

A very effective program was rendered Sunday evening at St. James Lutheran Church by the children of the Light Brigade of that congregation, when they presented the pageant, "The Feast of Lights."

The pageant depicted the missionary needs of the various countries of the world, and showed also the work that is being done in the church in this country. Approximately one hundred persons, ranging from tiny tots to grown-ups took part in the exercises, under the supervision of Mrs. John M. Cook and other leaders of the three divisions of the Light Brigade.

The mite boxes for the past year were then brought in by the children, and placed on the altar. The collection from the large congregation which filled the church was also turned over to the treasury of the brigade. At the conclusion of the pageant promotions were announced in the three branches of the brigade, some of the Little Lights being promoted to become Lamp Fighters; Lamp Fighters being promoted to Torch Bearers; and Torch Bearers being promoted to the Luther League.

Joe D. Pell, of Concord, won the prize in The Charlotte Observer's caption heading contest for Sunday, November 9. His suggestion was "A Boston Hold-Up."

Other Concord winners were: "The Supported Evidence," Mrs. E. M. Marcho. "A Prize Meal," George Griffin. "An Unsolicited Supporter," L. R. Sapp.

Special Music at the First Presbyterian Church Yesterday Afternoon.

The congregation of the First Presbyterian Church had the rare pleasure of hearing a distinguished artist, Clyde Lapre, play several of his own compositions on the organ at the vesper services yesterday. Mr. Lapre is one of the greatest technicians ever heard in Concord. His pedal work was especially brilliant, at times playing faster with his feet than many organists with their hands.

Other numbers on the program were a solo by Mrs. H. G. Gibson and a duet by Mrs. Gibson and Mr. Goodman which were enjoyed by the congregation.

Clyde Lapre and Frank Chickering, concert pianist and violinist, were the guests yesterday of Sam Goodman. After dinner a few friends enjoyed a wonderful musical program.

Mr. Lapre thrilled his listeners with his wonderful playing. His technique was that of a great artist, his temperament ranging from the soft cadences of the classics to the fiery dissonances of the ultra modernists. Mr. Chickering charmed with several violin solos which were played with feeling and precision. G.

TWENTY REPUBLICANS IN HOUSE

Three Republican Senators in the North Carolina Legislature.

(By the Associated Press.)

Raleigh, N. C., Nov. 17.—There will be 100 Democrats, including one woman, and twenty Republicans in the North Carolina House of Representatives, and 47 Democrats and three Republicans in the Senate at the 1925 session, according to a list of members of the general assembly voted on November 4th, compiled by Henry M. London, legislative Reference Librarian. The list was made public here Saturday.

The three Republican Senators will come from the twenty-fourth, thirtieth and thirty-third districts. The twenty-third district, normally Republican, went Democratic this year for the first time since its formation in 1892. The thirty-third, normally Republican, went Democratic two years ago, but re-entered the Republican column this year. There were three Republicans in the expiring general assembly.

The Republican House membership shows a gain of eleven, over two years ago when nine were elected. Two years ago Polk, Tyrrell, Surry, Graham, Mitchell, Sampson, Watauga, Wilkes and Yadkin counties elected Republican representatives. This year Polk, Tyrrell and Surry went Democratic. The Republicans this year carried the following counties that went Democratic two years ago: Brunswick, Catawba, Cherokee (where Mrs. Giles Cowell, Democrat, was beaten), Davie, Johnson (with two members), Lincoln, Madison, Randolph, Henderson, Swain, Alexander, Avery and Clay.

400 Pound Black Bear.

Wilmington, Nov. 17.—A 400 pound slain black bear is on exhibition at the establishment of one of the local merchants on Market street. Andrew Edens claims the honor of having killed him on Stump Sound Beach the other day.

According to Mr. Edens, he shot the bear once with a twelve gauge shotgun but failed to stop the animal. Whereupon he took to his heels and made for home for his dogs. He returned accompanied by his father, E. E. Edens, and trailed the bear across the sound, where he states that he shot old brain 14 times before he succeeded in killing his game.

Tremendous Crowd Sees Wildlife Fight

Between 6,000 and 7,000 football fans surged on Richardson Field in Davidson Saturday afternoon to witness the annual Carolina-Davidson football game. The Tar Heels won 6 to 0 due to the educated toe of Hackney, substitute halfback who scored two drop kicks in the last quarter.

In line rushing Carolina had the edge but when the ball was carried to the shadow of the Davidson goal the Wildcats held with such tenacity and force that the Tar Heels could not push across a touchdown. Five drop kicks were tried, three missing the mark by wide margins.

Davidson threatened to score only once and that threat came with less than a minute to play. "Kick" Sappenfield started throwing passing with deadly accuracy and two passes carried the ball more than 50 yards. The game ended just as Sappenfield started on a long run after he had been unable to get away with another pass.

Merritt, Devin, Hackney, Robinson and Matthews played the best ball for Carolina, while Laird, Davis, Vance, Baker, Hendrix and Sappenfield played best for the Heels. Laird punted well and Vance, Davis and Baker were strong in the line. Hendrix made several nice gains and Sappenfield stopped at least three touchdowns with perfect tackles after the man with the man had broken through the first and second lines of defense.

Merritt and Devin gained most of the ground for Carolina, while Hackney with his toe brought victory. Robinson and Matthews were in almost every play.

The crowd was the biggest that ever gathered at Davidson for a football game. The weather was perfect and the game was fast and snappy.

Laymen's Meeting at Central Methodist Church.

A most interesting service was held last night at Central Methodist Church. The service was in charge of the laymen. The address of the evening was made by D. B. Coltrane, who spoke of the organization and great work of the Federal Council of Churches. J. L. Crowell read a scripture lesson and A. S. Webb led in prayer. The choir rendered four special numbers, a feature of which was a solo by Joe D. Pell. Miss Elizabeth Woodhouse assisted the choir.

Governor McLeod Postpones Execution of Slaves of Major Mortimer.

Columbia, S. C., Nov. 15.—Mortimer N. King and Frank Hargell, who were scheduled to die by electrocution next Friday for the murder of Major Samuel H. McLeary, near Cheraw, S. C., last July, today were reprieved by Gov. Thomas G. McLeod until Friday, December 5.

Three weeks' respite was granted the Governor stated, in order that he might review the testimony in the case upon his return from the conference of Governors in Jacksonville next week.

Sons Honored on His Seventieth Birthday.

Cleveland, Nov. 15.—Today was Lieutenant Commander John Philip Sousa's 70th birthday and the day was a busy one for the celebrated bandmaster. In addition to leading his band in concerts this afternoon and tonight, he attended two birthday parties given in his honor.

A 250-pound cake decorated with 70 candles awaited his arrival at a downtown hotel. Arrangements were made for Lieutenant Sousa to cut the cake at a luncheon given by old friends. A 150-piece school band—the pick of Cleveland's school children—reminded him with pieces of his own composition.
