LOCAL MENTION

Miss Mary McInnis is ill with influenza at her home on McGill Street.
Robert Irvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. X. Irvin, is confined to his home by illness.
The weekly meeting of the Concord Rotary Club will be held at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow at 12:30 p. m.
Statesville Daily: Recent arrivals at Long's Sanatorium included Mrs. H. F. Hagar, of Concord.
George W. Means and J. W. Barnhardt, both members of the local post office force, are confined to their respective homes on account of illness.
A regular meeting of the Virginia Dare Book Club will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. R. E. Ridenhour, Jr., at her home on White Street.
Mrs. C. H. Hethcox received a message stating that her brother, Henry Hunter, of Pineville, is seriously ill with influenza.

Remember, we will give The Progressive Farmer a whole year free to every subscriber of The Concord Daily Tribune who pays for a year in advance. You get two papers for the price of one.

Members of the Kings Daughters who still have envelopes which were distributed last week to make the annual collection are asked to return them to Mrs. J. A. Cannon as soon as possible.

William H. Gibson, who was taken ill Sunday at his home on North Union street, became much worse this morning and it was decided to take him to the Sanatorium in Charlotte for treatment. His condition, though serious, is not considered dangerous.

Fourteen cases were called in recorder's court Monday, four being continued until Friday. Two defendants were found not guilty, two were sentenced to serve 20 days each on the chain gang for being intoxicated and the others paid fines totaling $70, several being freed upon payment of costs in their cases.

Relatives here have been advised that the condition of J. A. Kimmons, who is undergoing treatment in a Charlotte hospital following an operation for appendicitis, is as favorable as could be expected. Mr. Kimmons has rested very comfortably during the past two days and relatives and friends are hopeful of his recovery now.

Mrs. Missouri F. Brown has sold to Lottie Palmer Roary property in Ward 4 for $125, according to a deed filed Monday. Another deed records the sale of property in No. 11 township by T. V. Talbirt to T. H. Talbirt for $250, and another deed records the sale of property in No. 10 Township to W. G. Gibson to James E. Howell for $1,100.

Officers of Company E are getting everything in shape now for the annual inspection which will be held on the afternoon and night of February 28th. The local company has always been given a high rating following the inspections and officers of the company intend for the company to be ready in every way for the visiting officers this year.

Mrs. Ernest Hicks, who has been undergoing treatment in a Charlotte hospital for some time, continues to improve, members of her family have been advised. It is reported that Mrs. Hicks rested more comfortably Sunday and Monday than at any time since she entered the hospital and if she continues to improve as she has done this week she will be able to return to her home here soon.

Two league basketball games are scheduled for tonight at the Y. M. C. A. The city team is to play Winecoff and the Wild Cats meet Harrisburg. The league games have been drawing large crowds recently, especially from the parts of the county from which the teams come. Harrisburg, Rocky River and Winecoff regularly send their quota of rooters to support their players.

John K. Patterson, of the firm of John K. Patterson & Co., announced today the sale by him of the Dusenbury property on North Union street. Mr. Patterson sold the property for Mrs. Nellie Gron to Dr. J. F. Reed, the purchase price being $12,600. The property is 186 feet deep and 23 feet wide counting half interest in the alley between the property and that of M. J. Corl.

Jennings Bolton, who is directing the opera, "Chimes of Normandy," to be given at the high school auditorium Friday evening, assisted the choir of All Saints Episcopal Church Sunday morning. Mr. Bolton sang a solo which was enjoyed by the large congregation present. Mrs. H. G. Gibson, Mrs. E. P. Gibson, Mr. Bolton and Jess Raeford sang St. Clement's "Heaven Is My Home." Mr. Bolton has a splendid tenor voice and in both of these numbers his singing was a feature of the services.
