

Columbia's Popular Grid Star

Royal Cooney, chairman of the student body, is presenting him with a watch, the gift of the undergraduates. Koppisch was selected as one of the half-backs on Walter Cam's All-America.

SENDS ENTIRE FAMILY TO THE STATE PRISON

Woman and Two Children Sentenced in Mecklenburg Superior Court.

Charlotte, Jan. 7.—Superior Court Judge A. M. Stack today sentenced an entire family to the state penitentiary for a term of from one to three years each.

Ezell Henderson, negro, and her two children, John 14, and Laura, 12, were found guilty of larceny and sentenced to the state prison. Judge Stack pointed out that the state makes no provision for the care of youthful negro offenders in such cases and that the only thing for him to do was send them to the state prison with their mother. The three were found guilty of stealing furniture from an unoccupied house.

The Busy Man's Creed.

Elbert Hubbard.
I believe in the stuff I am handing out, in the firm I am working for, and in my ability to get results. I believe that honest stuff can be passed out to honest men by honest methods. I believe in working, not weeping; in boosting, not knocking, and in the pleasure of my job. I believe that a man gets what he goes after, that one deed done today is worth two deeds tomorrow, and that no man is down and out until he has lost faith in himself. I believe in today and the work I am doing; in tomorrow and the work I hope to do, and in the sure reward which the future holds.

I believe in courtesy, in kindness, in generosity, in good-cheer, in friendship and in honest competition. I believe there is something doing, somewhere, for ever man ready to do it. It believe I'm ready—Right Now!

President Immune From Arrest.

The Pathfinder.
Ques. Can the president of the United States be arrested?—Ans. Theoretically, the president cannot be legally arrested no matter what his offense might be. The only action which can be taken against him while president is impeachment. If a president were to commit some serious crime he could be removed by impeachment proceedings and then indicted and arrested. However, in practice a president may be arrested. For instance, President Grant was once arrested by a Negro policeman for driving a horse too fast in Washington. Grant forfeited $20 collateral and commended the officer for enforcing the law.

Mrs. Charlie Chaplin Talks About the Star's Coming.

Los Angeles, Calif., Jan. 7.—The star is fluttering about the home of Charles Chaplin, the Los Angeles Times said this morning, quoting as its authority Mrs. Chaplin, who until her marriage to the film comedian in Mexico last November, was Miss Lita Grey, his sixteen-year-old leading woman. “I want a girl,” said the former actress when a Times reporter brought up the subject of the relative desirability of boy and girl babies, “and so does Charlie; though of course we'd be satisfied either way.” “I think the time will be this summer,” she said.

Affections Alienation Suit Settled By Payment of $310.

Asheville, Jan. 7.—The terms of the agreement reached yesterday whereby B. L. Brooks withdraws his suit against former Mayor Sam Bryson, of Hendersonville, for the alienation of the plaintiff's wife's affections are satisfactory to Mr. Bryson, according to announcement tonight by his attorneys. Mr. Bryson pays the court and attorney fees, amounting to $310, and departs from the state by Saturday. He is expected to locate in Spartanburg with his family.

Persimmon is a favorite wood for golf club heads, and straight-grain hickory for shafts.

Would Make Babies Compulsory.

The Pathfinder.
All marriage licenses issued in Nebraska would be revoked in cases where no children are born within two years if a bill sponsored by Health Commissioner A. S. Pinto of Omaha passes the state legislature. The proposed measure makes exceptions only in cases of physical disability when properly certified by physicians. Dr. Pinto intends to have the bill introduced early in the coming session.

“The chief reason for the decreasing birth rate among our native stock is married women in industry,” explains Dr. Pinto. “A very large percentage of our young people now are marrying with only selfish ends in view. Both husband and wife keep on working with no idea of raising a family. This is producing the clinging vine type of husband. As long as the wife continues working the husband depends more and more on her earnings to help maintain the household. Husbands are like that—they will lean if given a chance. Woman's forte in life is to bear children. That is what she is here for. There is no getting away from the fact. No man has a right to marry without being able to support a wife. One hundred dollars a month is enough to marry on. Apartments are curses and should be shunned by newlyweds. Four children should be the minimum in a family.”

Few Keep Pledge.

A year ago Dr. H. R. McCarty of Saratoga Springs, N. Y., offered to give $5 to each one of 22 selected young women if they could withstand the bobbed-hair craze for 12 months. Only five remained with unshorn locks to collect the award.
