

"THE ELITE"

Cane Furniture suggests coolness combined with comfort. Well designed, it is also attractive. Very charming groupings can be made using the Cane Suits as the center piece, the color of upholstery as the base for color decoration.

Frames are substantial, hickory dowel construction. Bottoms are fitted with oil tempered springs held firmly in steel frames. Nachman Spring Units in cushions. The Cane is imported, strictly first quality.

LOCAL MENTION

Concord filling stations reduced the price on gasoline Thursday. The price which has been 26 cents until Thursday has now been reduced to 25 cents.

Miss Helen Cook underwent an operation at the Concord Hospital this morning for the removal of her tonsils. She is getting along nicely.

Continued improvement is reported again today in the condition of Wendell Ezell, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Ezell, who is recuperating from an operation for appendicitis in a Charlotte hospital.

The business men's volleyball team will go to Greensboro tonight to play the White Oak team of that city. This is a return match, the White Oak team having played in Concord previously and having beaten the locals.

If you want to get rid of the trash that has been collecting on your premises this winter, place it on the streets near your home and the city will have it moved. Trash wagons are making regular rounds of the city now and the trash will be carried off free of charge.

Tom Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Brown, who has been confined to his home on Georgia Avenue for over a week with mumps, is again able to be out. He came home from the University of North Carolina when he first became ill.

The Center Grove Club met with the Sloop Club, of Rowan county, at the home of Mrs. E. A. Pethel in Rowan county Thursday afternoon. After making hats for sometime, a social hour was enjoyed.

Prof. J. R. Robertson, superintendent of the school of the county, left today for Alamance county, having been called there by the illness of his father, C. F. Robertson, who has been paralyzed for some time and whose condition during the past week has not been favorable.

Dr. J. R. Pentuff, pastor of McGill Street Baptist Church, is preaching at White-Parks mill each night this week in the Sunday school quarters on East Depot Street. The meeting is fine, and is expected that it will close at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Corl of Webb City, Mo., are visiting Mr. Corl's brother, Mr. M. J. Corl. Mr. Corl was reared near Lower Stone Church, but left here 42 years ago and went to Missouri. Mr. Corl has many friends in this section who are glad to see him.

There was another change in the temperature during the night, the mercury falling several degrees. Heavy frost was predicted for part of the state by the weather bureau but it fell only in certain places in this city. Prevailing temperatures will continue tonight according to the weather forecast for the state.

Police officers of the city this morning reported that only three cases were on docket for trial in recorder's court this afternoon. All of the defendants are charged with speeding, the officers stated, and if they plead guilty as they are expected to do, the court will be in session only a few minutes.

A regular meeting of the Fred Y. McConnell post of the American Legion will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock. In issuing the call for the meeting Adjutant Walter stated that he had fine news for the post, and all members are asked to attend. Only one business matter will come up and the meeting promises to be a short one.

Britt (Rube) Wilson, for several years one of the mainstays of the Charlotte pitching staff, reported to Manager Ray Kennedy this week. Wilson expects to have an unusually fine season this year and he reported in good physical condition as he spent the winter on his Cabarrus county farm and kept in condition throughout the winter months.

A. C. Linker has sold to A. S. J. Linker property in No. 9 township for $200, according to a deed filed at the court house Thursday. Another deed filed Thursday records the sale of property on Petros Heights, Kannapolis suburb, by B. W. Durham to Dr. R. Frank Flowe. The purchase price was not given.

City trash wagons are visiting all parts of the city now collecting trash that is placed on the streets by property owners. Every year at this season the city furnishes the wagons for the removal of the trash and owners who wish the trash moved have only to place it on the streets near their home and it will be collected and carted off.

Managers of the various teams in the South Atlantic League are getting their players lined up for the 1925 season now. Practice for all of the teams in the league started this week and intensive training will be kept up until the opening of the season. There are eight teams in the league now, including Charlotte, Asheville, Knoxville, Spartanburg, Columbia, Greenville, Macon and Augusta.
