Rowan County Canines May Not Run At Large. Salisbury, March 19.—Dogs that are allowed to run at large in Salisbury and Rowan county are to have a hard time keeping alive from now on. The county board of health which is supreme in such matters has decreed that all dogs running at large and unmuzzled shall be killed and all officers of the county and towns within the county are directed to shoot to kill. This drastic ruling was brought about on account of the recent damage done by several dogs afflicted with rabies. A number of people and much stock was bitten by the mad dogs. California expects to produce a cotton crop this year that will bring between $5,000,000 and $6,000,000. NOTICE Administrator's Sale of Personal Property W. H.
