LOCAL MENTION

Ernest Porter is confined to his home on Depot Street on account of sickness.

The Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce held a meeting Thursday night in the Elks Club.

Jay B. Linker has sold to Clyde Probst property in No. 11 township, on the Concord-Monroe highway, according to a deed filed Thursday. The purchase price was not given in the deed.

Police officers this morning reported that only three cases were on docket for trial in police court this afternoon. One defendant is charged with violating the prohibition laws, another is charged with speeding and the others with fornication and adultery.

Carpenters and painters have completed the work of remodeling the office of L. V. Elliott, register of deeds. The old ceiling in the office was replaced, all of the walls were done over and other changes made that have added much to the appearance of the office.

In the discussion on the revenue bill in the Senate Wednesday, Senator Foll of Cabarrus, declared he favored an ad valorem tax rather than another tax on automobile owners. He declared it the senate's duty to provide for the veterans and the education of the children.

The bill introduced by Senator Foll of Cabarrus, at the request of his daughter, Miss Adelaide Foll, to amend the statutes relative to pensions of Confederate veterans was passed Wednesday on third reading. The bill would give Confederate veterans living in county homes the right to draw pensions.

The younger generation in Concord is making ready for the kite flying contest which is to be held Saturday morning at the Y. A great many kites have been constructed for entries, the largest of which is an immense box kite which is about six feet square made by Jim Klutz, of the highway commission.

A number of persons who were "down town" by 7 o'clock this morning were surprised to see a kite majestically flying over the business section, for some of these people saw the kite in practically the same place when they left their stores last night. As a matter of fact the kite flew all night, its owner tying it up when he retired for the night.

J. H. Brown, county welfare officer, has been visiting a number of the schools in the county this week for the purpose of getting a check on the absentees. Mr. Brown is charged with seeing that the compulsory attendance law is obeyed and at regular intervals he visits the schools to get a line on the children who have not obeyed the law.

Some eggs and sugar were stolen from the Troutman store on Barbrick Street during the night. The thieves got the goods by taking out part of a show-window, the goods having been left in the window over night. The thieves did not enter the store and they removed the glass by taking out the putty which held it in.

The Concord wrestling team will take on the combined Rocky River and Harrisburg matmen Friday night at Rocky River. There is much interest in the county in wrestling. When the University of North Carolina came to Concord for its match, four of the seven men who met the University entries were from Rocky River and Harrisburg.

March winds blew with great gusto Thursday afternoon and night driving the temperature down again. However, during today the winds have died down to some extent and as a result the mercury has climbed several degrees again. The winds Thursday drove off the clouds which hovered over the city during the day and the sun has been out in great force today.

All members of the Fred Y. McConnell post of the American Legion and others who expect to become members are invited to the Dutch supper to be served in the post's quarters tonight. Major Wade Phillips, State commander of the Legion, will be present at the meeting, and a very fine program has been arranged. The meeting will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

A Jack Allen, well known man of the Flowe's Store neighborhood, died in the county home this morning. He became ill Tuesday and as he has no relatives in the county was taken to the county home for treatment. He will be buried either today or tomorrow, interment to be made in the cemetery at Rocky River Church. Mr. Allen came to this county about sixty years ago from South Carolina and was well known in No. 10 and other sections of the county.

A number of people attended the play, "Sally," in Charlotte Thursday afternoon and night. Among those who were present at the matinee were Mrs. H. G. Gibson, Mrs. Leslie Correll, Mrs. Ada Gorman, Mrs. C. J. Harris, Mrs. J. F. Goodman, Mrs. Victor Meaux, Mrs. L. T. Hartsell, Jr., and A. Jones York. Among the night attendants were: Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Barnhardt, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Byrd, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ridenhour, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Ridenhour, Jr., Mrs. Gertrude Ross, Mrs. Jack Wade-worth, Buford Blackwelder, Miss Bertie Louise Wilford, Josh Goodman, Misses Margaret Virginia Evin and Elizabeth Smith, William Meaux, Harry Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Hill and Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Burns.

The constricted waist in the wasp and other bee-like insects is the dam that holds the blood in the thorax while the heart steadily pumps it forward through the waist into the expanding wings.

TOM SIMS SAYS

It's spring, beautiful spring, when you feel so darn lazy you don't give a ding. The sap is flowing in the trees, there is a weakness in our knees, we've shed our heavy beveredees.

In the Tennessee mountains a dude is a man who gets his hair cut in March instead of April.

Oh, what is so rare as a day in June? Our guess is a player piano in tune. An Alabama dude is a man who cuts a chew of tobacco with his knife instead of biting it off.

In Mississippi, a lazy man is one who hasn't energy enough to make his boys go to work.

"You never can tell when a woman's going to change her mind. That's a new song. We can, "Always." And if you don't know why one changes her mind it's because "because."

We kicked the moth out of our bathing suit last night. He had eaten a hole big enough to make six doughnuts.

In the spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of nothing. Sometimes a reckless spender starts out and ends on the rocks and sometimes he ends on the rock pile.

The first sign of spring is a bathing girl on a magazine cover. (Copyright, 1925, NEA Service, Inc.)

Hon. R. L. Doughton, Congressman from this, the eighth district, has been honored by his associates in Congress by a place on the Ways and Means Committee, by far the most important committee of the lower house of Congress. That is a recognition of Doughton's ability as a constructive leader and business man.

Beginning to Reveal Itself. The Uplift. The wise planning behind the Duke foundation is being revealed in such a way that the public is coming to realize the greatness of the J. B. Duke contribution to the public welfare.

It comes to light that he had picked for the direction of this feature of his great benefaction Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the State board of health. This shows along with many other evidences the Duke's wisdom. Dr. Rankin will resign his State position, but glory be, neither the State nor this section is to be deprived of the valuable services and presence of this choice spirit.

COME TO VINGTON'S

Oh many a man may slip from grace Oh many a maid may fall There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip First slip and actual fall.

I claim no credit for these lines. King Solomon and Bobby Burns et al parodied the idea. But I'm slipping. Maybe I'm getting old. Perhaps there's some truth in all the old tales you hear about me and the gentlemen I have employed from time to time, but I've reached the time of life where most men have raised a family or built a business or found a calling of a sort so I'm going to mend my ways hereafter.

Still doing business at the same old stand, same old line, same old price, same old plan. Will you come to C. COVINGTON'S

Whether We Thank You—Of You Thank Us.

Naturally we'd rather sell clothing than simply show clothing but if the choice lay between showing and sitting around doing nothing—we'd choose showing.

If you are ready to purchase your Spring Suit, we would like to have you spend your money with us—but if you are only looking around—then we want you to spend your time here!

Whether we think you for your trade or you thank us for our time—it's all the same at Hoover's—you're welcome—anyway—any day.
