A NUMBER PUZZLE

Instead of cross words—cross numbers! Here is something new in the fact that has gripped the nation. Numbers instead of letters, numbers that add to a definite sum, reading either way. You need no dictionaries to look up stickers, not even an arithmetic. For these numbers are just the first nine digits and each group totals 15. The puzzle form and numbering of the squares are similar to crossword puzzles. But instead of definitions you get a group of numbers which are to be rearranged in the squares designated so that they will add up to 15 either horizontally or vertically, when the other groups are properly arranged.

London Searched in Jail for Shrinking Girls of 1890. London, Jan. 31.—Released from Broadmoor jail after 34 years, confinement, Mr. B. saw a motor car in the streets of London the other day for the first time. Recounting his impressions of the War Cry, Mr. B. said: "When I saw London again I particularly noticed two things. One was the speed of the traffic, and the other the independent air of the young women. When I last saw the traffic you could saunter across the road at Kings Cross, and all the young women were shy. But now—" "When I left college I didn't owe any one a cent." "What an awfully time to leave."

Find Caribou Herd.

A caribou herd of about 50 animals has been discovered between Big Fork and Little Fork rivers in Koochiching county, Minn. It is believed to be one of the few herds in existence. The find was made through accident. Farmers shot what they thought were deer but later investigation showed that the animals were caribou.

Hermit Slept in Pool.

A warm sulphur pool in a cave near Salt Lake City served K. N. Jensen, 60, as a bed. During the winter months, "The Hermit of Warm Springs," as he is known, slept in the buoyant water, using a wooden block to keep his head up. The police rudely awakened him one night as his naked body floated about in the four-foot-deep pool. It was found that Jensen had a substantial income.
