The Right to be Well Born

Home Breeding in its Relation to Eugenics

By W. E. D. STOKES

W. E. D. Stokes, multimillionaire, who is now on trial in Chicago charged with defamation of his wife's character, is an author. Here is shown the cover of the book and how Stokes looked in 1923 on the flyleaf of 'The Right to be Well Born, or Horse Breeding in its Relation to Eugenics.'

NORTH CAROLINA STATE SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

To Be Held in Greensboro April 28-30.—Great Meeting Expected.

On April 28, 29 and 30 Greensboro is to be host to a large number of Sunday school workers from all parts of the state, representing all evangelical denominations, who will be in attendance upon the annual convention of the North Carolina Sunday School Association.

Greensboro's part in arranging the convention is in the hands of the following committee on arrangements, appointed some weeks ago at a meeting of pastors, superintendents and other Sunday school leaders in that city: general chairman O. E. Lee, director of education, First Baptist Church; chairman entertainment committee, E. D. Yost, general secretary Y. M. C. A.; chairman local publicity committee, E. P. Myrick, superintendent First Christian Sunday school; chairman finance committee, A. C. Davis, superintendent of West Market Street Methodist Sunday school; chairman hall committee, H. C. Marley, of the First Baptist Church.

The program committee has announced that the program has been planned with the view of making it possible for all Sunday school teachers and officers to get practical help for their work. There will be general sessions each morning and evening, when topics of interest to all Sunday school workers will be discussed. The afternoon sessions will be devoted to special departmental conferences which will deal with the problems of all departments of the modern Sunday school.

Speaking in the general convention sessions, and in charge of the different departmental conferences, will be the following out-of-state Sunday school specialists: Miss Meme Brockway, Philadelphia, Pa., director of children's work for the Northern Baptist Church; Dr. Percy R. Hayward, Chicago, Ill., young people's division superintendent International Council of Religious Education; Mr. Charles Darsie, St. Louis, Mo., adult division superintendent Christian Disciples Church; Dr. Chas. W. Brewbaker, Dayton, O., general secretary Sunday school work, United Brethren Church; Thos. S. Evans, New York, N. Y., general secretary International Daily Vacation Bible School Association.

China Grove Man Wins Sweepstakes at National Corn Show.

J. A. Patterson, China Grove, won the North Carolina state sweepstakes at the National Seed Corn Show at Chicago last week, according to advices reaching here today. Mr. Patterson took first place from among 107 competitors representing 46 counties in the state.

The National Seed Corn Show, in which Mr. Patterson won high honors, was the largest corn show the world has ever seen. Close to 30,000 growers had entries in the show, and $17,000 in prizes was offered by the Sears-Roebuck agricultural foundation for the winning ears in the exhibit. Each ear was tested for germination, and the judges were ten of the outstanding corn authorities in America.

Know Him?

Here we have Joe Tucker once famous shortstop of the Chicago Cubs who now a prosperous citizen of Orlando Fla. Tucker invested his baseball savings in real estate down in the Everglades region and has met with pronounced success. He's still interested in the old diamond pastime, however.

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Here's the puzzle of puzzles. It has stumped the best solvers in this new game. It was recently submitted to the members of the National Puzzlers' League, which convened at Newark, N. J. Yet not one of these crackerjacks in puzzle solving could finish it.

If you think you're good, try your hand at it. At least see how far you can get. Then compare your work with the answer tomorrow.
