LOCAL MENTION

Mrs. H. M. Goodman is confined to her home on Franklin Avenue with the grippe.

Rev. L. A. Thomas, pastor of St. James Lutheran Church, will preach at the Jackson Training School tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Orin Barnhardt, who is teaching at Wilkesboro, is spending the week-end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Barnhardt, on the Kaniapolis Road.

The regular Saturday night program of movies will be shown tonight at the X. M. C. A., with the current event contest to be held as usual. Tickets will be given away to the Pastime Theatre to the winner of this contest.

The regular monthly meeting of the War Mothers will be held on Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. W. L. Bell on West Depot street. Joint hostesses with Mrs. Bell will be Mrs. W. S. Bingham, Mrs. G. M. Lose and Mrs. H. E. Ridenhour.

According to a deed filed Friday M. F. Teeter has sold to J. Lee Crowell property in No. 5 township for $100. Another deed filed Friday records the sale of property in Ward 4 by the Southern Loan and Trust Company to Julius P. Fisher, trustee, for $2,000.

Those county teachers who are taking the course, "Methods in Teaching," are meeting at the court house today. Prof. J. B. Robertson, superintendent of the county schools, presided at the meeting which was attended by practically all of the teachers who are taking the course.

Funeral services for A. Jack Allen, a well known man of No. 10 township, died Friday at the county home, were held this morning at Rocky River Church at 11 o'clock. The services were conducted by the pastor of the Church, Rev. T. H. Spence. Mr. Allen had been a consistent member of this church for a number of years.

Good progress is being made now on the Mt. Pleasant road. The top coating is being laid on part of the road, work being done now between Big Cold Water Creek and Concord. The work was held up several days by lack of materials but during the past several days fine progress has been made. It is planned to rush the work to completion.

Major W. A. Foil and Sam Black, State Senator and Representative respectively in the State Assembly, are expected to return to Concord Tuesday or Wednesday. The State legislature will come to a close some time next week and the Cabarrus representatives are expected to return home as soon as they can wind up all business affairs.

The Teacher Training Department of the Farm Life School at China Grove ordered this week enough of Supt. J. B. Robertson's book on teaching, "Guide Posts for the School Room," to supply the pupils taking the science of teaching. This book has met with favor in and out of the State. The second edition has been printed and nearly sold.

A defendant charged with larceny was sentenced to serve four months in police court Friday and he gave notice of appeal. A jury tried another defendant charged with having liquor in his possession and returned a verdict of not guilty. Two persons charged with prostitution were fined $15 and three speeders also were fined by the court.

Friday was a perfect day in Concord, climatically speaking. The sun shone with great warmth during the day and there was not a cloud in the sky. The weather man promised continued warm weather today and his prophecy has been fulfilled. Spring seems to have arrived and it has been joyously welcomed by those persons who have tired of the confinement occasioned by winter.

Police officers Widenhouse and Ridenhour went to Salisbury today to get a young white man named Evans who was wanted here on a charge of passing a worthless check. The check was given to the Pearl Drug Company, police officers report. The warrant for Evans was sent to Salisbury several days ago and officers went there for him as soon as they were advised that he is under arrest.

Post and Flagg's Cotton Letter.
 New York, March 6.—In spite of strong Liverpool cables the cotton market today opened almost unchanged and soon developed a rather reactionary tendency on predictions that the drought might possibly be broken over the week-end, as general cloudiness in the southwest is reported. Except for this, there were few bearish arguments, but it was enough to bring out some long cotton and stimulate local selling. Dry goods advices were strong, indicating that large business is under way or pending and spot advices were generally very bullish. Trade buying on a scale down prevented any sharp break, but should the forecasts for rain prove true many buying orders will probably be lowered or withdrawn, particularly in the new crop options, although the strength of the spot situation should prevent any very wide decline.

POST AND FLAGG.

Rat Storms Ticket Office.
 Kinston, March 7.—Ticket selling at a local theater was stayed temporarily when a large rat leaped through a round aperture in the glass front of the box office directly into the lap of the young woman selling tickets. The ticket seller fled, leaving money and tickets where they lay. The rat disappeared through the door left open by the young woman in her hasty pursuit.

Japan took to hockey a year or two ago, and is already proposing to challenge Australia and New Zealand.

TOM SIMS SAYS

When you are riding along a country lane and she takes off her hat it's time to smoke your pipe.

Have you noticed the scarcity of men's ties? It's because the women don't like to be bald headed.

Lots of times a man thinks a girl is crazy about him because she can't get a date with anybody else.

Style hints for the future predict women may go without everything except money.

Love is blind, especially love of liquor; so is the lover after drinking some of it.

Women who marry to become pets usually lead a dog's life.

Some people couldn't kick any more if they were centipedes.

Ham and eggs get any more expensive they will be considered as couple of highbrows.

If you are not opportunity, don't knock.

You seldom see a reformed reformer. The early work will be with us soon. He will get fished with.

Dies From Injuries.

(By the Associated Press.)
 Eatonton, Ga., March 7.—W. C. Wright, Putnam county school superintendent, died at 9:30 o'clock this morning from injuries suffered Wednesday when he was assaulted by two young men to whom he had given a lift in his automobile near Eatonton. Three men held in jail at Atlanta are charged with assault on the educator, for forty years connected with the Georgia school system.

An Inauguration Months Too Late.

New York World.
 Not until four full months after his election was Mr. Coolidge inaugurated as President. For three of those four months a Congress whose successor had been elected has been in session in Washington, passing hundreds of laws and exercising all the functions of the national legislature. We have had a hang-over Congress, a "amoduck" Congress, when the country had determined there should be change in both houses.

It is an absurd system to delay an incoming administration so many weeks, and a system which is retained because it was inherited from an age when collection of election returns was delayed and the assembling of the legislature slow. We are long past stage-coach days, but we cling to their antiquated plan. There is no reason for it. The inauguration of the President should be advanced by months, together with the meeting of the newly chosen Congress. That senators and representatives who have been rejected should carry on their work for months as the nation's lawmakers, and that the Congress of the people's choice should be barred from the Capitol, is a plain denial of truly representative government.

Previous to 1897, when the electron was discovered by Sir J. J. Thompson, a hydrogen atom, whose mass is 1,800 times as great as that of an electron, was the smallest mass known to science.
