THE WOMANLESS WEDDING AT HIGH SCHOOL TONIGHT

Promises to be one of most enjoyable entertainments Concord has had in a long time.

Miss Joseph Pell, of Boston, Mass., arrived in the city today for the Long-Fisher wedding, which takes place in the High School auditorium tonight at 8 o'clock. Miss Pell is a graduate of the Royal Conservatory of Music, Wurzburg, possessing a lyric soprano of exquisite tone. Miss Pell will sing "O Promise Me."

Other distinguished guests who will sing this evening are Miss Regina Richardson (pupil of Oscar Sanger), pupil of Deretalia, pupil of Bendy and Vesanka) and Mr. Miles Wolf and Mr. Wauchope, baritone.—Adv.

Practice of Choral Club Postponed.

There will be no practice of the Choral Club this evening, as the Lolla Tuttle Circle of Central Methodist Church is giving an entertainment tonight at the high school. The club will practice next Thursday night.

Shamrock Tea.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Forest Hill Methodist Church will give a Shamrock Tea Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the ladies' parlor of the church. Everybody is invited to come.

Attend Wedding in Gastonia.

Among the Concord people attending the wedding of John Durham and Miss Helen Torrence in Gastonia Wednesday evening were: Mrs. J. M. Odell, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Odell and W. R. Odell. A party from Greensboro attending the wedding stopped over in the city to spend Thursday. They were: Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Odell, Misses Maude and Dorothy Merrimon and Miss Mattie Boren.

Entertains at Bridge Party.

Miss Addie Sue Harry was the honoree at a delightful party given by Miss Bertie Louise Williford Wednesday afternoon at her home on South Union street.

Miss Harry is to be married in May to Frank Marshall, of McKeesport, Pa., and is one of the most popular of the spring brides.

Bride was played at eight tables, Miss Miriam Morris winning the top score prize. At the conclusion of the game delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. J. Lee Crowell, Mrs. J. B. Womble and Mrs. E. N. Spencer.

Miss Williford's guests were: Addie Sue Harry, Julie Harry, May Harry, Ruth Cannon, Mary Crowell, Ruth Crowell, Helen March, Miriam Morris, Dorothy Wolf, Rebecca Dayvaut, Annie Smoot, Virginia Smoot, Elizabeth Black, Marie Brown, Louise Morris, Willie Wainwright, Penelope Cannon, Miriam Coffey, Mary McKinley, Laura Gilson, Margaret Miller, Carrie Mae Brown, of Raleigh; Mary McLaughlin, Medames Grace Brown Saunders, T. N. Spencer, R. V. Caldwell, W. L. Burns, L. T. Hartwell, Jr., Stirling Bowers, Mrs. Williford, A. C. Cline, L. E. Boger, Leslie Bell, W. A. Folt, M. M. Linker and T. N. Deaton.

Bride Party for Guest.

Mrs. A. C. Cline entertained at two tables of bridge Wednesday evening complimentary to her sister, Miss Carrie Mae Brown, of Raleigh, who has been visiting her for several days.

At the conclusion of the game, delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Cline's guests were: Carrie Mae Brown, Mary McLaughlin, Bertie Louise Williford, Joe Pell, Miles Wolf and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kennett.

Richmond-Flows Company to Have Big Shoe Sale.

The Richmond-Flows Company on Saturday of this week will begin a big shoe sale, the building formerly occupied by Efrin's having been secured for the sale.

The management of the company carries a page ad in this paper today, the ad being devoted to facts and figures about the sale. Shoes, slippers and pumps for every member of the family will be offered during the sale, and the prices will be unusually low.

In connection with the sale the company will also offer a large stock of hosiery at reduced prices. The hosiery is of good materials and patterns and can be bought during the sale at a big reduction over regular prices. The sale will begin Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and continue until the stock is sold.

Annies May Furr.

Little Annie May Furr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Furr, was born August 11th, 1918, and died March 14th, 1925, age 6 years, 7 months and 3 days. She leaves her father and mother, one brother and two sisters, and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her departure.

Annie May was a bright and attractive little girl and all who knew her loved her. She was sick only a few days. All that medical skill and loving hands could do was of no avail. God had need of her and when He comes to make up His jewels we trust little Annie May will be among the fairest.

Shoe Sale at Efrin's.

In a page ad in this paper today Efrin's tells of a big shoe sale it is offering for the public. The sale will continue for seven days.

The ad points out that during the sale shoes will sell at prices ranging from 65 cents to $5.95, the best stock in the house to be offered. Latest patterns and best materials will be offered and the sale will offer an opportunity to shoppers to get reasonable footwear at reduced prices.

Rowena Morse Mann, well known as a preacher in Chicago and the middle West, was the first woman to occupy the pulpit at Harvard University.

Spring Opening and Before Easter Sale at Paris-Bell Company.

The Paris-Bell Co. in this city has completed preparations for the big Spring Opening and Before Easter Sale which will begin tomorrow (Friday) morning, and in two page ads, today the management points out some of the unusual bargains that will be offered during the sale.

Experienced help has been secured for the sale including desks from the Charlotte store and everything has been planned to make the sale one of the most successful the store has ever conducted.

Spring fabrics, footwear, hosiery, men's shirts, men's suits, and hats, boys' suits, ladies' suits and coats, wash dresses, dresses and the new ensembles will all be offered at prices unusually attractive to the buyer who wants to get the best at the most reasonable prices.

The shopper who is interested in seasonal goods should read carefully the two ads in this paper.

De. Little Sends Thanks to Mr. Blanks.

Dr. Luther Little, head of the 30th of May Celebration in Charlotte, has sent his thanks in a letter of recent date to E. W. Blanks for the work he did in getting Cabarrus County to join in with Mecklenburg in the celebration.

In addition to thanking Mr. Blanks and Mr. Morrison Caldwell of this city, Dr. Little asks that persons who will cooperate by entering the pageant, send their names at once to Mr. Blanks so that he may know how many people from Concord are planning to be in the celebration.

Bible and Flag to Be Presented to Howells.

Two Concord Junior orders will present to Howells school on Sunday afternoon, March 22nd, a flag and a Bible, the presentation to take place at 3 o'clock. All members are requested to meet at their halls at 2 o'clock so as to get ready and be able to reach Howells by three.

Patriots and Daughters of Liberty are invited to attend in addition to the general public.

Change in Date for Merchant's Meeting.

Charlotte, March 18.—North Carolina Merchants' Association will convene here in annual session May 19-21, instead of May 20-23 as previously planned. It is announced by officials of the local association.
