LOCAL MENTION

The board of directors of the Y will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock. All members are urged to attend.

J. Leslie Bell had the misfortune to break his wrist Tuesday morning while cranking his Ford.

Members of the Virginia Dare Book Club will meet tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. Jacob Stirewalt at her home near the Brown Mill.

Mrs. Jacob Stirewalt will entertain the members of the Virginia Dare Book Club tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock at her home near the Brown Mill.

Notice is given by the County Board of Education that the board will elect a County Superintendent of Public Instruction on Monday, April 6th.

The Indian Head dress goods in the ad. of Parks-Belk Co. yesterday should have been priced at 39 cents instead of 50 cents as quoted in the ad.

Some improvement is reported today in the condition of Mrs. L. D. Coltrane, Jr., who is undergoing treatment at the Charlotte Sanatorium. Mrs. Coltrane expects to be in the hospital from three to five weeks.

The condition of Louise Miller Hartsell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Joe A. Hartsell, who has been ill for several days, is reported today as improved. She is able to be out of the house again.

Wendell Ezell, who was operated on for appendicitis two weeks ago and who has been in a serious condition due to a development of peritonitis since the operation, is now in a grave condition due to the development of pneumonia which became apparent last Friday.

Ten defendants were tried in police court here Monday afternoon and all of them were found guilty. Eight of the defendants paid fines of $10 each, another paid a $15 fine and the other a $5 fine, total fines being $100. Seven of the defendants were charged with speeding.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. John Shoe died Sunday night at their home on Young Street and funeral services were held at the home Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. Henry Blackwelder and interment was made in Union cemetery.

Workmen engaged in the task of tearing down the old St. Cloud Hotel are on the top of the structure now. They are getting the brick down and of necessity had to start at the top. The rooms on Depot street, formerly used as sample rooms have been dismantled partially as have the rooms on Union street formerly used by business concerns.

W. H. Gibson has resumed active management of the National Lumber Company after being confined to his home for several weeks following an operation for appendicitis. Mr. Gibson has been showing marked improvement for the past several weeks and his friends will be interested to know that his health is rapidly returning to normalcy.

Fishermen of Concord are putting in much time at Beaver Dam and other nearby fishing places now. During the past week, it is reported, conditions have been very fine for fishing and Concord persons have taken advantage of the conditions. Some local fishermen report good luck while others report medium luck only.

Chief of Police Talbirt has a notice in this issue of The Tribune that should be read by all car owners. In his notice Chief Talbirt calls attention to the fact that it is unlawful for car owners to allow their motor vehicles to be operated by children under sixteen years of age. "In the future violators of the law in Concord will be arrested," Chief Talbirt stated.

The Mt. Pleasant road was opened to traffic Sunday and hundreds of autos were driven over the road during the day. The road is not completed but all of the concrete base has been laid and where the asphalt has not been laid the concrete is used. During the week when work is being done on the road it is not always possible to get through to Mt. Pleasant without detouring, but on Sundays the road is opened.

Because of the fact that the Y officials gave the wrong name, The Tribune printed yesterday a story of Stuart Henry winning the current event contest when it should have been Linwood Brown who was the winner. Linwood, who is the son of Mrs. Edna Brown on North Church street, told the story of J. B. Sherrill being "Forty Years on the Same Newspaper" and as a result of the excellence of his account of the symposium, was awarded the prize.

Golfers are finding the Cabarrus County Country Club golf course very inviting at present and large numbers of players have been using the course each afternoon. Playing on the course several days ago Al Johnson, local professional, made a new record when he played the nineholes in 32, five strokes under par. Many visitors are being attracted to the club house also, and during the past several weeks a number of the club members have taken up golf for the first time.

Rev. W. C. Lyster is spending the day at Noreth Ophelia's Home at Crossen attending a meeting of the board of managers. The home is building a new dormitory for girls and the meeting is in the interest of the building operations. Mr. Lyster is secretary of the board which will soon prepare the annual report to the Classis of North Carolina under whose fostering care the home is managed and largely supported.

A cynic is a man who mistakes cheerfulness for ignorance.

Golf won't take the place of baseball as long as most men think golf scores as typographical errors.

Only thing you can tell by some watches is what time it isn't.

The Mad Hatter seems to write the price tags on spring bonnets.

What tickles a man more than getting out his summer suit and finding a dime in the pockets?

Only a short time now until we will be too sick to work and too well to stay home from fishing.

A man raises Cain with the waiter about burned food because he can have that kind at home.

Lots of novels are written for stenographers to read during business hours, and few spelling books.

Forecasting Weather by Smoke. The Pathfinder.

Question: Why does smoke rise higher on a clear day than on a cloudy day? Does this fact indicate in any way what kind of weather we can expect?

Answer: There are several reasons for this. In the first place, on clear days there is more vertical or thermal convection, as the scientists call it, than on a cloudy day. Then, too, on a clear day there is less humidity or moisture in the air to load down the particles of smoke. Besides there is generally less wind on clear days to diffuse the smoke rapidly, although this is not always the case. The weather bureau says there is some slight justification for the saying that falling smoke indicates rain. This is because an overcast sky and considerable moisture in the air usually precede a general storm. But the layman is advised not to take smoke too seriously as a weather prognosticator. There are a hundred and one other conditions which may intervene to belie the tale told by rising or settling smoke. The problem is uncertain and complex. But generally speaking, the rising or settling of smoke is determined by thermal convection and by the amount of moisture

NOTICE TO CAR OWNERS

My attention has been called to the fact that children under 16 years of age are driving motor vehicles in Concord. I wish to call car owners attention to the following State law which will be enforced by local officers: "Any person who, being the owner, or in charge of any motor vehicle, authorizes or knowingly permits a person under the age of sixteen years to operate such motor vehicle along any public street or public highway in the State of North Carolina shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine not in excess of the sum of fifty dollars." Car owners please be careful not to violate this law. L. A. TALBIRT, Chief of Police.

TAX NOTICE.

The time is drawing near for the annual advertisement and sale of property for unpaid taxes. Please pay now and avoid extra expense and trouble. R. V. CALDWELL, JR., 23-01-c. Sheriff.

Turn About Fair Play Merchants Contend.

Greensboro, March 21.—When students of colleges and schools here and nearby ask local merchants to advertise in their publications they should reciprocate by doing their trading at home, a resolution passed at a meeting of the directors of the merchants' association stated last night. Some of the directors seemed to think that there was some trading done not only out of the city, but even out of the state. The resolution was a "turn about is fair play" one.
