PRESIDENT IN HIS OWN RIGHT

Calvin Coolidge becomes President of the United States now in his own right, he having been elected by a large majority in the November election.

President Coolidge has been given a working majority in both houses of Congress for the next session and for the next four years at least, he will be boss.

They are already talking about the President being a candidate again in 1928. He is entitled to two full terms in addition to the time he served as successor to President Harding.

President Coolidge will have with him from now on only a few of the men selected by President Harding as his advisers.

FOR A STATE BUDGET

Governor McLean wisely argues that a State can be run on the same principle as a business concern.

The budget commission has outlined a program for the next two years and the Legislature has been taxed with the work of securing revenue to cover all of the items in the budget commission report.

North Carolina has great wealth and she can raise much revenue without hurting any one seriously.

business concern finds itself in need of more capital at times, but there will always be on hand incoming revenue to care for the loan.

Taxes have been raised in the State, and naturally they are going to be paid by the people, but in the long run the people will pay no more than they would under the old system.

Announcement that a new dormitory is to be built at Mt. Pleasant Collegiate Institute will be received with genuine interest by the many patrons and friends of the worthy institution.

TODAY'S EVENTS

Wednesday, March 4, 1925. With all of the ceremonies which custom has prescribed for the occasion, Calvin Coolidge and Charles G. Dawes today will be inaugurated as President and Vice President of the United States.

It is expected that 25,000,000 persons will hear President Coolidge's inaugural address today through a country-wide rebroadcast from Washington.

Howard M. Gore, who has served for some time as Secretary of Agriculture in the cabinet of President Coolidge, today will be installed as governor of West Virginia.

By a curious coincidence today's inauguration of President Coolidge marks the one hundredth anniversary of the inauguration of John Quincy Adams, sixth President of the United States.

SAYS PAPERS ARE PUBLIC PROPERTY

Editor Says They Belong to Their Thousands of Readers. "The newspaper recognized for what it is a public service institution belonging to the people—will print nothing which should not go into every home and be read at every fireside."

World is Thinking Better. "I believe when a man selects the newspaper business for his life profession he consecrates himself to the public. He shuts himself off from the ordinary privileges and ambitions of men."

Far Sighted. They were climbing a lofty peak of the Alps, and she was standing a few feet above him. She turned and gazed in wonderment.

Stranger in Church. The clergyman leaned back in his chair after supper. It was Sunday evening—the time when all preachers heave thankful sighs that their most strenuous day in the seven has once more drawn to a close.

Helping Mother. The Sewing Circle was meeting at Mrs. Smyth's and one of the dear ladies saw little Ethel Smyth's sitting in a corner—looking hopelessly woebegone.

DINNER STORIES

In a state of considerable excitement the circus manager rushed up to Sam, the colored canvasser.

"I use no trunks," the salesman said. "Oh, I thought you was one of these traveling salesmen," said the porter.
