

"THE LAFAYETTE"

This handsome suite will do honor to your home and impart character to your dining room. The walnut surfaces radiate beauty and good cheer.

There are many fine details of design. Notice how nicely the legs taper, and their fine flutings. Observe the rich moldings that illuminate the surfaces. The paneling too is a decoration of interest.

The workmanship will stand close inspection. Satisfying in every respect is the cabinet work. The quiet dignity and refinement of these pieces will afford you lasting pride.

LOCAL MENTION

Hubert Propst has accepted a position with the Bell and Harris Furniture Company.

Miss Jamie Collett is confined to her home on Vance Street by an attack of appendicitis. Her condition today is reported as practically unchanged.

The condition of F. C. Niblock, who has been confined to his home for several days by illness, is reported today as greatly improved.

A. R. Kennerly, who has been employed at the Bell and Harris Furniture Company since 1917, has resigned his position.

Preston J. Waddell and Hardy West, of Concord, were witnesses of the execution of David Jones, at the State prison Wednesday. Jones killed the Sheriff of Chowan county.

J. B. Linker has secured an option on the I. F. Miller property on South Union Street. The property will be subdivided into building lots and sold at auction.

Mrs. E. I. Reavis, who was operated on earlier in the week at Winston-Salem, is reported to be resting as well as could be expected although her condition is still somewhat serious.

Mrs. Lewis Wallace was carried to the Concord Hospital Thursday for treatment. Mrs. Wallace has been ill for some time and physician Thursday advised that she be taken to the hospital for treatment.

Miss Adelaide Foll has returned from a Charlotte hospital where she underwent treatment for some time. Her condition is reported as greatly improved and she is able to be up most of each day now.

A regular meeting of the Fred Y. McConnell post of the American Legion will be held in the club rooms tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All members are asked to attend and take a new member with them and all present will get a chance at the attendance prize.

Rev. G. V. Tilley, former pastor of the First Baptist Church of this city, and now of Hertford, will preach in the church here at the morning and evening services Sunday. Mr. Tilley undoubtedly will be heard with much interest by many of his friends here.

Announcement has been made that D. F. Giles, of Marion, will be present to speak to the Pythians at the opening of their new home on the 27th. Mr. Giles is very prominent in fraternal circles, being Grand Chancellor of the Pythians in North Carolina.

Some improvement is reported today in the condition of Mrs. K. L. Craven who has been quite ill this week at her home on West Depot Street. There was a change for the better in her condition Thursday, it is reported, and friends and relatives are now more hopeful for her recovery.

Henry Wineoff, W. L. Bell, S. J. Hooks, R. E. Ridenhour, Jr., C. S. Smart, Frank Mills, J. F. Harris, C. F. Ritchie and J. A. Cannon are spending the day in Greensboro attending the Presbyterian Laymen's Conference. They are representatives to the conference from the Men's Bible Class of the First Presbyterian Church.

W. L. and W. W. Morris have sold to W. W. Flowe property on Barbrick Street, according to a deed filed Thursday, the purchase price not being given.

Mrs. Addie A. Odell has sold to A. F. Goodman and D. A. McLauria property on Odell Street for $3,000, according to another deed, and another deed records the sale of property in Ward 4 by H. C. Cosby and J. A. Cosby for $125.

Word was received in the city Thursday night to the effect that L. P. Best, of Warsaw, had died after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Best was a prominent business of Warsaw and was well known in the eastern part of the state. His daughter, Miss Martha Best, has visited in Concord a number of times and was one of the most popular visitors to the city.

Elbert Swink, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swink, had the misfortune to fall from a bicycle Thursday afternoon and break his left arm. Elbert was riding the bicycle up and down the embankment at Central Graded School when he struck a piece of wood and was thrown in such a manner that his arm was broken. He is reported today as resting as comfortably as could be expected.

Three candidates for aldermen are announced in this paper today. Those entering this race are A. R. Howard from Ward One; W. A. Wilkinson from Ward Two, and James G. McEschern from Ward Four. Mr. Wilkinson and Mr. McEschern are up for re-election while Mr. Howard is offering himself for the first time. It is understood that Mr. Howard became a candidate only after the present aldermen from his ward, W. W. Flowe, refused to make the race.
