These to produce criminals among the young. Our modern cities, overcrowded, fast living, fearfully congested, are turning out unfinished products of humanity that easily and quickly fall into crime.

GOVERNOR McLEAN.

Governor A. W. McLean became Chief Executive of North Carolina today and he and his family are occupying the Governor's Mansion on Blount street.

Governor McLean enters upon the duties of Governor with the full confidence of the people. He was elected by one of the largest majorities in the history of the State and besides, those persons who voted against him for political reasons recognized in him a man of sterling worth, a man fully capable of administering the offices of Governor with rare grace and wisdom.

The New Governor of North Carolina

Lumberton, N. C., Jan. 14 (By the Associated Press).—Angus Wilton McLean, who was inaugurated Governor of North Carolina today at noon, in the city auditorium at Raleigh, was born in Robeson county, April 20, 1870.

In 1904 Mr. McLean was married to Miss Margaret French of Lumberton. From 1898 until 1914 he was president of the Bank of Lumberton. He then assumed the presidency of the National Bank of Lumberton. Until his gubernatorial victory he was senior member of the law firm of McLean, Varner and McLean.

Mr. McLean was a delegate at large to the National Democratic Convention of 1904, when he was assigned a place on the Rules Committee. Again, in 1912, he was a delegate, this time being assigned to a place on the Committee on Permanent Organization.

NO RECOVERY ON BANK DRAFT THAT IS RAISED

Richmond, Va., Jan. 13.—In an opinion today affirming decision of the federal district court at Raleigh, N. C., the United States circuit court of appeals held that a bank issuing a draft is subsequently altered is only liable for the original face value.

Church at Due West, S. C. Where Meeting Was to Have Been Held, Not Completed.
Statesville, Jan. 13.—The Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian church, embracing the states from Virginia to Florida and from the Carolinas to Arkansas, has been invited to meet in Statesville with the First Associate Reformed church this spring.

DINNER STORIES

"What are you crying for, my lad?" "Cause farver's invented a new soap subtitoot, an' every time a customer comes in I get washed as an advertisement."

Old-fashioned Uncle, on visit to city from the country—"But, my dears, do you dance to your meals nowadays?"

Lesson in Politeness.
Kid: "Pass me the gravy, ma."
Ma: "If what, Willie?"
Kid: "If you don't, I'll start something."

A Class Apart.
Ad in the Alhambra, Calif. Post-Ad vocate:
Fancy washing and ironing for ladies and gentlemen and school teachers.

Evidence.
Willis: "What makes you think there are bootleggers in this town? I haven't been able to find a single one!"
Wisiss: "Don't you see blind men selling pencils on every corner?"

Goldberg took his wife and baby to see a first class show and occupied seats in a front row. When the baby started to cry, an usher came to him and said: "If that baby cries again, sir, I'll have to ask you to step to the box office and get your money back."

WAS A GOOD JUDGE OF LIQUOR

"Since a young man I had a liking for liquor and was considered a pretty good judge of it at one time, but constant drinking gave me stomach trouble which became chronic. My stomach would have been a valuable addition to a gas factory. Doctors did not seem to relieve me. One day my druggist got me to try Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, and I am how as good as new."

PROPERTY VALUE INCREASES
When a Complete, Modern Bathroom is Installed.
Invariably, the added value is greater than the cost of the improvement.
