Where are all our correspondents? We all need to get busy and send in more news.

A friend recently made inquiries concerning "Happy." Come on "Happy," and all you writers.

We know of a hen that went into the kitchen and laid an egg in a shoebox which was sitting on a table.

Shop we met L. W. Price, from New Mexico, one of the best head cooks in this section.

People all over the United States are reading our items and we are receiving Valentine letters and cards from all over the country.

We received two Valentines from two girls on Salisbury Route 6.

The Valentines were made by the grandmother of the girls about fifty years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Frick, of Faith, have twin girls. They are the prettiest little girls we ever saw.

J. T. Wyatt has the promise of a big lot of granite work as soon as the weather gets warmer.

Dr. Davis has opened up a fine granite quarry in the town of Faith and is getting out 6x18 inch curbing.

There are many thousands of little deposits of granite all over the granite belt that will last the granite workers for years and years to come.

A man can take three thousand dollars and come out here on the granite belt and make a fortune with it.

William Jennings Bryan denies that he has quit politics or that politics has quit him.

GENERAL DAWES SETTLES IT. The Pathfinder.

Gen. Dawes, wisely we think, announces that he will not sit in at the cabinet meetings.

Advocates of the vice president's participation in cabinet meetings say that he would be a valuable "liaison officer" between the executive and the legislative departments.

The framers of the constitution were careful to distinctly divide the three branches of the government—executive, legislative and judicial.

Of course, if the precedent be established it would have to be followed.

Why Rich? "There are only two reasons why I'd want to be a millionaire," says Bruce Barton.

Second, I yearn to carry a cane. A cane is a companion, a playfellow.

Your Weight. Do you weigh what the charts say you should for your height and age?

VENUS. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Peeler, a son, February 12th, 1925.

CHLORINE TREATMENT BUNK. COPELAND SAYS

Tells of Seeing Senators "Gasping" Themselves.

The Pathfinder. Washington, D. C. Feb. 18.—Using chlorine to treat colds is "pure bunk," Senator Copeland told the Senate today.

"I remember going down into a room in the Capitol a few months ago," said Dr. Copeland, "and seeing a dozen Senators in a little room inhaling chlorine gas, tears running from their eyes and fluid running from their noses.

William Jennings Bryan denies that he has quit politics or that politics has quit him.

Georgia Lady, Who Had Lost Too Much Weight, Was Advised to Take Cardui and is Now Well.

Columbus, Ga.—Mrs. George B. Hunter of this city, writes: "After I married, thirteen months ago, I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides during ... My side hurt so bad it nearly killed me."

"I got very thin—I went from 126 pounds down to less than 100. My mother had long been a user of Cardui and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble, so she told me to get some and take it."

"My side hurt less and I began to improve in health. ... The Cardui acted as a fine tonic and I do not feel like the same person. I am so much better. I am well now. I have gained ten pounds and am still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all."

"I wish every suffering woman knew about Cardui." NO-160
