PULLMAN CONDUCTOR BECOMES INSANE ON TRAIN

Objected—Because President Did Not Consult Him.

Buffalo, N. Y., Feb. 27.—T. F. Robbins, of Jersey City, a Pullman conductor, became violently insane on Nickle Plate Train No. 2, cash-bound, shortly after it left Cleveland this morning. The train crew, with the help of several passengers, held the man in a smoker until the train reached Buffalo. He was taken to the City Hospital.

During the man's ravings he shouted that President Coolidge had called a special session of Congress without consulting him.
