R. M. COOK SERIOUSLY INJURED WHEN HE JUMPS FROM TRUCK

Jumped From Truck in Which He Was Riding and Struck His Head on the Pavement.

R. M. Cook, local merchant, was seriously injured this morning near the Jackson Training School when he jumped from the truck in which he was riding and struck his head on the concrete pavement of the highway.

He was immediately after the accident taken to the Concord Hospital in an unconscious condition. Hospital authorities were of the opinion that it would be several hours before the exact nature of his injuries could be determined, but thought it was probable that an operation would be necessary.

The accident occurred when Mr. Cook and his truck driver, C. E. Flowe, started to Charlotte to procure a load of cabbages. The trip was being made in the White truck, belonging to the Ed. M. Cook Co., a company of which Mr. Cook is principal owner.

When they reached the Jackson Training School, it was necessary to leave the hard surface and the truck, which was going at a good speed, hit the dirt road and began skidding. It skidded back on the road and Mr. Cook jumped from the truck, striking his head on the pavement.

The truck righted itself and immediately Mr. Flowe, who was uninjured, brought Mr. Cook back to Concord.

Ripka street, Manynuk, and explained how she could read his pain and tell him all about his past and future. Reichert fell for the story.

He wasn't so much interested in his future. He knew all about that. But, he argued, he'd certainly like to give the future the once-over.

So the gypsy sat down with him and went into some details about the happenings of tomorrow and the days thereafter. She also went into Albert's pockets while he was in a reverie, dreaming of the ship that was to bring him gold and the wonderful prospects for a rosy future.

When she had said goodbye and wished Albert all sorts of good luck, Albert was all smiles. But when he felt for his watch, worth $60, and the $125 cash he had tucked away, the cash and the watch had gone—with the gypsy.

He told the police and a search was started for the fortune teller. But Albert was out of luck.

IN AND ABOUT THE CITY

BASEBALL PRACTICE BEGUN AT HIGH SCHOOL LAST WEEK

Highs Have Hard Schedule Ahead of Them—Duke Freshmen to Play in Concord.

With the coming of spring weather during the last two weeks, there can again be heard the crack of bats and the shouting of one player to another as the Highs prepare for their baseball season.

Prospects are good. Although the Highs are not crowded with super-prospects, still there is enough of just plain every day baseball material on the field to make a good team, one that will give most of the teams in this section something to look up to.

There are now about 25 men out for practice, only four of whom have letters. However, the new men seem to be showing up better than the old ones. It is a highly satisfactory coaching, that the old men have got to do some good work if they are going to make the team.

The season starts on the 27th of March with a game at Salisbury. This is followed by a schedule which is probably the best any Concord team ever had. The first few games on the list are placed away from Concord on account of trouble the High School is having in getting a place to play. The new field at the High School building has no fence around it and the fields formerly used are not in any shape to be played on.

The result is that it was thought wise to put the first games away from home in order to get a good playing place fixed. Among the strongest teams in the state will be played. The Duke Freshmen have already signed the necessary papers and will be seen on the local field. It is probable that the Carolina Freshmen will play here. Among the High Schools appearing on the local field are Rockingham, Gastonia, Shelby and Durham.

Of the candidates who are out for the team this year, McInnis looks like the best of the hitters. He is not only slugging the ball but he is doing utility work in both the outfield and the infield. He may be used at second, says Coach Fanning. Sullivan is also doing well. He will, of course, be the mainstay in the pitching staff as well as a relief infield pitcher.

Williams and Widenhouse are out for catching position with Widenhouse probably getting the place and Williams going to shortstop. Simpson is doing pretty work in the infield. Hall is trying out for pitcher and shortstop. Lentz, last year's first baseman, is again trying for his old place but is having stiff competition. Harris, though not having played on the team before, is looking like a real find at first. Jarrett is trying for pitcher, Sanders at second and Bost at third. Bost is holding splendidly but has a weak arm.

In the outfield there are McAthren, Watts, Litaker, Howard and Melchor, all of whom are doing good work.

Coach Fanning says it is a little too early to do much predicting, but he is confident that Concord will have one of the best teams that she has had in the history of high school baseball.

MR. ARMFIELD HAS RECEIVED STRONG SUPPORT FOR JUDGE

Concord Bar Solidly Behind Him—Lawyers Throughout The District Send Indorsements For Him.

The Concord bar is solidly behind Mr. Frank Armfield for appointment as judge of this judicial district to succeed the late Judge B. F. Long. Yesterday members of the bar forwarded the following petition to Governor McLean:

To His Excellency, A. W. McLean, Governor of North Carolina:

We, the undersigned members of the Concord bar, respectfully show that Cabarrus County unanimously asks the appointment of Hon. Frank Armfield, of the Concord bar, as successor of the late lamented Judge Benjamin F. Long. Mr. Armfield is a man of judicial temperament, has a fine legal mind, and is recognized as a lawyer of ability.

We desire Your Excellency to take notice that our county has had no judge in thirty-five years, no solicitor in over forty-five years and no congressman in eighty years, and we respectfully submit that some of the other counties that have had judges, solicitors and congressmen repeatedly in the above periods, should now allow Cabarrus County to have the honor of this appointment.

MORRISON H. CALDWELL, J. LEE CROWELL, L. T. HARTSELL, H. S. WILLIAMS, T. D. MANESS, A. B. PALMER, M. E. SHERRIN, JOHN M. OGLESBY, J. LEE CROWELL, JR., L. T. HARTSELL, JR., R. W. BLACKWELDER, W. B. BOGLE.

Mr. Farr was out of town but he is supporting Mr. Armfield.

Various other bars are also enthusiastically behind Mr. Armfield's candidacy, especially Richmond, Anson and Mecklenburg. Press dispatches from Raleigh today state that the Governor has received indorsements for a number of lawyers in the district including another member of the Concord bar, John M. Oglesby. Mr. Oglesby stated this morning that he had never entertained an idea of being a candidate for the place and that if any indorsement had been sent the Governor it was without his knowledge. Mr. Oglesby is enthusiastic in his support of Mr. Armfield. He spent Monday in Charlotte in the interest of Mr. Armfield's candidacy, and succeeded in securing a large number of indorsements among the lawyers there for Mr. Armfield.

Other lawyers in the district mentioned as likely candidates are: Harry Grier, and Ex-Governor Turner, of Statesville; R. Lee Wright, Salisbury; Walter Woodson, Salisbury; H. T. Brittain, Asheboro and R. T. Poole, Troy.

Death of Annie Mae Furr. Annie Mae Furr was born August 11, 1918, and died March 14, 1925, age six years, seven months and three days. She was the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Furr. On Sunday, March 8th, she was taken sick and developed pneumonia. Although her condition was regarded as serious it was not thought by those who knew her that death was near. Her condition remained unchanged until Saturday night when her spirit left the earth at 11:15. Annie Mae was a very sweet little girl, always wearing a smile for those she knew. She was loved by her schoolmaster and teachers.

She is survived by her parents, two sisters and one brother.

Funeral services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. M. A. Osborn, pastor of Center Grove Methodist Church on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery there. Her schoolmates acted as flower girls. There were many floral designs, among them being a wreath given by the teachers and pupils of the school. The writer and others sympathize with the bereaved family. A FRIEND.
