GRAHAM-STONESTREET.

The following announcement will be of interest to friends in this and adjoining towns and counties:

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. H. Graham announce the marriage of their daughter Mary Esther to Mr. Calvin Clement Stonestreet on Wednesday, February 18, 1925, at High Noon at Forest Hill Farm, Candor, N. C.

The wedding took place at the home of the bride's parents. The home was beautifully decorated with long leaf pines, ferns and potted plants. An improvised altar with lovely arch was formed covered with trailing cedar and bedecked with candles. A white kneeling stool with silk pillow completed the decoration.

Rev. W. T. Trawick, from Ellerbe, officiated. Prior to the ceremony, Miss Rosa Pat Allen, from Polkton, N. C., in her charming manner sang, "I Love You Truly." Miss Allen was very pretty in white crepe back satin and wearing a lovely corsage of sweet peas and fern. She was accompanied by Miss Almira Graham, sister of the bride, at the piano. Miss Graham wore a handsome dress of black satin with gold lace trimmings and she also wore sweetpeas with fern. Miss Graham presided at the piano throughout the ceremony.

As the bridal chorus from Lohengrin sounded Miss Gladys Cooper, acting as her cousin's dame of honor, took her place before the altar. Miss Cooper was becomingly attired in black satin and Chenille with fur trimmings, wearing a beautiful corsage of sweet peas with fern. The maid of honor, Miss Bertie Whitlock, entered next. Her frock was a becoming model of blue crepe and she also carried an arm bouquet of sweet peas.

Pretty little Mary Elizabeth Trawick, dressed in lovely pink crepe de chine, carried the ring in a large white rose.

Just preceding the bride and groom came the little flower girls, little Miss Edna Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Harris, of Candor, and little Miss Almira McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. McDonald. They were beautifully dressed in white crepe de chine with bonnets and carried white roed baskets made by the bride's own hands, filled with sweet peas and tied with large bows of white mulline.

The bride entered on the arm of the groom. She was very attractive in a handsome grey suit of Charmeen with Millay crepe in an advanced spring style, with hat, gloves and shoes to match. She carried a bouquet of white roses, valley lilies and fern in shower effect. Her only ornament was a handsome strand of pearls the gift of the groom.

"To a Wild Rose, (McDowell), was played softly during the ceremony and Mendelssohn's March was used as a recessional.

Mr. Stonestreet is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Graham, and is a young woman with a beautiful Christian character. She has taught for a number of years in Montgomery, Staugly, Lenoir and Moore counties and has soon for herself a host of friends. She was a leader in her church and in any project for advancement in her community. She especially enjoyed training the children for Sunday School programs, etc., and the parents were always glad to have their children in her care.

Mr. Stonestreet, a prominent merchant of Kannapolis, and president of Midway Lighting and Improvement Co., is well known in this section of the State, having been postmaster at Kannapolis and Clerk of the Court of Cabarrus County for a number of years.

The happy couple left immediately after the ceremony for a short bridal trip.

Rev. and Mrs. C. A. Brown Given a Dinner and Pounding.

February 19, 1925, a goodly number of the Grace Evangelical Lutheran congregations gave their pastor, Rev. C. A. Brown and his wife a sumptuous dinner and a most liberal pounding consisting of flour, potatoes, sugar coffee, honey, sorghum, fresh meats, a chicken, a large ham and many other things for the kitchen and pantry.

The dinner which was a most sumptuous one, was spread on a large table in the yard, and after Pastor Brown invoked the blessings of a kind Heavenly Father on all present, and the families they represented every body was invited to help themselves.

The afternoon was very pleasantly spent in a social way. Pastor Brown and his wife are truly grateful for this expression of appreciation from Grace congregation.

Mrs. Caleb Basinger Given a Birthday Dinner.

The family, relatives and friends, between fifty and seventy-five in all, gave Mrs. Caleb Basinger a sumptuous birthday dinner on Tuesday, February 17th at her home near Grace E. L. Church. The dinner was spread on a long table in the yard, and after her pastor, Rev. C. A. Brown invoked God's richest blessings on all present, and especially on Mother Basinger, in whose honor the dinner was given, all were invited to help themselves which they did.

You CAN keep prices down this Spring—

Here's what to do:

Whether you trade here or not, you can, by using our Values as a hammer, get the price you pay down to the price we ask.

You can say "I can do better at Brown's—and then if nothing happens—why, come to Brown's."

We'd like your trade—that's understood and some day we are going to get together if quality and strong values count for anything in your reasoning.

Meanwhile—we are showing values that you can use as a wedge—we're using them for the same purpose.
