Girls and Funster
The play given by the Junior Hi Y Girls of No. 2 School on Thursday evening was a great success, as an entertainment as well as financially, about $30 having been taken in, which money is to go as part payment on the moving picture machine used at the school.

The musical program before the play, was arranged by the Misses Lippard and Pemberton, and given by some of the younger girls.

Miss Hallam, the kindergarten teacher of the "Y," and leader of the girls club at No. 2 school, presented the play. Under her direction each character was well represented, and the hat shop had so many different kinds of hats that the moving picture star, the adventures, even a bonnet for the teddy bear and an automobile hood for the dog Phi, were finally supplied by the "disobedient" salesladies.

Mrs. Lee, a member of the faculty of No. 2, assisted in presenting the play. Hats used in the play were furnished by Fisher's.

Those who took part in the play were: Mobe Jenkins, Margaret Hall, Ruby Griffin, Nellie Stowe, Pauline Ballard, Pauline Honeycutt, Mary Verbe, Ruby Barnhardt, Lillian Eudy, Louise Shelton, Mary Hudson, Mildred Miller, Atha Waters, Annie Novelle, Lillie Nash, Estelle Kirk, Minnie Trull, Mable Honeycutt, Jessie Winscott.

Junior Kings Daughters Will Have a Tea Saturday Afternoon.
A social event which has been attracting much attention in Concord for the last few days is the tea which the Junior Kings Daughters, Stonewall Jackson Circle, are planning to have Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. M. King, on South Union street. The hours are to be from three to five o'clock.

The tea is a benefit affair for the purpose of raising funds to build a chapel at Samaritan. This project is one which has for its final endeavor the building of a chapel similar to the one at the Stonewall Jackson Training School here.

Kings Daughters all over the State are bending every effort toward getting the chapel in this school.

It will be remembered that one of the first projects of the Kings Daughters in the State of North Carolina was the erection of the pretty stone building at the Training School. Of course it has since become too small to have all the boys of the Training School in it but it is very useful for small gatherings and also forms a beautiful addition to the architecture of the grounds.

The tea Saturday will be a very brilliant affair. At the door Mrs. R. P. Gibson, leader of the girls, and Betsy Davis will receive. Mrs. J. P. Cook, State President, Mrs. J. A. Cannon, Mrs. Cannon and Mary Grady Parks will greet the guests in the living room. Askins Ivey and Louise Webb will take the guests to the dining room where Miss Addie White, Mrs. L. A. Fisher, Elizabeth McFadyen, Willie White, Annie Guffy Dayvault, Mariam Coltrane and Jenny Brown will serve. In the hall Bessie Webb, Ruth Dayvault, Frances Boger, Virginia Reed and Julia Rowan will help entertain the guests.

There are many expressions of gratitude from the Kings Daughters for the generous response to the "Opportunity" envelopes distributed last week so as to give all friends of the cause an equal chance to participate in the work the Kings Daughters have been doing for the past fifteen years in the community.
